A New Nation ,2000      The Nordic Wave in Place Branding Cecilia Cassinger,Andrea Lucarelli,Szilvia Gyimóthy,2019
The widespread international interest in the Nordic region and the mobility of Nordic brand imaginaries call for more research into the global relevance of Nordic place branding practices This book offers a timely attempt to unpack the specificity of the Nordic in regard to place branding by gathering different transdisciplinary accounts written by researchers in marketing tourism geography communication sociology and political science      Democracy & Education ,2006
El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000      Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White      The Software Encyclopedia 2001 ,2001      The adventure
Sébastien Bachelet,2025-07-08 This ethnographic exploration of irregular migration from Western and Central Africa in Morocco deconstructs dehumanising narratives of a migration crisis and a sub Saharan problem in politics of migration The book provides an original focus on how migrants understood and experienced their entrapped mobility The emic notion of the adventure at the heart of this study sheds light on a transformative epic quest to carve out a better life and future The book traces how young men from Western and Central Africa sought to assert themselves as agents of their own destinies despite uncertain illegalising processes In steering away from aesthetics of despair and fearmongering narratives the book brings new insights into inter disciplinary debates e g illegality uncertainty immobility violence suffering transit etc Such focus is essential to draw out the complexity and existential depth of irregular migrants lives journeys and stories      A Survey of Reclamation: how the Great Government Adventure in Irrigation of the Arid West Came Into Being and what it Has Accomplished ,1923      Handbook on the History and Culture of the Black Sea Region Ninja Bumann,Kerstin S. Jobst,Stefan Rohdewald,Stefan Troebst,2024-12-30 Following the annexation of Crimea by the Russian Federation in spring 2014 160 years after the Crimean War and the full scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 the Black Sea region has again become the focus of world history In this handbook international scholars from various historical and cultural disciplines provide deep historical insights into the structures of conflict cooperation and interrelations between the Balkans the Middle East the Caucasus and Eastern Europe in the space referred to as the Black Sea world The trans maritime communication and intra regional circulations spanning from Antiquity to the present day via Byzantium the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the Crimean Khanate the Venetian Safavid Ottoman and Romanov empires two World Wars and the Cold War highlight the autonomy of this historical region in the larger transcontinental setting designated in various times and varying languages as the Pontus Euxinus the Mare Maggior the Kara Deniz the Chernoe More or the Black Sea This voluminous edition sheds real light upon the history of the Black Sea region from antiquity until the end of the 20th century Not only does this first rate book provide a host of excellent historical essays across time it also devotes considerable attention to important questions regarding how the Black Sea region is conceptualized and theorized A very useful contribution James H Meyer Montana State University In the wake of several research projects monographs and journals this is the first groundbreaking handbook on the cohesive history of the Black Sea as a historical meso region It gathers 39 excellent contributions that provide the conceptual apparatus survey the history of the region from a Greek to Byzantine to Ottoman lake to conflicting rivalries to its recent transformation from a quasi Soviet to a quasi NATO lake examine the ideas that underpin the various national ethnic and religious identities research the different mobilities through migration transport infrastructure and take stock of its turbulent history through conflicts and war Maria Todorova University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Mostly the work of scholars from Central Europe and the Black Sea region this massive volume focuses on the relationship between historical research and memory in particular the difficulty of certain groups living in the region when confronted with empires and nation states whose centers may be quite distant from the Black Sea Attentive readers may thus view the present handbook not merely as a work of reference on history memory and movement but also as a testimony to the historical perspectives developed by a significant number of Central European and Black Sea scholars during the first quarter of the twenty first century Suraiya Faroqi Ibn Haldun University Istanbul

The Hiker travel guide for Panama ,2025-09-24 Bulletin of State Institutions [under the Board of Control] Iowa. Board of Control of State Institutions,1925 Bulletin of State Institutions ,1927 The regional travel guide for Qax (Azerbaijan) ,2025-09-25 Tourism, Health, Wellbeing and Protected Areas Irine Azara,Eleni Michopoulou,Federico Niccolini,B Derrick Taff,Alan Clarke,2018-05-14 Around the world there is mounting evidence that parks and protected areas contribute to a healthy civil society thus increasing the economic importance of cultural and nature based tourism Operating at the intersection of business and the environment tourism can improve human health and wellbeing as well as serve as a catalyst for increasing appreciation and stewardship of the natural world While the revenues from nature based activities help to make the case for investing in park and protected area management the impacts they have need to be carefully managed so that visitors do not destroy the natural wonders that attracted them to a destination in the first place This book features contributions from tourism and recreation researchers and practitioners exploring the relationship between tourism hospitality protected areas livelihoods and both physical and emotional human wellbeing The book includes sections focused on theory policy and practice and case studies to inform and guide industry decisions to address real world problems and proactively plan for a sustainable and healthy future People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs, Kim van Dam, Frédéric Laugrand, 2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples Alternative Health Practices for Livestock Thomas Morris, Michael Keilty, 2008-06-02 The idea that current methods of food production are not sustainable in the long term is a controversial topic This book provides information that will advance a form of livestock production that meets the long and short term goals of human food production minimizing degradation of natural resources Important concerns regarding food safety particularly antibiotic and chemical residues in meat milk and other livestock foods have stimulated renewed interest in alternative methods of promoting livestock health Alternative Health Practices for Livestock is the first compilation of its kind for veterinarians agriculture extension educators and livestock producers It provides a well referenced overview of some of the alternative livestock practices currently being examined Key Features A much needed information source on alternative health for large animals Contributions from veterinarians farmers extension educators and university professors Discusses the necessity for more validated scientific assessments of alternative and herbal therapies in livestock production Includes chapters on ways to promote alternative methods of health care for livestock including steps to obtain research funding

Place, Identity and Everyday Life in a Globalizing World Harvey Perkins, David C. Thorns, 2017-09-16 How do our everyday environments inform our activities routines and encounters In what way has globalization affected the sites in which we work relax and interact Is there still a place for local identity in a globalized age This book examines the ways in which we use local spaces and global processes to shape our identities Showing how enhanced tourism communication developments and increased diversity have effected the way we live every day the text also explains how individuals communities and cities react to such globalizing forces on a local level Each chapter unravels complex connections between place identity and global processes and carefully outlines what core theory can tell us about key contemporary debates including surveillance environmental change and sustainability Taking examples from urban and rural life shopping malls and virtual worlds the book encourages us to look at our immediate surroundings in a sociological light Highlighting the interdependence of space and society in a rapidly changing world this text is essential reading for those studying place and identity in Sociology Cultural Studies Geography Urban Studies and Rural Studies

Environmental Impact Assessment A. G. Colombo, 1992 This study of environmental impact assessment includes four Sections Section 1 discusses the current state of implementation of the directives on environmental impact assessment and environmental hazards It also includes a paper on the Dutch integral environmental zoning project Section 2 deals with EIA approaches and techniques First the phases of an EIA study and the risk analysis methods are described Then Danish experiences in EIA environmental planning in the Ruhr area and pollution abatement in oil refineries and inorganic chemical industries are illustrated Finally a decision support system for EIA is presented

Project Management in Extreme Situations Monique Aubry, Pascal Lievre, 2016-12-12 The growing complexity of projects today as well as the uncertainty inherent in innovative projects is making obsolete traditional project management practices and procedures which are based on the notion that much about a project is known at its start The current high level of change and complexity confronting organizational leaders and managers requires a new approach to projects so they can be managed flexibly to embrace and exploit change What once used to be considered extreme uncertainty is now the norm and managing planned projects is being replaced by managing projects as they evolve Successfully managing projects in extreme situations such as polar and military expeditions shows how to manage successfully projects in today's turbulent environment Executed under the harshest and most unpredictable conditions these projects are great sources for learning about how to manage unexpected and unforeseen situations as they occur This book presents multiple case studies of managing extreme events as they happened during polar mountain climbing military and rescue expeditions A boat accident in the Arctic is a lesson on how an effective project manager must be ambidextrous on one hand able to follow plans and on the other hand able to abandon those plans when disaster strikes and improvise new ones in response Polar expeditions also illustrate how a team can use weak links to go beyond its usual information network to acquire strategic information Fire and rescue operations illustrate how one team member's knowledge can be transferred to the entire team Military operations provide case material on how teams coordinate and make use of both individual and collective competencies This groundbreaking work pushes the definitions of a project and project management to reveal new insight that benefits researchers academics and the practitioners managing projects in today's challenging and uncertain times      Puducherry Home Guard Recruitment Exam Book (English Edition) - 15 Practice Tests (1500+ Solved MCQs) EduGorilla Prep Experts, Best Selling Book in for Puducherry Home Guard Exam with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus Puducherry Home Guard Recruitment Exam Preparation Kit comes with 15 Practice Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 16X Puducherry Home Guard Recruitment Exam Prep Kit comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts
