Mallan, 1999 Designed for preservice teachers this text consolidates social studies content into a framework for practical instruction and lesson planning It places social studies in a thoroughly modern context and explores how such factors as language diversity and standards at the local state and national level affect teachers The text retains its hallmark features such as model unit lessons teacher tested activities technology updates and authentic children's work and the Resource Handbook serves as a valuable tool for on the job use. The emphasis on current topics includes coverage of constructivist learning, cooperative learning, service learning, character education, and the teaching of children with limited English proficiency. Specific examples from the NCSS help students connect standards to the model lessons and activities presented in the text. A Compassionate Vision for Elementary Social Studies Thomas A.

Lucey, 2021-12-29 This text offers readers a holistic view of elementary social studies that instills compassion for all classroom voices and for those outside the classroom. This approach provides a social studies perspective that enables readers to articulate, apply, and defend engaging learning experiences that value each student. A revision of the original textbook by John Hoge and contributions by Laura E. Pinto, the work presents a comprehensive view of social studies that encourages reader awareness of and appreciation for their emotional and social identities. By being comfortable with themselves and their biases, readers may better appreciate the different perspectives of social studies content and better facilitating learning experiences that value the voices of all students. Normal Instructor and Primary Plans, 1926
