The Two Beaux Keith B. Poole, 1976 The Greville Memoirs: A Journal of the Reigns of King George IV and King William IV (Complete) Charles Cavendish Fulke Greville, 2011-01-01 The Author of these Journals requested me in January 1865 a few days before his death to take charge of them with a view to publication at some future time He left that time to my discretion merely remarking that Memoirs of this kind ought not in his opinion to be locked up until they had lost their principal interest by the death of all those who had taken any part in the events they describe He placed several of the earlier volumes at once in my hands and he intimated to his surviving brother and executor Mr Henry Greville his desire that the remainder should be given me for this purpose The injunction was at once complied with after Mr Charles Greville's death and this interesting deposit has now remained for nearly ten years in my possession In my opinion this period of time is long enough to remove every reasonable objection to the publication of a contemporary record of events already separated from us by a much longer interval for the transactions related in these volumes commence in 1818 and end in 1837 I therefore commit to the press that portion of these Memoirs which embraces the Reigns of King George IV and King William IV ending with the Accession of her present Majesty In accepting the trust and deposit which Mr Greville thought fit to place in my hands I felt and still feel that I undertook a task and a duty of considerable responsibility but from the time and the manner in which it was offered me I could not decline it I had lived for more than five and twenty years in the daily intercourse of official life and private friendship with Mr Greville Sir George Cornwall Lewis to whom he had previously intended to leave these Journals died before him After that event deeply to be regretted on so many accounts Mr Greville did me the honour to select me for the performance of this duty which was unexpected by myself and my strong attachment and gratitude to him for numberless acts of kindness and marks of confidence bound me by every consideration to obey and execute the wishes of my late friend In the discharge of this trust I have been guided by no other motive than the desire to present these Memorials to the world in a manner which their Author would not have disapproved and in strict conformity with his own wishes and injunctions He himself it should be said had frequently revised them with great care He had studiously omitted and erased passages relating to private persons or affairs which could only serve to gratify the love of idle gossip and scandal The Journals contain absolutely nothing relating to his own family and but little relating to his private life A Journal of the
