Inside the Freud Museums Joanne Morra, 2017-12-11 Sigmund Freud spent the final year of his life at 20 Maresfield Gardens London surrounded by all his possessions in exile from the Nazis The long term home and workspace he left behind in Berggasse 19 Vienna is a seemingly empty space devoid of the great psychoanalyst s objects and artefacts Now museums both of these spaces resonate powerfully Since 1989 the Freud Museum London has held over 70 exhibitions by a distinctive range of artists including Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Mat Collishaw Susan Hiller Sarah Lucas and Tim Noble and Sue Webster The Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna houses a small but impressive contemporary art collection with work by John Baldessari Joseph Kosuth Jenny Holzer Franz West and Ilya Kabakov In this remarkable book Joanne Morra offers a nuanced analysis of these historical museums and their unique relationships to contemporary art Taking us on a journey through the site responsive artworks exhibitions and curatorial practices that intervene in the objects spaces and memories of these museums Joanne Morra offers a fresh experience of the history and practice of psychoanalysis of museums and contemporary art

CREATING GREAT VISITOR EXPERIENCES Stephanie Weaver, 2012-03-15 Museum and other non profit professionals have begun to realize that the complete visitor experience is the key to repeat attendance successful fundraising and building audience loyalty Taking lessons learned by successful experience shapers in the for profit world Stephanie Weaver distills this knowledge for museums and other organizations which depend on visitor satisfaction for success Is your institution welcoming Are the bathrooms clean Does the staff communicate well Are there enough places to sit These practical matters may mean more to creating a loyal following than any exhibit or program the institution develops Weaver breaks the visitor experience down to 8 steps and provides practical guidance to museums and related institutions on how to create optimal visitor experiences for each of them In a workshop like format she uses multiple examples exercises and resource links to walk the reader through the process

Exchanging Objects Catherine A. Nichols, 2021-04-01 As an historical account of the exchange of duplicate specimens between anthropologists at the Smithsonian Institution and museums collectors and schools around the world in the late nineteenth century this book reveals connections between both well known museums and little known local institutions created through the exchange of museum objects It explores how anthropologists categorized some objects in their collections as duplicate specimens making them potential candidates for exchange This historical form of what museum professionals would now call deaccessioning considers the intellectual and technical requirement of classifying objects in museums and suggests that a deeper understanding of past museum practice can inform mission driven contemporary museum work

Museum. Learning. Democracy Hadwig Kraeutler, 2025-06 Alma S Wittlin 1899 1991 was an innovative museologist and educational researcher She focused on harnessing the specific potentials of museums and exhibitions for social development and in turn challenged the field in an egalitarian and anti hegemonic way Originally an art historian and writer based in Vienna she became an independent international scholar after her emigration in 1937 Exploring Wittlin s writings unpublished sources contemporary research and current literature this multi disciplinary biographical account re establishes and revalidates a female contribution to museum history

Exhibitions for Social Justice Elena Gonzales, 2019-07-17 Exhibitions for Social Justice assesses the state of curatorial work for social justice in the Americas and Europe today Analyzing best practices and new curatorial work to support all those working on exhibitions Gonzales expounds curatorial practices that lie at the nexus of contemporary museology and neurology From sharing authority to inspiring action and building solidarity the book demonstrates how curators can make the most of visitors physical and mental experience of exhibitions Drawing on ethnographic and archival work at over twenty institutions with nearly eighty museum professionals as well as scholarship in the public humanities visual culture cultural studies memory studies and brain science this project steps back from the detailed institutional histories of how exhibitions come to be Instead it builds a set of curatorial practices by examining the work behind the finished product in the gallery Demonstrating that museums have the power to help our society become more hospitable equitable and sustainable Exhibitions for Social Justice will be of interest to scholars and students of museum and heritage studies gallery studies arts and heritage management and politics It will also be valuable reading for museum professionals and anyone else working with exhibitions who is looking for guidance on how to ensure their work attains maximum impact
