Slocum, 2018-02-22 In these twenty nine essays Episcopalians consider the tradition and the future of their church its theology its polity its missiology These new conversations come from ministers of every order bishop priest deacon laity and from practiced hands at many ministries education theology music chaplaincy and spiritual direction Several essayists write urgently that the Episcopal Church must change if it is to survive Others contend with equal fervor that American Anglicanism can work if Episcopalians will reclaim and reaffirm their liturgical spiritual and theological heritage Between these views are other writers who suggest that points of supposed opposition might indeed coexist in the church of the future taking vibrant and perhaps paradoxical new forms THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM Daniel Janosik, 2019-01-26 The average Christian knows somewhat how dangerous radical Islam is because of the regular media coverage of beheadings of Christians Jews and even young little children not to mention Muslims with which they disagree However the average Christian does not know their true beliefs just how many there are to the extent they will go to carry out these beliefs Daily we find Islamic commentators on the TV and radio offering up misleading information quoting certain portions of the Quran while leaving other parts out When considering Islamic beliefs other Islamic writings must be considered like the Hadith or Sunnah and the Shariah or canon law While Islam in general does not support radical Islam the vast majority do support radical beliefs For example beheadings stoning for adultery or homosexuality suicide bombings turning the world into an Islamic state and far too many other heinous things THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM provides Christians with an overview of Islamic terminology The reader will learn about Muhammad s calling the history of the Quran how Islam expanded the death of Muhammad and the splinter groups that followed In addition the three sources of their teaching six pillars of belief five pillars of Islam the twelfth Imam and much more will be discussed While there are several books on Islam and radical Islam this will be the first that will prepare its readers to communicate effectively with Muslims in an effort toward sharing biblical truths THE GUIDE TO ISLAM will be an effective evangelism tool In addition each chapter will end with review questions helping the reader recall the main points of the chapter Therefore it can be studied alone or in a church Bible study setting THE GUIDE TO ANSWERING ISLAM has the contents constructed in a way that will greatly serve the Christian Church There are many recent books written by Christians about Islam and there are many books written recently about radical Islam However none of these recent books attempts to do what has been done which is to give an adequate portrayal of Islam critiqued by history and Christian doctrine and then culminating in an extensive evaluation of the rise of Radical Islam from a Christian's perspective The Popular Handbook of World Religions Daniel J decade of the 21st century the Catholic Church in the developed world has faced a decline in its moral authority increasing accusations of irrelevance to a secular age and a steep and steady decline in commitment among successive generations from the 1960s on Despite this Catholic schools have multiplied and grown in popularity and educational achievement The book sets out a programme for the contribution of Catholic schools to the future of the Church covering such topics as the religious education curriculum in its cognitive and affective aspects the sacramental life of the school selection of staff the issue of staff and Catholic witness and many other topics Engebretson argues that Catholic schools are a powerful key to the future of the Church and shows how within their diversity Catholic schools can be ecclesial communities which have at their heart the building up of the Church A History of Christian Theology, Second Edition William C. Placher, Derek R.

Nelson, 2013-10-03 A modern classic A History of Christian Theology offers a concise yet complete chronicle of the whole of Christian theology from its background in the history of Israel to the liberation and postliberal theologies of recent years This updated 30th anniversary edition includes expanded treatments of theological developments at the end of the 20th century and preliminary trajectories for theology in the 21st century It also includes updated bibliographies and revised chapters on important innovations in biblical studies and their impact on theology This updated and revised edition will continue to aid the work of both students and faculty for years to come Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matamba, Bruce A. Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems Perspectives on theology of religions Jaco Beyers, Piet J. van der Merwe, Wilhelmina Magdalena Shaw, Ronald Allen Baatsen, Johannes Janse van Rensburg, Tessa Freeman, 2017-11-23 In the public theology discourse the concept public square has become significant In today's multicultural and globalised world it is inevitable that people with different religious affiliations will encounter one another in the public square Public theology cannot but become theology of religions Scholars in the field of religion studies are compelled to reflect theologically on the relevance of religiosity in the postmodern secular world The term theology of religions refers to the academic inquiry into the relationship between religions The collected essays constitute such an inquiry In the end it is not so much about the encounter of religions but rather of people Religion is no longer regarded as a monolithic body of beliefs and practices The authors concede that the concept religion is too fluid to be delineated precisely The book's approach to the relationship between religions i.e. theology of religions reflects how the authors understand the origin and nature of religion a theology of religion in the singular This book focuses more on theology of religions plural than on theology of religion singular The main objective of the book is to present a variety of perspectives on how theology of religions manifested in different contexts This includes historical i.e. Luther's theology of religions and the Roman Catholic position on other religions as taken by Vatican II as well as cultural and religious perspectives In the first chapter the editor gives a brief overview of the development of the discipline of theology of religions The postmodern era is characterised by an almost non foundational approach The second chapter traces the development of the discipline in the Roman Catholic tradition in particular This contribution is based on the insights of P J van der Merwe 1944 2014 who as researcher and Head of the Department of Science of Religion and Missiology at the University of Pretoria developed a specific theological position on non Christian religions A whole generation of theologians was trained in this school of thought He passed away in 2014 and this publication pays tribute to his life s work on religions and their relations The contributions that follow are the culmination of the research of postgraduate students at the University of Pretoria The third chapter presents a perspective on the Reformation with a particular focus on Martin Luther In this year of the quinqucentenary anniversary of the Reformation the legacy of Reformed belief is highlighted The fourth chapter describes the relationship between Christianity and Islam from the perspective of a willingness to embrace The fifth chapter analyses the relation between Christianity Judaism and Islam from the perspective of intergroup threat theory A model for theology of religions in a South African context is developed in the sixth and final chapter This scholarly book pays tribute to the academic contribution of P J van der Merwe mentor of the authors of these multifaceted reflections on theology of religions The target audience is specialists in the field of religion studies The distinctive contribution of the book is the innovative perspectives on the relationship between Islam and Christianity in both the Roman Catholic and Protestant contexts
