L'avenir du patrimoine moderne est incertain malgré les avancées faites dans ce domaine depuis une vingtaine d'années. Restaurés avec le plus grand soin comme si rien ne s'était passé depuis leur livraison quand il s'agit des grandes œuvres du mouvement moderne des édifices et des ensembles urbains ordinaires du milieu du xx^e siècle sont trop souvent méprisés sinon maltraités même s'ils ne sont pas sans qualités. En conviant une trentaine d'auteurs, gestionnaires, praticiens et chercheurs, faire part de leurs expériences et de leurs expertises en matière de documentation, de protection, de conservation et de mise en valeur de l'architecture novatrice du xx^e siècle, cet ouvrage propose un bilan sur l'état de la question au Québec au Canada et ailleurs. Il s'inscrit dans la foulée du colloque international organisé fin 2010 par l'école de design et l'Institut du patrimoine de l'Université du Québec Montréal.

Houses for All Jill Wade, 1994-01-01

Houses for All is the story of the struggle for social housing in Vancouver between 1919 and 1950. It argues that however temporary or limited their achievements, local activists played a significant role in the introduction, implementation, or continuation of many early national housing programs. Ottawa's housing initiatives were not always unilateral actions in the development of the welfare state. The drive for social housing in Vancouver complemented the tradition of housing activism that already existed in the United Kingdom and to a lesser degree in the United States.
