Stephen H. Webb

Look With Us At Animals:

On God and Dogs Stephen H. Webb, 1998 Many of us keep pet animals we rely on them for companionship and unconditional love For some people their closest relationships may be with their pets In the wake of the animal rights movement some ethicists have started to re examine this relationship and to question the rights of humans to own other sentient beings in this way In this engaging and thought provoking book Stephen Webb brings a Christian perspective to bear on the subject of our responsibility to animals looked at through the lens of our relations with pets especially dogs Webb argues that the emotional bond with companion animals should play a central role in the way we think about animals in general and against the more extreme animal liberationists defends the intermingling of the human and animal worlds He tries to imagine what it would be like to treat animals as a gift from God and indeed argues that not only are animals a gift for us but they give to us we need to attend to their giving and return their gifts appropriately Throughout the book he insists that what Christians call grace is present in our relations with animals just as it is with other humans Grace is the inclusive and expansive power of God's love to create and sustain relationships of real mutuality and reciprocity and Webb unfolds the implications of the recognition that animals too participate in God's abundant grace Webb's thesis affirms and persuasively defends many of the things that pet lovers feel instinctively that their relationships with their companion animals are meaningful and important and that their pets have value and worth in themselves in the eyes of God His book will appeal to a broad audience of thoughtful Christians and animal lovers

Humans, Animals, and U.S. Society in the Long Nineteenth Century: A Documentary History Dominik Ohrem, 2025-11-18 Volume II continues the discussion of animals animality in U S social and scientific thought to address the ways in which the nexus of ideas surrounding human animal distinctions became intertwined with interhuman hierarchies and power relations including through the synergistic dynamics between race and species as co implicating taxonomies of power Claire Jean Kim that informed both chattel slavery and settler violence against Indigenous peoples A second section traces the evolution of animal advocacy from early individual voices to the formation of an organised movement following the Civil War documenting a shift however limited by structural constraints from largely anthropocentric concerns with the social consequences of human cruelty towards other creatures to a broader moral consideration for nonhuman animals in their own right

Making a Stand for Animals Oscar Horta, 2022-06-23 Engaging and thought provoking this book examines how humans see and treat other animals and argues that we should extend equal consideration and respect to all beings human and nonhuman alike Our world is plighted by isms such as racism and sexism but we may have overlooked a very important one speciesism Speciesism is a form of discrimination against those who don't belong to a certain species It drives us to see nonhuman animals as objects rather than individuals with their own interests and with the ability to feel and suffer This book questions all of the assumptions speciesism is based upon It raises many challenging questions over humans very complicated attitudes toward other animals Thinking about how animals are used as well as the suffering of wild animals and what the future may be for all beings this book calls for society to seriously take into account the interests of all animals For all who care about animals or simply how to make the world a better place this book is essential reading Looking for Signs: Animals, Spirits and Death Rituals Ibaloy Perspectives (Itogon, Philippines) Laugrand (Ed.), Gliseria Magapin, Frédéric Laugrand, Jazil Tamang, 2020-02-27 This publication is the volume 3 of a series dealing with the culture and traditions of the Ibaloy of Upper Doacan Itogon Benguet Philippines It is available in Nabaloy and in English Elders share their stories to a group of youngsters who ask them questions on a variety of topics such as animals signs death rituals and spirits The book provides the verbatim accounts of these discussions recorded during a workshop that took place at the Senior Citizen hall in 2018
