A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. XI (Forty-Five Volumes); Dana-Dickens Charles Dudley Warner,2008-01-01 Popular

American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Highlights from Volume 11 include excerpts from Dante s Divine Comedy the nature writing of Charles Darwin selections from Daniel Dafoe the poems of Thomas Dekker the philosophy of Demosthenes the writings of Ren Descartes excerpts from Charles Dickens A Tale of Two Cities and much much more

Flirting with Universalism, 2nd Edition Dennis Jensen,2024-07-16 It s likely the most difficult problem in the Christian faith It was a major reason that Bertrand Russell John Stuart Mill and countless others rejected Christianity It was an ax that began to chip away at Charles Darwin s early faith How could he accept that some of his closest relatives and loved ones would be spending an eternity in agonizing torment Yet the Christian doctrine of an everlasting hell of unmitigated pain turns out to be completely unwarranted biblically A close examination of the Bible demonstrates this but it also rejects any form of universalism that trivializes personal obligations to God The first edition of Flirting with Universalism looked at the biblical and philosophical evidence behind the various Christian views of the afterlife of those who reject their God universalism eternalism or traditionalism and annihilationism The second edition covers additional important arguments It concludes by taking a position between universalism and traditionalism God will forever honor the final choices of those who reject God and yet in the end all things will be reconciled to God The Bible affirms the goodness justice and love of God
