Cleopatra Incarnate and the great alien mother snake Katrina Morrow, 2023-05-30. Cleopatra, a Queen and the last Pharaoh of Egypt, comes from space as the most prominent foreign galactic being ever to walk the face of the Earth. As the Egyptians believed that in death all would recycle and renew into new life, so Cleopatra is reborn again through a woman of the American Civil Rights Era and then she is born again through another young woman of the American 1960s. In this incarnate story, Cleopatra is something other than human as she embarks on a journey on Earth in the name of truth, justice, and union of Earth and the rest of space. She is poetic and speaks the language of outer space as she faces trials on Earth and asks her old notorious snake that took her life to guide her through Earth's authorities' accusations against her. As the ancient war between Rome and Egypt leads to her demise, her alien spirit takes flight into the American Era where trials are wavering in two different human women that embody the very alien spirit of Cleopatra.

Look, I Made a Book Nina Zaragoza, Eric Dwyer, 2005. What does it mean to have high expectations for five-year-old learners? In one of the author's classrooms, children are treated as authors, as world citizens, and as confident, responsible community and family contributors. Kindergartners publish their own stories and keep them on the same shelves as books from libraries and bookstores. In addition to books, these young students also produce their own plays, thank-you cards, and math problems. Zaragoza, Dwyer, and Brownie, the class mascot, invite new teachers along as they take one class of children through a month-by-month journey of authorship, literacy development, poetry, positive interaction, and imagination. This book is appropriate for both undergraduate and graduate students of education, early childhood, and teachers of English language learners. It can also be of value to scholars of constructivist and/or critical theory.
