Simak, Daniel Keyes, Roger Zelazny, 2019-11-05
 In a deluxe collector's edition four classic science fiction novels from the genre's most transformative decade including the landmark Flowers for Algernon. This volume the first of a two volume set gathering the best American science fiction from the tumultuous 1960s opens with Poul Anderson's immensely popular The High Crusade in which aliens planning to conquer Earth land in Lincolnshire during the Hundred Years War. In Clifford Simak's Hugo Award winning Way Station Enoch Wallace is a spry 124 year old Civil War veteran whose lifelong job monitoring the intergalactic pit stop inside his home is largely uneventful until a CIA agent shows up and Cold War hostilities threaten the peaceful harmony of the Galactic confederation. Daniel Keyes's beloved Flowers for Algernon winner of the Nebula Award and adapted as the Academy Award winning movie Charly is told through the journal entries of Charlie Gordon a young man with severe learning disabilities who is the test subject for surgery to improve his intelligence. And in the postapocalyptic earthscape of Roger Zelazny's Hugo Award winning Call Me Conrad also published as This Immortal Conrad Nomikos reluctantly accepts the responsibility of showing the planet to the governing extraterrestrials representative and protecting him from rebellious remnants of the human race. Using early manuscripts and original setting copy this Library of America volume restores the novel to a version that most closely approximates Zelazny's original text. Simpsonology Tim Delaney, 2009-12-02 In this amusing and informative appreciation of The Simpsons sociologist Tim Delaney looks at the many ways America's longest running sitcom and animated TV program reflects American culture. For more than fifteen years the Simpsons have touched upon nearly every aspect of the American social scene from family dynamics and social mores to local customs and national institutions. With over four hundred episodes aired so far Delaney finds a goldmine of insights couched in parody on any number of perennial topics. On television's influence on American culture Krusty the Clown says "Would it really be worth living in a world without television? I think the survivors would envy the dead." On New Age religion Homer says "To think I turned to a cult for mindless happiness when I had beer all along." On the thorny issue of gun ownership and home security Homer purchases a pistol at Bloodbath and Beyond and then tells Marge "I don't have to be careful. I got a gun." On the theme of community spirit Bart thoughtlessly signs up with a local Boy Scout troop while on a sugar rush from eating a Super Squishee. The next day he realizes what he has done. "Oh no! I joined the Junior Campers." To which his sister Lisa responds "The few the proud the geeky." Delaney finds many more episodes relevant to major sociological issues such as environmentalism, feminism, romance and marriage, politics, education, health, aging and more. Students of popular culture and laypersons alike will learn basic sociological concepts and theories in a refreshing jargon free work that offers plenty of entertainment. *Sunshine, conducted by W.M. Flutter by Eleanor Ditrick,2008-12 Flutter by began just as its name implies with the sharing of little flutters of thought among co workers and friends The messages fluttered into their lives quietly and with serenity much like the Monarch butterfly a personal favorite of mine My daily messages include a prayer and oftentimes a short story or quotation to show how that reflection applies to our lives and to our humanness They revolve around the people places and particulars in my world which are pretty much the same as those in yours My prayer is that this book helps you through each day with a flutter of thought a breath of calmness and a reflection for peace love and endurance I pray that these little thoughts help you smile and see the true beauty of God s touch in each day even in those filled with sorrow For as we flutter by we flutter on Through Flutter by you ll meet my husband Howard often referred to as Ole Buckeye Ohio State is his alma mater our daughters Diane and Lori and of course Chaplain Ditrick the Third our Shetland sheepdog Most times Chap concludes my prayerful thoughts with a flutter of his own They usually involve treats As a hospital chaplain I got to know and become close to many of the staff especially the nurses One friend in particular was going through a very difficult time in her personal life She faced continuous challenges and difficult decisions Often she confided that she didn t know how or even if she would get through it all Each time that we talked I came away feeling that I wanted to be so much more than someone who listened I wanted to do something to ease her pain I asked God to guide me to an answer to calm her burden On one particularly busy day I knew that our paths would not cross but I wanted my friend to know that I was thinking about and praying for her I wrote her a quick little prayer and sent it off through the inner office mail This was before computers A few days later I sent another prayer then another and another When we met up several days later she thanked me again and again She told me how much those little prayers meant to her and how she looked forward to receiving them She asked if she could share them with friends at the hospital I was touched and said of course From there the prayer mailing list grew to over 300 co workers and friends Thank goodness computers came along May you flutter by others as you have fluttered by me
