Department of Bibliography, 1978 Dear Iuliette Juliette Huxley, 1999 May Sarton's love for Juliette Huxley ignited that first moment she saw her in 1936 transcended sixty years of friendship passion silence and reconciliation In the breadth and variation of these letters we see Sarton in all her complexities and are privy to the nuances of her rich amitie amoureuse with Juliette the preeminent muse and most enduring love of her life The letters chart their meeting May's affair with Juliette's husband Julian brother of Aldous Huxley before the war her intense involvement with Juliette after the war and the ardent and life enhancing friendship that endured between them until Juliette's death While May's intimate relationship with Julian had not been a secret her more powerful emotions for Juliette had May's fiery passion was a seductive yet sometimes destructive force. Her feelings for and demands on Juliette were often overwhelming to them both Indeed Juliette refused all contact with May for nearly twenty five years the consequence of May's impulsive threat to tell Julian of their intimacy. The silence was devastating to May but her love for Juliette never diminished Their reconciliation after Julian's death was not so much a rekindling as it was a testament to the profound affinities between them May Sarton Margot Peters, 2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton's career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton's letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton s exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne's Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton's literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton, 2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown AB Bookman's Weekly ,1994 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1983 Publishers Weekly, 1969 Standard Catalog for Public Libraries H.W. Conversations with May Sarton May Sarton,1991 With increasing candor and openness May Sarton's conversations have given an intimate view of her honest courageous inner life Best known to her many readers as a novelist and keeper of journals Sarton sees herself pre eminently as a poet In the interviews collected here she speaks forthrightly about herself her independence and her writing Although born in Belgium Sarton is quintessentially American in her choice of solitude on which her personal well being and writing depend She is a modernist who has defined herself as an artist with the occasionally painful recognition that all else must finally be subordinated to her writing Her journal After the Stroke makes clear that when she cannot write she stands on the edge of the abyss of nonbeing These interviews offer Sarton's readers the model of a woman who has supported herself as a writer of achievement who has made her way without the comforts of academic tenure grants or bestseller listings **Reviews** Young Adults** Cooperative Book Review Group of Massachusetts, 1966**
