Scott Moreau,Gary R. Corwin,Gary Corwin,Gary B. McGee,2004 This overview considers issues involved in becoming a missionary the process of getting to the mission field and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face Doing Member Care Well Kelly O'Donnell,Kelly S. O'Donnell,2002 This book explores how member care is being practiced around the world to equip sending organizations as they intentionally support their mission aid personnel The information provided includes personal accounts guidelines case studies worksheets and practical advice from all over the globe This book delivers what it promises Here are 50 chapters from the widest selection of writers in the member care field to date Brent Lindquist President Link Care Center This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance Too Valuable to Lose William David Taylor,1997 Does God really care about His servants Yes Do we care for our people who are serving the Lord in cross cultural ministry The Reducing Missionary Attrition Project ReMAP launched by World Evangelical Fellowship Missions Commission seeks to answer that question in this important study This book utilizes the findings of a 14 nation study done by ReMAP and will help supply some very encouraging answers This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance Global Member Care Volume 3 Kelly O'Donnell,Michèle Lewis O'Donnell,2024-09-24 Missionary Expatriate Effectiveness John Farquhar Plake,2016-05-30 In Missionary Expatriate Effectiveness John Farquhar Plake examines how Pentecostal missionaries adjust to foreign cultural environments and become proficient at their work abroad Connecting the disciplines of psychology human resource management and missiology Plake provides unique insights into the predictors of expatriate effectiveness through the experience of 949 missionaries working in 127 nations Responding to the question Are missionaries born called or made Plake provides evidence that cross cultural training is a critical component of missionary formation Here missionaries educators mission agency leaders I O psychologists and cross cultural scholars will find actionable data and a hopeful nuanced picture of reality grounded in the lived experiences of Pentecostal missionaries worldwide

Comprehending Mission: The Questions, Methods, Themes, Problems, and Prospects of Missiology Stanley H. Skreslet (II.), 2012 Stanley H Skreslet offers an inviting new proposal for conceptualizing the field of missiology Comprehending Mission includes a concise overview of the development of missiology of the last century introducing its characteristic methodologies and offering insight into the kinds of questions missiologists typically ask In the last hundred years missiology has moved from emphasizing the practical challenges of foreign mission service to highlighting the intercultural aspects of Christian outreach Today missiology is less a form of practical theology than a field of study where theological concerns intersect with critical studies undertaken by anthropologists historians and other scholars Member Care in India - pages Crown Quarto format According to the meta study ReMAP between 1992 and 1994 one missionary in twenty prematurely left mission service each year This implies the loss of half of all missionaries every thirteen years With this in mind it is widely thought that a clear sense of call serves to prevent such dropout This detailed and compassionate study of Mennonite women missionaries in Central Africa finds this to be true in the short term But in the long term the sense of call itself tends to turn on the call resulting in burnout and dropout Through extensive field work the author charts the course of missionaries who remodeled the call turning its burden into blessing This is embedded in a careful theological analysis drawing on a wide sweep of Mennonite thought and praxis Leave a Legacy J. Russell Turney, 2017-09-15 In this second volume of the new APTS Press Monograph Series Dr Russ Turney presents a compelling case study of why some missionaries leave the field far too soon Normal attrition occurs because of health problems retirement or the obvious call of God to go elsewhere However Turney notes that far too often missionaries leave due to interpersonal conflicts with their colleagues or nationals problems with authority and other issues that Turney contends could be significantly reduced He then presents an excellent strategy for dealing with these and other issues enabling missionaries to continue in their calling long term and finish well This strategy will help equip not only missionaries and mission leaders from both the West and the Majority World but also pastors and church members who love and support missionaries and who want to learn how to strengthen them better through prayer and action Anyone who shares the warm hearted conviction that missionaries can and should leave a legacy will benefit from this book From the Foreword Understanding Burnout Recovery Among Native-Born Korean Missionaries Hannah Kyong-Jin Cho, 2020-01-29 In this timely book Cho provides mission scholars sending churches and mission agencies with an understanding of Korean missionaries burnout recovery process Her study of Korean missionary burnout recovery included thirty nine research participants who had experienced burnout in missionary service and who subsequently recovered Participants reported a variety of physical emotional and spiritual symptoms as well as relational difficulties experienced during burnout Cho describes how their self help approach characterized by independent religious self effort brought only temporary relief Through self care however they experienced genuine recovery Self care that leads to lasting recovery is holistic and grace based characterized by a correct understanding of the roles of God and others in their lives and engagement in authentic community for interdependent care This study also gives insightful recommendations to missionary member care systems mission agencies and other sending organizations in an Asian cultural context about how to care for Korean missionaries It is also intended for counselors of home churches so that they can provide better member care for burned out missionaries Lastly this study advances research into contextually appropriate paradigms and strategies helpful to cross cultural missionaries in the area of both Korean missionaries and non Western studies in missionary member care

Missions in the Third Millennium Stan Guthrie, 2014-08-05 Christianity is the world's most global faith Meanwhile evangelical Christianity is the world's fastest growing major religion in terms of conversion growth And yet at the dawn of the third millennium the church's primary task to go and make disciples of all nations remains undone Missions in the Third Millennium charts twenty one trends both positive and negative with continuing significance for the Great Commission community in the twenty first century Revised and updated to include two new chapters on urban missions and evangelizing Muslims this up to date volume offers insights to help students churches missionaries agencies and Christians from outside the West grasp the big picture and take practical steps for more effective involvement This edition contains extensive notes expanded suggestions for further reading and discussion questions
