Mixed Families Adopting Across Racial Boundaries:

Mixed Families Joyce A. Ladner, 1978      Race in Transnational and Transracial Adoption Vilna Bashi Treitler, 2014-07-22 When parents form families by reaching across social barriers to adopt children where and how does race enter the adoption process How do agencies parents and the adopted children themselves deal with issues of difference in adoption This volume engages writers from both sides of the Atlantic to take a close look at these issues      Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy, 2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America's racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy      Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson, 2020-08-27 Mapping The Social Landscape is one of the most established and widely used readers for Introductory Sociology Susan J Ferguson selects edits and introduces 58 readings representing a plurality of voices and views within sociology The selections include classic statements from great thinkers like C Wright Mills Karl Marx and Max Weber as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues      Adopting for God Soojin Chung, 2021-12-14 Explores the role played by missionaries in the twentieth century transnational adoption movement Between 1953 and 2018 approximately 170 000 Korean children were adopted by families in dozens of different countries with Americans providing homes to more than two thirds of them In an iconic photo taken in 1955 Harry and Bertha Holt can be seen descending from a Pan American World Airways airplane with twelve Asian babies eight for their family and four for other families As adoptive parents and evangelical Christians who identified themselves as missionaries the Holts unwittingly became both the metaphorical and literal parental figures in the growing movement to adopt transnationally Missionaries pioneered the transnational adoption movement in America Though their role is known there has not yet been a full historical look at their theological motivations which varied depending on whether they were evangelically or ecumenically focused and what the effects were for American society relations with Asia and thinking about race more broadly Adopting for God shows that somewhat surprisingly both evangelical and ecumenical Christians challenged Americans to redefine traditional familial values and rethink race matters By questioning the perspective that equates missionary humanitarianism with unmitigated cultural imperialism this book offers a more nuanced picture of the rise of an important twentieth century movement the evangelization of adoption and the awakening of a new type of Christian mission
