Mixed Feelings The Complex Lives Of Mixed Race Britons:

Mixed Feelings Yasmin Alibhai-Brown, 2001 Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century Chamion Caballero, Peter J. Aspinall, 2018-05-07 This book explores the overlooked history of racial mixing in Britain during the course of the twentieth century a period in which there was considerable and influential public debate on the meanings and implications of intimately crossing racial boundaries Based on research that formed the foundations of the British television series Mixed Britannia the authors draw on a range of firsthand accounts and archival material to compare official accounts of racial mixing and mixedness with those told by mixed race people couples and families themselves Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century shows that alongside the more familiarly recognised experiences of social bigotry and racial prejudice there can also be glimpsed constant threads of tolerance acceptance inclusion and ordinariness It presents a more complex and multifaceted history of mixed race Britain than is typically assumed one that adds to the growing picture of the longstanding diversity and difference that is and always has been an ordinary and everyday feature of British life Black Mixed-Race Men Remi Joseph-Salisbury, 2018-08-06 This book offers a corrective to pathological and stereotypical representations of mixedness generally and Black mixed race men specifically By introducing the concept of post racial resilience the book shows that Black mixed race men are active and agentic as they resist the fragmentation and erasure of multiplicitous identities A - Z Of Inclusion In Early Childhood Dickins, Mary, 2014-02-01 The key themes in inclusion are explored through an A Z approach covering key concepts theories theorists and figures Social Identities Gary Taylor, Steve Spencer, 2004 Social Identities argues that we have a collection of social selves and that our identities are influenced by such things as class gender sexuality race nationality religious views and by the media Multilingual Identities in a Global City D. Block, 2005-11-22 Opening with a discussion of the key issues of globalization migration multiculturalism multilingualism and global cities David Block then turns to four detailed case studies East Asian students living and working in London foreign language teachers from France London's growing Latino community and second generation South Asian university students Via these case studies the book explores the ambivalent and multi layered identities of individuals who have crossed geographical and psychological borders during the course of their lifetimes and settled in London the quintessential global city Dropping Anchor, Setting Sail Jacqueline Nassy Brown, 2009-01-10 The port city of Liverpool England is home to one of the oldest Black communities in Britain Its members proudly date their history back at least as far as the nineteenth century with the global wanderings and eventual settlement of colonial African seamen Jacqueline Nassy Brown analyzes how this worldly origin story supports an avowedly local Black politic and identity a theme that becomes a window onto British politics of race place and nation and Liverpool's own contentious origin story as a gloriously cosmopolitan port of world historical import that was nonetheless central to British slave trading and imperialism This ethnography also examines the rise and consequent dilemmas of Black identity It captures the contradictions of diaspora in postcolonial Liverpool where African and Afro Caribbean heritages and transnational linkages with Black America both contribute to and compete with the local as a basis for authentic racial identity Crisscrossing historical periods rhetorical modes and academic genres the book focuses singularly on place enabling its most radical move its analysis of Black racial politics as enactments of English cultural premises The insistent focus on English culture implies a further twist Just as Blacks are racialized through appeals to their assumed Afro Caribbean and African cultures so too has Liverpool an Irish working class city whose expansive port faces the world beyond Britain long been beyond the pale of dominant notions of authentic Englishness Dropping Anchor Setting Sail studies race through clashing constructions of Liverpool

Multifaceted Identity of Interethnic Young People Sultana Choudhry, 2016-04-15 The number of interethnic individuals is one of the most striking demographic changes in Britain over the last decade Demonstrating both that identity is fluid and multifaceted rather than fixed and that people of Asian Black Chinese and White interethnic backgrounds do not necessarily experience identity conflict as proposed by some social scientists Multifaceted Identity of Interethnic Young People explores the manner in which interethnic young people define their identities In doing so it also looks at their parents and their experiences as interethnic couples in society Presenting rich new empirical information relating to young people of Black White Asian and Chinese interethnic backgrounds this book also examines the impact that inter religious relationships have upon young people s sense of identity whilst also discussing the implications of the election of America s first interethnic president As such it will be of interest to social scientists working in the fields of race ethnicity and identity Modern Britain Jan Erik Mustad, 2012 Mixed-Race in the US and UK Jennifer Patrice Sims, Chinelo L. Njaka, 2019-11-23 Contributing to the emerging literature on mixed race people in the United States and United Kingdom this book draws on racial formation theory and the performativity i e doing of race to explore the social construction of mixedness on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean Racialization Karim Murji, John Solomos, 2005 Racialization has become one of the central concepts in the study of race and racism This volume brings together international scholars to address key facets of the concept in a wide range of social and political arenas including gender relations policing urban communities youth cultures immigration and political life Writing British Muslims Rehana Ahmed, 2024-06-04 The Rushdie affair September 11 2001 and 7 7 pushed British Muslims into the forefront of increasingly fraught debate about multiculturalism Stereotyping images have proliferated reducing a heterogeneous minority group to a series of media soundbites This book examines contemporary literary representations of Muslims by British writers of South Asian Muslim descent including Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali and Nadeem Aslam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British

Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies Fear: Critical Geopolitics and Everyday Life Susan J. Smith, 2016-04-22 Fear in the twenty first century has greater currency in western societies than ever before Through scares ranging from cot death juvenile crime internet porn asylum seekers dirty bombs and avian flu we are bombarded with messages about emerging risks This book takes stock of a range of issues of fear and presents new theoretical arguments and research findings that cover topics as diverse as the war on terror the immigration crisis stranger danger global disease epidemics and sectarian violence This book charts the association of fear discourses with particular spaces times social identities and sets of geopolitical relations It examines the ways in which fear may be manufactured and manipulated for political purposes sometimes becoming a tool of repression and relates fear to political economic and social marginalization at different scales Furthermore it highlights the importance and sometimes unpredictability of everyday lived experiences of fear the many ways in which people recognize make sense of and manage fear the extent of resistance to fear the relation of fear and hope in everyday life and the role of emotions in galvanizing political and social action and change The Cambridge Companion to British Black and Asian Literature (1945-2010) Deirdre Osborne, 2016-10-14 This Companion offers a comprehensive account of the influence of contemporary British Black and Asian writing in British culture While there are a number of anthologies covering Black and Asian literature there is no volume that comparatively addresses fiction poetry plays and performance and provides critical accounts of the qualities and impact within one book It charts the distinctive Black and Asian voices within the body of British writing and examines the creative and cultural impact that African Caribbean and South Asian writers have had on British literature It analyzes literary works from a broad range of genres while also covering performance writing and non fiction It offers pertinent historical context throughout and new critical perspectives on such key themes as multiculturalism and evolving cultural identities in contemporary British literature This Companion explores race politics gender sexuality identity amongst other key literary themes in Black and Asian British literature It will serve as a key resource for scholars graduates teachers and students alike The Factors Responsible for Low Educational Achievement Among African-Caribbean Youths Cajetan Iwunze, 2009-10-20 There is no available information at this time The Biopolitics of Mixing Jinhana Haritaworn, 2016-03-23 Debates over who belongs in Europe and who doesn't increasingly speak the language of mixing but how are the figures commonly described as mixed actually embodied The Biopolitics of Mixing invites us to reckon with the spectres of pathologization past and present placing the celebration of mixing beside moral panics over terrorism and trafficking and a post race multiculturalism that elevates some as privileged members of the neoliberal community whilst ghosting others from it Drawing on a broad archive including rich qualitative interviews conducted in Britain and Germany media and policy debates popular culture race based research and queer of colour theories this book imagines into being communities in which people and places normally kept separate can coexist in the same reality As such it will appeal to scholars across a range of sociological and cultural studies including critical race ethnic and migration studies transnational gender and queer studies German and European studies Thai and Southeast Asian studies and studies of affect performativity biopolitics and necropolitics It should be read by all those interested in thinking critically on the intersections of race class gender sexuality and disability

Citizenship and Religion Maurice Blanc, Julia Droeber, Tom Storrie, 2020-12-16 This book explores the relationship between religion and citizenship from a culturally diverse group of contributors in the context of the developing tendency towards fundamentalist and conflicting religious beliefs in European North African and Middle Eastern societies The chapters provide an alternative narrative of the role of religion presenting diverse lived shades of citizenship as well as accounting for issues of gender equality minority rights violence identity education and secularisation As the renewed role of religious institutions is increasing in Europe and elsewhere the contributors interrogate the experience of belonging public policy welfare services and religious education highlighting how cooperation between citizenship and religion is necessary in a democratic regime The research will be of interest to students and scholars across sociology international relations and religious studies

Social Policy for Social Work Lorraine Green, Karen Clarke, 2016-03-31 Contemporary social work cannot be understood without an appreciation of the broader context of social policy in which it takes place Such an understanding is increasingly important as social workers are expected to work across institutional professional and even national boundaries in new ways profoundly affected by the changing global context This insightful book examines how shifts in the dominant political ideology have affected the nature of welfare provision the kinds of social problems addressed by policy and the balance of responsibilities for well being between individuals the family voluntary organizations the market and the state It explains the impact of these developments on the organization of social work and on relationships between social workers and service users The book discusses contested concepts central to social work such as justice liberty equality difference need and risk and illustrates these through a range of examples The critical analysis provided in this book offers students of social work a crucial foundation for negotiating difficult and sensitive practice situations and defending their profession providing them with the tools and knowledge to uphold key professional values

Transnational Families Harry Goulbourne, Tracey Reynolds, John Solomos, Elisabetta Zontini, 2010-01-21 This innovative book provides an overview of the emergence of new understandings of ethnicities identities and family forms across a number of ethnic groups family types and national boundaries

Contemporary Black and Asian Women Playwrights in Britain Gabriele Griffin, 2003-12-08 This text was the first monograph to document and analyse the plays written by Black and Asian women in Britain The volume explores how Black and Asian women playwrights theatricalize their experiences of migration displacement identity racism and sexism in Britain Plays by writers such as Tanika Gupta Winsome Pinnock Maya Chowdhry and Amrit Wilson among others many of whom have had their work produced at key British theatre sites are discussed in some detail Other playwrights work is also briefly explored to suggest the range and scope of contemporary plays The volume analyses concerns such as geographies of unbelonging reverse migration in the form of tourism sexploitation arranged marriages the racialization of sexuality and asylum seeking as they emerge in the plays and argues that Black and Asian women playwrights have become constitutive subjects of British theatre
