Mo Mowlam:

The Rosemary Nelson Inquiry Report Rosemary Nelson Inquiry, 2011 Rosemary Nelson a solicitor in Lurgan Northern Ireland was murdered by a bomb exploding under her car near her home in March 1999 There were claims the police and government ignored a series of warnings about threats against her concerns about her safety had been raised over a two year period before she was killed She had become a hate figure for hardline loyalists and reportedly some police officers because of some of the Republican clients she represented It was claimed she had been threatened by RUC officers as well as loyalist paramilitaries The Cory Collusion Inquiry 2004 ISBN 9780102927443 investigated the allegations of collusion between British security forces and paramilitaries in her murder and concluded that there was enough evidence to warrant a full public inquiry This Inquiry finds no evidence of any act by or within any of the state agencies Royal Ulster Constabulary the Northern Ireland Office or the Security Service which directly facilitated the murder Some members of the RUC did publicly abuse and assault her in 1997 and make abusive threatening remarks about her to her clients which became publicly known Combined with intelligence leaks these had the effect of legitimising her as a target There were omissions by the RUC and NIO which rendered her more at risk and more vulnerable These omissions meant the state failed to take reasonable and proportionate steps to safeguard the life of Rosemary Nelson The Inquiry finds no evidence of obstruction into the murder investigation which was carried out with due diligence Women of Westminster Rachel Reeves, 2019-03-07 In 1919 Nancy Astor was elected as the Member of Parliament for Plymouth Sutton becoming the first woman MP to take her seat in the House of Commons Her achievement was all the more remarkable given that women and even then only some women had only been entitled to vote for just over a year In the past 100 years a total of 491 women have been elected to Parliament Yet it was not until 2016 that the total number of women ever elected surpassed the number of male MPs in a single parliament The achievements of these political pioneers have been remarkable Britain has now had two female Prime Ministers and women MPs have made significant strides in fighting for gender equality from the earliest suffrage campaigns to Barbara Castle's fight for equal pay to Harriet Harman's recent legislation on the gender pay gap Yet the stories of so many women MPs have too often been overlooked in political histories In this book Rachel Reeves brings forgotten MPs out of the shadows and looks at the many battles fought by the Women of Westminster from 1919 to 2019 Cannabis Nation James H. Mills, 2013 Based on extensive archival research and interviews with key figures this text provides a comprehensive history of the consumption and control of cannabis in the UK Never Give Up: Gerry Adams, 2017-11-03 Gerry Adams is known as a man of strong opinions and a quirky sense of humour Never Give Up is a varied compilation of selected reworked pieces that Gerry has written since 2009 They cover many issues Some are fairly serious others are very serious indeed A few are whimsical All will be enjoyed The book gives an insight into the manoeuvring behind the scenes of political events and how he became wrapped up in moments of history both in Ireland and abroad such as the funerals of Nelson Mandela and Fidel

Castro The book provides an insight into the private life of Ireland's best known politician including some very turbulent times in Gerry's life such as his move from West Belfast to Co Louth and his passions like hiking and the Antrim GAA teams

The book opens with a heartfelt tribute to his close friend and political ally the late Martin McGuinness Trevs Susan

Martin,2006 Fuel laundering and smuggling in Northern Ireland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee,Great BritainParliament: House of Commons,2012-03-27 The Committee recognises the commitment and effort of individual HMRC officers in the fight against fuel crime in Northern Ireland but says that as HMRC was allocated an additional 917 million in 2010 11 to bear down on tax avoidance and evasion across the UK it should make a more concerted effort to eradicate the problem in Northern Ireland where it is most prevalent There is particular disappointment in the lack of progress on developing new markers chemicals added to fuel to mark it out as rebated which are removed to enable it to be fraudulently sold at higher prices Northern Ireland is estimated to have lost 70 million in 2009 10 Only five years ago this figure was as high as 250 million but fuel fraud remains a particularly serious problem for Northern Ireland While 4% of diesel sold in GB is thought to be illicit in Northern Ireland the comparable figure is estimated to be 12% District councils in Northern Ireland foot the bill for cleaning up the harmful wastes left by laundering about 330 000 in the last five years The problem is also particularly acute in Northern Ireland because of links between organised criminal gangs and paramilitaries The Committee is concerned at the apparent limited success of assets recovery as a deterrent This lack of deterrence is exacerbated by the poor record for imposing custodial sentences in Northern Ireland Between 2001 and 2009 only four people received custodial sentences for fuel fraud in Northern Ireland Paul Murphy

Paul Murphy,2019-09-01 This autobiography provides an insight into the life of a senior Labour politician It is an account of the Northern Ireland peace and political processes A recent history into political developments and devolution in Wales

Belonging Sue Unerman,Kathryn Jacob,Mark Edwards,2020-10-29 The most important business book of the year Esquire There's never been more discussion around diversity and inclusion in the workplace From gender pay gaps and the MeToo movement to Black Lives Matter it seems that every organization has finally recognised that lasting change needs to happen Various studies show that the most successful and productive senior management teams are those which are truly diverse and eclectic Yet there remains only 8 female CEOs of FTSE 100 boards and only 10 BAME people working in leadership roles across companies in the FTSE 100 While there has been a clear shift in attitudes actual progress towards more inclusive workspaces has been excruciatingly slow and in some cases has ground to a halt Following extensive research and interviews at over 200 international businesses Kathryn Jacob Sue Unerman and Mark Edwards have discovered one major problem that is holding back the move towards greater diversity why aren't the men getting involved Most men are not engaged with D I initiatives in the workplace at one extreme they may be feeling actively hostile and threatened by the changing cultural landscape But others may be unmotivated to change recognising the abstract benefits of diversity but not realising what's in it for them The time for change is long past Belonging is the call to action we need today the tool to turn the men in power into allies as we battle discrimination harassment pay gaps and structural racism and patriarchy at every level of the workplace The lessons in this book will help us work together to build a better workplace where everyone feels they belong

Multi-Level Governance and Northern Ireland Cathy Gormley-Heenan,Derek Birrell,2016-04-29 This book examines the governance arrangements in Northern Ireland through a multi level lens particularly in the period since the new institutions established through the 1998 Agreement became more firmly embedded

Strained Peace: Northern Ireland from Good Friday to Brexit Amanda Hall,2024-09-30 As the United Kingdom continues to grapple with the aftermath of Brexit one corner of the Union has remained caught in the crosshairs Northern Ireland has been the subject of renewed scrutiny since 2016 as efforts to leave the European Union come up against the terms of the Good Friday Agreement and threaten the region s hard won peace The reasons for these challenges can be traced back to the Agreement itself as the negotiated settlement and its immediate aftermath set in place a strained peace This book examines the function and dysfunction of peace after 1998 to explain why its endurance cannot be taken for granted Strained peace stands apart from the traditional peace violence binary Structures of conflict and patterns of division are reiterated in the structures of peace Tensions might relax just as they might be inflamed by new challenges but the threat of a return to violence is never fully gone This book explores how such a condition developed between Good Friday and Brexit addressing variations in the quality of peace in the insecurity of official structures at Stormont the shifting role of community groups and the third sector and the adaptation of culture as a culture war replaced physical violence on the streets
