Festival and Event Management in Nordic Countries Tommy Andersson, Donald Getz, Reidar Johan Mykletun, 2014-06-11 This book on events related research marks a watershed in the development of a Nordic School of festival and event research Each of the chapters presents a new and interesting approach to the study of events in terms of methods perspectives or content It is mostly rooted in management theory but also incorporating other perspectives that enhance our understanding of the phenomena Implications for real world applications in tourism hospitality and community development are also at the fore The scholarship is comprehensive not focused on only tourism or economic aspects Management theory including stakeholder management social networks and institutionalization processes is being applied Attention is being given to the multiple roles festivals and events play in society and to evaluation of their worth and impacts Innovative methods are being developed to examine event experiences innovation processes and success factors There is now a critical mass of scholars in the Nordic countries that share a strong interest in event studies and they are engaged in collaborative research making it an appealing and innovative region for other event students and researchers to visit It can be expected that the Nordic school will take an increasingly important place in the development of event studies which is now truly global in terms of scholarship and university degree programs This book was originally published as a special issue of Scandinavian Journal of Hospitality and Tourism

Music Festivals and the Politics of Participation Roxy Robinson, 2016-04-29 The spread of UK music festivals has exploded since 2000 In this major contribution to cultural studies the lid is lifted on the contemporary festival scene Gone are the days of a handful of formulaic large events dominating the market place Across the country hundreds of boutique gatherings have popped up drawing hundreds of thousands of festival goers into the fields Why has this happened What has led to this change In her richly detailed study industry insider Dr Roxy Robinson uncovers the dynamics that have led to the formation and evolution of the modern festival scene Tracing the history of the culture as far back as the fifties this book examines the tensions between authenticity and commerce as festivals grew into a widespread professionalized industry Setting the scene as a fragmented yet highly competitive market Music Festivals and the Politics of Participation examines the emergence of key trends with a focus on surrealist production and popular theatricality For the first time the transatlantic relationship between British promoters and the social experiment come festival Burning Man is documented uncovering its role in promoting a politics of participation that has dramatically altered the festival experience Taking an in depth approach to examining key events including the fastest growing independent music festival in recent years Hampshire s BoomTown Fair the UK market is shown to have produced a scene that champions co production and the democratization of festival space This is a vital text for anyone interested in British culture Festival and Event Tourism Anukrati Sharma,Jeetesh Kumar,Bakhodir Turaev,Priyakrushna Mohanty,2022-06-24 Festivals and events vary from small neighbourhood celebrations through to mega gatherings and both can be attractive to tourists They come with their own unique challenges and opportunities however which means destinations must carefully consider their responsibility to local people and host them in a sustainable manner Covering important issues such as the marketing branding and promotion of events this book also unravels the opportunities and challenges associated with sustainable festivals and events It uses an array of case studies and a global author team to provide an important resource for tourism and event researchers and professionals Christian Worship Louis Duchesne,1903 Event Studies Donald Getz,Stephen J. Page,2019-10-30 Event Studies is the only book devoted to developing knowledge and theory about planned events It focuses on event planning and management outcomes the experience of events and the meanings attached to them the dynamic processes shaping events and why people attend them This title draws from a large number of foundation disciplines and closely related professional fields to foster interdisciplinary theory focused on planned events This revised edition has been updated to reflect and examine a number of substantial and important new ideas New to the fourth edition new sections on the evolution of design theory management planning and marketing theory applied to events sensory stimulation leadership and the nature of crises and security issues new content on critical event studies and what this means for research and practice the life cycle model for event programming and an action plan for how events can be a positive force in sustainable cities new and additional case studies from a wide range of international events and reviews of the evolving theory of contemporary research in events studies are included throughout This will be an invaluable resource for all undergraduate students of events studies throughout their degree programmes Queer Film Festivals and Urban Space Theresa Heath,2025-03-10 This timely and innovative book argues that queer film festivals reclaim urban space for queer women and other marginalised queer subjects through the mobilisation of both material and diegetic space It is a response to the loss of queer urban venues and community spaces across across many parts of the Global North and a claim for the political potential of queer film festivals in the context of late stage capitalism Drawing from critical events studies film and film festival scholarship archival research cultural geography and research in the creative industries the book deploys an interdisciplinary arsenal of tools in order to understand the complexity of festival space Covering the period from 1980 to the present the volume posits original case studies of two long running festivals as well as analysis of ephemeral grassroots events This thorough and critical exploration offers significant insight into the strategies deployed by queer film festivals to carve out queer geographies in the city and the potential of event driven place making to construct alternative morphologies and more equitable approaches to urban space This volume will be of pivotal interest to students scholars and academics of critical event and festival studies film and film festival studies cultural creative and media industries cultural geography sociology and urban studies as well as those with an interest in these areas more generally Catalog of
