

sable et la base même de l'exécution moderne. Ces moyens sont de deux sortes : les uns ayant trait aux procédés matériels de l'exécutant, à une gymnastique spéciale; les autres, à la façon d'écrire pour le piano que Liszt a complètement transformée. A l'encontre de Beethoven méprisant les fatalités de la physiologie et imposant aux doigts contrariés et surmenés sa volonté tyrannique, Liszt les prend et les exerce dans leur nature de manière à en obtenir, sans les violenter, le maximum d'effet qu'ils sont susceptibles de produire; aussi sa musique, si effrayante à première vue pour les timides, est-elle en réalité moins difficile qu'elle ne paraît, amenant par le travail un véritable entraînement de l'organisme et le rapide développement du talent. On lui doit encore l'invention de l'écriture musicale pittoresque, grâce à laquelle, par des dispositions ingénieuses et infiniment variées, l'auteur parvient à indiquer le caractère d'un passage et la façon même dont on doit s'y prendre pour l'exécuter; ces élégants procédés sont aujourd'hui d'un emploi usuel et général.
