Introduction to Family History Student Manual , Religion 261 Introduction to Family History is a one semester course in which you will learn gospel doctrines and principles essential to the work of redeeming the dead and how to find information about your ancestors that is needed to perform saving ordinances for them The Lord has revealed that a great missionary effort is under way in the spirit world see D for if this were so this whole people with very few if any exceptions would lose all interest in the riches of the world and instead thereof their whole desires and labors would be directed to redeem their dead to perform faithfully the work and mission given us on earth so that when we ourselves should pass behind the veil and meet with Joseph and the ancient apostles and others who are watching over us and who are deeply interested in our labors we might feel satisfied in having done our duty The Discourses of Wilford Woodruff ed G Homer Durham 1946 152

National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases Christian Contours Douglas S. Huffman,2012-01-12 What does it mean to think and live Christianly in a world of competing worldviews Christian Contours answers this question by inviting readers to consider the understanding of reality proposed by the Bible Though it is easy to divide life into separate compartments religious and secular theological and practical faith invites us to view all of life in the light of that Biblical understanding Presenting a clear compelling case for unity in essential Christian tenets the authors of Christian Contours guide the reader through developing internalizing and articulating a biblical worldview This robust worldview enables the Christian to be a critically thinking participant in culture and to be a faithful disciple of Christ with both heart and mind Coping With Divorce, Single Parenting, and Remarriage E. Mavis Hetherington,2014-04-08 This book written for scholars and practitioners alike describes theoretical and research advances in the myriad complicated images of life for children and parents in families affected by divorce remarriage and single parenting The Family:

Change or Continuity? Faith Robertson Elliot, 1986-10-27 Faith Elliot's book has a coherence unusual in a textbook. As its title suggests, it directs our attention to change and continuity in the family. It reviews debates about the biological origins of the nuclear family and gender roles, accounts of the development of the conjugal family as the dominant family form in modern Western societies, and of change in the roles of men and women within and without the family, the remodelling of the conjugal family consequent on the legitimation of divorce and the emergence of one-parent families and remarriage families, and the development of alternative lifestyles as exemplified in unmarried cohabitation, same-sex pairings, and group living. The book considers Marxist and feminist approaches alongside the functional approaches which have been more traditional in the sociological study of the family.

Happy Parenting: Happy Kids Dr. Joan D. Atwood, 2019-04-06 This book brings together the latest research on successful parenting with tried and true techniques for raising healthy, happy children.

Parenting Across Cultures from Childhood to Adolescence Jennifer E. Lansford, W. Andrew Rothenberg, Marc H. Bornstein, 2021-02-25 This vital volume advances understanding of how parenting from childhood to adolescence changes or remains the same in a variety of sociodemographic, psychological, and cultural contexts, providing a truly global understanding of parenting across cultures. Through the Parenting Across Cultures project, the editors unveil findings from this hugely important comparative longitudinal study of parents and children in China, Colombia, Italy, Jordan, Kenya, the Philippines, Sweden, Thailand, and the United States. The volume offers insight into trajectories of parenting, exploring parents' warmth, control, rules setting, and knowledge of children's activities and whereabouts. Each chapter is authored by a contributor native to the country examined, guaranteeing an authentic emic perspective, and together the chapters provide a broader sample that is more generalizable to a wider range of the world's population than is typical in most parenting research. Parenting Across Cultures: From Childhood to Adolescence is essential reading for researchers and students of parenting psychology, human development, family studies, sociology, and cultural anthropology, as well as professionals working with families.

Motherhood as Metaphor Jeannine Hill Fletcher, 2013-08-09 Who is my neighbor? As our world has increasingly become a single place, this question posed in the gospel story is heard as an interreligious inquiry. Yet studies of encounter across religious lines have largely been framed as the meeting of male leaders. What difference does it make when women's voices and experiences are the primary data for thinking about interfaith engagement? Motherhood as Metaphor draws on three historical encounters between women of different faiths: first, the archives of the Maryknoll Sisters working in China before World War II; second, the experiences of women in the feminist movement around the globe; and third, a contemporary interfaith dialogue group in Philadelphia. These sites provide fresh ways of thinking about our being human in the relational, dynamic messiness of our sacred human lives. Each part features a chapter detailing the historical archival and ethnographic evidence of women's experience in interfaith contact through letters, diaries, speeches, and interviews of women in interfaith settings. A subsequent chapter considers the theological import of these experiences, placing them in conversation with modern theological anthropology feminist theory and theology Women s experience of motherhood provides a guiding thread through the theological reflections recorded here This investigation thus offers not only a comparative theology based on believers experience rather than on texts alone but also new ways of conceptualizing our being human The result is an interreligious theology rooted in the Christian story but also learning across religious lines Subject Catalog, 1977 Library of Congress,1977
