

Why Be Lonely?

A Guide to Meaningful Relationships

W. Leslie Carter
Paul D. Meier Frank B. Minirth

What causes loneliness? What are symptoms of loneliness? Is there a cure for loneliness? Also answering these questions, the authors who are Christian counselors and psychiatrists make this a unique handbook and practical guidebook for overcoming loneliness. This book is an excellent self-help guide. Christian counselors will welcome it as a resource for assisting the loneliness-stricken.

Good 'n' Angry

Les Carter

Can a person be both good and angry at the same time? What is anger? How does anger get the best of us? Is there a good way to express anger?

These are just a few of the questions Les Carter deals with in this book. He clearly describes what anger is, how it is formed (both properly and improperly), and how to get a grip on this unpredictable emotion. His perspective is Christian and he integrates both psychological and theological concepts about human personality. The solid and constructive directives in this book are rooted in Dr. Carter's training and experience as a Christian professional therapist.
