Quaker Spirituality Selected Writings:

Quaker Spirituality Douglas Van Steere, 1984-01-01 Quaker Spirituality HarperCollins Spiritual Classics, 2005-05-03 Simplicity in forms of worship opposition to violence and the importance of compassionate living and thoughtful listening are hallmarks of the spirituality of the Quakers From their beginnings in seventeenth century England to today the Friends have attempted to live out their belief in the presence of God's spirit within their hearts This book features the writings of some of the most influential and inspirational Quaker thinkers George Fox John Woolman Caroline Stephen Thomas Kelly and others providing a vivid portrait of the beautiful simple spirituality of the Quakers Quaker Spirituality Douglas Van Steere, 1984 Anchoritic Spirituality Anne Savage, Nicholas Watson, 1991 Sometime in the first quarter of the 13th century a number of works were written for anchoresses women who lived as religious recluses in cells adjoining churches The most influential is Ancrene Wisse A Guide for Anchoresses which discusses in great detail the daily life of the anchoress both outer and inner This work gives a detailed sense of a powerful and multi faceted spirituality different from that of other mystics Complete Works Angela (of Foligno), 1993 Angela of Foligno c 1248 1309 is one of the most outstanding representatives of the Franciscan and Christian mystical tradition Her Book published here in English for the first time describes her passionate love affair with the suffering God man and her teachings in the form of letters and exhortations to her spiritual progeny The Fifty Spiritual Homilies ; And, The Great Letter Pseudo-Macarius, 1992 The writings of Pseudo Macarius a Syrian monk of the 4th century bring to Western Christianity a holistic heart spirituality that offers a necessary complementarity to the head spirituality of the West The homilies reveal the typical traits of Eastern Christian asceticism and The Great Letter instructs the monastic community Rabbinic Stories Jeffrey L. Rubenstein, 2002 Stories from the main works of classical rabbinic literature which were produced by Jewish sages in either Hebrew or Aramaic between 200 and 600 CE Jewish Mystical Autobiographies Morris M. Faierstein, 1999 Paulist Press deserves credit for adding this new dimension to interfaith dialogue The Jewish Spectator In this remarkable volume in the Classics of Western Spirituality TM are the mystical autobiographies unusual in themselves for the Jewish tradition of two influential Jewish thinkers Rabbi Hayyim Vital and Rabbi Yizhak Isaac Safran of Komarno Now translated for the first time in English these texts will capture the attention of historians theologians and anyone studying Judaism Rabbi Hayyim Vital 1542 1620 was the foremost disciple of R Isaac Luria one of the most important mystics in 16th century Judaism and founder of the major school of mysticism known as Lurianic kabbalah Vital was the most influential transmitter of Luria's teachings and the author of a full fledged mystical autobiography called The Book of Visions Vital saw himself as the reincarnation of many of the important figures in Jewish history associated with messianic hopes and expectations The second text in this volume The Book of Secrets is by Rabbi Yizak Isaac Safran of Komarno 1806 1874 an important Hasidic master Like Vital he saw himself as a potential messianic figure who had direct access to the mysteries of heaven The Book of Secrets is divided into two parts

The first part The Book of Visions modeled on Vital s work consists of incidents in his life and visionary experiences The second part the Deeds of the Lord contains stories about the Baal Shem Tov the founder of Hasidism Military Chaplains' Review ,1985 I Am With You Always Benedict C.F.R. Groeschel,2011-02-18 A Study of the History and Meaning of Personal Devotion to Jesus Christ for Catholic Orthodox and Protestant Christians The devotional life of Christians over the two millennia since Jesus birth has been one of motion changing and growing in response to the challenges presented to the Church the temperaments of newly baptized nations and controversies about how we can and should relate to God And yet the core of authentic Christian devotion has not changed it remains today as it was in the time of the Church Fathers the trusting and personal encounter with Christ that is both open and foundational to the life of all Christian believers In this book the well known spiritual writer and teacher Fr Benedict Groeschel C F R surveys the development and trials of Christian devotion from the days of the martyrs until the twentieth century Tracking it through the centuries and among sadly divided branches of Christianity he finds a commonality of experience and even of language that is constantly ignored among Christians themselves By observing what image of Christ the canvas of common devotion portrays he hopes we will move not to discredit this image but to sharpen it and make it more consistent with the New Testament and the ancient Church Though the devotional life is sometimes brushed off as unimportant in comparison to a theological understanding of Christ Groeschel warns that such dismissal threatens to make distant unknown and obscure the Savior who said I am with you always The answer instead is to draw near to Jesus in devotion and with authentic expressions of that devotion which themselves help paint the image of Christ found concretely in revelation onto the minds and daily life of the devout Begun on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and the result of years of preparation and a whole life of guiding people as priest public preacher psychologist and spiritual director this book will help Catholic Orthodox and Protestant believers gain not only a comprehensive view of how pious Christians over the centuries have lived out their devotion to God but the examples and perspective they need to live more devoutly today
