Analyzing and Interpreting Qualitative Research Charles Vanover, Paul Mihas, Johnny Saldana, 2021-04-14 This text provides comprehensive coverage of the key methods for analyzing interpreting and writing up qualitative research in a single volume and drawing on the expertise of major names in the field Covering all the steps in the process of analyzing interpreting and presenting findings in qualitative research the authors utilize a consistent chapter structure that provides novice and seasoned researchers with pragmatic how to strategies Each chapter introduces the method uses one of the authors own research projects as a case study of the method described shows how the specific analytic method can be used in other types of studies and concludes with questions and activities to prompt class discussion or personal study

A Sociology of Mystic Practices Dann Wigner, 2018-06-08 This book investigates the process of spiritual borrowing between the emergent church EC and the Christian mystical tradition From its inception the EC has displayed interest in mystic practices but the exact nature of this interest or how these practices are appropriated and reinterpreted in the EC context

has not been researched My research shows that the emergent church is appropriating Christian mystic practices by investing these practices with their own theological content The practices themselves are changed to fit in their new context showing that EC belief shapes EC behavior My study adds a new case study perspective to the sociological examination of the process of spiritual borrowing especially through close inspection of how a spiritual practice changes to fit a new theological context Additionally my book contributes to the study of the complex relationship between belief and behavior

Teaching Qualitative Research Rosalind E. Hurworth, 2008-01-01 Over the past two decades there has been a plethora of book for students about how to tackle Qualitative Research QR but absolutely nothing on how to teach it This book attempts to redress the imbalance by presenting a history of what is known about QR teaching as well as to bring alive current QR teaching and learning through a set of Australian and British case studies Courses visited were located within a variety of disciplines including Education Sociology Anthropology Nursing Psychology Communications and Evaluation were taught by both experienced and inexperienced lecturers were either presented alone or in pairs took place in a range of institutions lasted from seven weeks to a year and involved from 15 to over 100 students It emerged however that no matter what the context several common issues were raised such as Should you teach theory practice or both How do you determine a curriculum for a QR course What is the best way to manage student projects How should students of QR be assessed In what ways can the constraints of University structures be confronted and How can lecturer deficiencies in training and experience be overcome To answer such questions Professor Hurworth draws deftly from personal observations and rich conversations with both lecturers and students from all the courses described As a result many practical ideas for moving the teaching and learning of QR forward are suggested

Evaluation and Action Research Linnea L. Rademaker, Elena Y. Polush, 2022 Today s societies require research approaches that are creative sensitive to cultural and contextual diversity rooted in engagement and critical dispositions and situated within local contexts Action research and evaluation are inquiries into and about human lives Both modes generate actionable data in specific contexts to facilitate positive social change and to further social justice This book explores the potential of integrating action research and evaluation frameworks to encourage knowledge democracy data literacy and ethical practices The authors draw a clear connection between program enactment and program goals investigating the processes of design qualitative and quantitative data collection and analysis and mixed methods considerations Key questions include why is new research paradigm needed How do we define data literacy How do we understand equitable societies Working from the belief that knowledge is created constantly in our world by those in real world settings and practical contexts Evaluation and Action Research provides practitioners with an accessible guide to better inform practice and decision making
