School Effectiveness Marilyn Tew, 2007-11-12 Includes CD Rom This resource was a very valuable tool in helping us to incorporate SEAL lessons into the PSHE curriculum for Years 7 and 8 this year the activities are set within the context of research into social work and emotional aspects of learning conducted by the author and in practice they work with the students Feedback from our 7 and 8 students on these lessons was overwhelmingly positive Jenny Tinnelly Henry Floyd Grammar School Are you looking for a quality programme to help promote emotional literacy in your school School Effectiveness provides a complete activity and resource pack for implementing emotional literacy within your school Filled with strategies activities resources games lessons and materials the pack includes A guidebook for teachers clearly explaining the theory behind emotional literacy and providing practical ideas for the classroom A CD Rom containing a colour student workbook designed to involve every student in the development of emotional literacy Lesson notes games and copiable activity sheets for classroom use also available on the CD Rom A second CD Rom containing the easy to install TalkiT software programme which can be used as a powerful classroom assessment tool to measure and evaluate personal and social development The CD Rom allows over 30 free trials and uses clear and simple operating instructions throughout Success at school is more than academic achievement Personal and social development is just as important To create this pack Marilyn Tew led a fascinating project in British secondary schools to uncover how young people felt about school life showing that for most it was personal and social success that was of primary importance This valuable resource pack takes the findings of Marilyn's research and builds them into exciting practical applications to help students develop self awareness self control motivation and the understanding to get along with others The additional TalkiT software makes it an essential all in one resource for every school Marilyn Tew is a visiting fellow of the Graduate School of Education at the University of Bristol She is experienced in secondary education as a teacher and manager In addition she has been a researcher and national trainer in PSHE groupwork Circle Time and emotional literacy for the past nine years Her special interest is groups particularly the circle emotional literacy and work with the community to support learning

Promoting Emotional Education Carmel Cefai, Paul Cooper, 2009 This book suggests adopting educational practices which encourage feelings of emotional security promote trusting and supportive relationships and reflect students views and feelings essential qualities for healthy personal and social development in children and young people

The Routledge International Companion to Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Ted Cole, Harry Daniels, John Visser, 2012-10-12 Responding to disruptive or troubled pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties EBD remains a highly topical issue The challenges these children present relate to wider issues of continuing political concern the perceived declining discipline in schools school and social exclusion the limits to inclusion for children with special needs increasing mental health difficulties in children youth crime and parenting skills It s little wonder that the EBD often known as BESD or SEBD category is one of the most common forms of SEN around the world This topical and exhaustively researched Companion examines the difficulties of defining EBD and the dangers of allocating this imprecise label to children Bringing together the work of contributors from fifteen countries and across four continents this book features the research of leading experts in the global field of EBD who discuss and debate educators key concerns by looking at the overlaps between EBD ADHD and mental health difficulties outlining the types of appropriate schooling for children with EBD urging readers to look beyond pupils challenging behaviour in order to understand and respond to the social biological and psychological causation considering the key areas of assessment whole school and targeted approaches that help pupils with EBD in mainstream and in special settings outlining helpful work with families the crucial contribution of effective multi agency working and the importance of supporting and developing teachers who work with challenging pupils Containing contrasting views on controversial topics this Companion s approachable style makes it an essential reference book for academics policy makers practitioners educators and students who are working towards a higher degree in education

Self Perception Richard Riding, Stephen Rayner, 2001-08-30 The second book in a new series Self Perception brings together contemporary perspectives on individual differences in psychology Drawing upon an international field of established and new researchers the series presents both theoretical and applied work looking at individual difference in human performance The re appraisal of self perception is considered as part of the development of new thinking in the theory of self reference This includes models of self from the United States and the United Kingdom The book goes on to explore recent research from around the globe Not only are studies from Australia Norway and the United States examined but research from Greece and Kuwait is also explored Varied topics are covered including the effects of gender self esteem and pupil self perception in the academic context Set within the framework of a conceptual synthesis of the research the book offers a contemporary review of current thinking in the field The contributors provide recent relevant and alternative perspectives for psychologists and applied scientists The ^AOxford Handbook of Career Development ,2021-06-11 The Oxford Handbook of Career Development provides a comprehensive overview of the career development field It features contributions from 42 leading scholars addressing the context theory and practice of career development in the contemporary world Perspectives on Student Behaviour in Schools Mere Berryman,Ted Glynn,Janice Wearmouth,2007-05-07 The authors of this comprehensive text discuss the root causes of disruptive behaviour tackle assessment issues and develop effective intervention strategies that will be of practical use to teachers and other educators Whilst theorising behaviour management from a range of perspectives psychodynamic behavioural and socio cultural the authors remain firmly focused on practical issues of policy making assessment and intervention and address a wide range of related issues such as policy in relation to behaviour in schools at local authority national and international level cultural concerns race gender school discipline and exclusion medical perspectives of topical interest such as ADHD autism and diet assessment at district community classroom and individual level and how these underpin theory This book will appeal to anyone for whom behaviour in schools is a key concern such as student teachers teacher educators senior school managers and practising teachers undertaking further study in the field The Effective Teacher's Guide to Behavioural, Emotional and Social Difficulties Michael Farrell,2006-05-23 Taking into account the very latest developments in the field of Special Educational Needs this book provides busy teachers with a straightforward yet thorough overview of the basic theories surrounding behaviour The book also looks at the range of strategies that can be used in the classroom and how their effectiveness can be assessed The range of strategies presented and explained include the cognitive approach the systems based approach the behavioural approach the psychodynamic approach Also included is a chapter devoted to supporting pupils with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder The chapter contains new information on identifying and assessing the condition and suggests effective intervention strategies such as developing self esteem and interpersonal skills
