Quand la Terre Tremble. [With Plates and Maps.]. Haroun TAZIEFF, 1962      Barbarians and Politics at the Court of Arcadius Alan Cameron, Allan G. Cameron, Jacqueline Long, Professor of Latin Language and Literature Alan Cameron, Lee Sherry, Charles Anthon Professor Emeritus of Latin Alan Cameron, 1993-01-01 This book explodes the common view that pro and anti German factions dominated Byzantine politics at the turn of the century and in so doing it rewrites the history of a brief but crucial period in early Byzantium Robert Kaster author of Guardians of Language      Disasters, Vulnerability, and Narratives Kasia Mika, 2018-07-17 This book uses narrative responses to the 2010 Haiti earthquake as a starting point for an analysis of notions of disaster vulnerability reconstruction and recovery The turn to a wide range of literary works enables a composite comparative analysis which encompasses the social political and individual dimensions of the earthquake This book focuses on a vision of an open ended future otherwise than as a threat or fear Mika turns to concepts of hinged chronologies slow healing and remnant dwelling Weaving theory with attentive close readings the book offers an open ended framework for conceptualising post disaster recovery and healing These processes happen at different times and must entail the elimination of compound vulnerabilities that created the disaster in the first place Challenging characterisations of the region as a continuous catastrophe this book works towards a bold vision of Haiti's and the Caribbean's futures The study shows how narratives can extend some of the key concepts within discipline bound approaches to disasters while making an important contribution to the interface between disaster studies postcolonial ecocriticism and Haitian Studies      The Miracles of St. Artemios Virgil S.
