Sexual and Marital Metaphors in Hosea, Jeremiah, Isaiah, and Ezekiel Sharon Moughtin-Mumby, 2008-06-05 Sharon Moughtin Mumby considers the often unrecognised impact of different approaches to metaphor on readings of the prophetic sexual and marital metaphorical language She outlines a practical and consciously simplified approach to metaphor placing strong emphasis on the influence of literary context on metaphorical meaning Drawing on this approach she read Hosea 4 14 Jeremiah 2 1 4 4 Isaiah Ezekiel 16 and 23 and Hosea 1 3 with fresh eyes Her lucid new readings reveal the way in which scholarship has repeatedly stifled the prophetic metaphorical language by reading it within the default contexts of the marriage metaphor and cultic prostitution which for so many years have been simply assumed Readers are encouraged instead to read these diverse metaphors and similes within their distinctive literary contexts in which they have the potential to rise vividly to life provoking the question how are we to respond to these disquieting powerful texts in the midst of the Hebrew Bible

The Formation of the Hebrew Bible David M. Carr, 2011-10-12 David Carr rethinks both the methods and historical orientation points for research into the growth of the Hebrew Bible into its present form Love Divine Jordan Wessling, 2020-06-01 Love Divine provides a systematic account of the deep and rich love that God has for humans While the associated theological territory is vast the objective is to contend for a unified paradigm regarding fundamental issues pertaining to the God of love who deigns to share His life of love with any human willing to receive it Realizing this objective includes clarifying and defending specific conclusions concerning how the doctrine of divine love should be approached what God's love is what role love plays in motivating God's creation and subsequent governance of humans how God's love of humans factors into His emotional life which humans it is that God loves in a saving manner what the punitive wrath of God is and how it relates to God's love for humans and how it might be possible for God to share the intra trinitarian life of love with human beings As the book unfolds the chapters interlock and build upon one another in the effort to trace nodal issues related to God's love as it begins in Him and then spills out in the creation redemption and glorification of humanity a kind of exitus reditus structure that is driven by the unyielding love of God
