Reflections On A Dying Life:

Reflections on a Dying Life Donald X. Burt, 2005-02 An eminently accessible and deeply pastoral book of Christian eschatology The author uses his masterful knowledge of St Augustine's writings to create a classically Catholic spirituality of aging integrating a deep faith with his disciplined reason he gently lovingly sculpts an Augustinian spirituality of death and resurrection Back cover

Lessons in Living and Dying Diann Pass, 2015-09-24 In today's world we hear much talk about legacy There seems to be immeasurable concern about what others will remember about us when our lives are complete How can we be certain that we will be remembered in positive ways Should we leave money for a building to be named after us Is it necessary to be extremely wealthy or famous Maybe Our true bequest will be in the lives that we touch and change The simplest of actions a smile or personal interest in someone can be life changing for that person This book takes a look at such a life Not a perfect life A life lived increasingly to the glory of God And when it was over the legacy was one of joy and respect Now that is something to strive for

Dasgupta,2020-12-20 This book presents a kaleidoscopic view of the positive layers of ageing as well as key interventions that can help generate and maintain positivity and well being among the elderly It explores the connections of ageing with spirituality nature and existentialism and leisure to encourage creativity individuation happiness and emotional detachment It further examines various interventions such as end of life care mindfulness and yoga retrospection life review and so on which may improve the overall quality of life by promoting the health of the elderly individual The book focuses on authentic ageing transpersonal gerontology the concept of the elder child geriatric interventions and caregiving and suggests practical improvements in health and facilities for the elderly It also covers aspects of the inner life of the prolonged ailing or dying person from a mental health perspective and emphasizes the value of positive ageing A guide to applied geriatrics and geriatric psychology with its simple style and clear methods in end to end praxis the book shows how mental well being can be fostered in the elderly to help them find meaning and purpose in old age This book will interest students teachers and researchers of psychology positive psychology geropsychology and gerontological studies sociology and social work public health medical education and geriatric nursing It will also be useful to practitioners including psychologists counsellors gerontologists mental health professionals and NGOs working with the elderly and the interested reader Sermons on Education, on Reflection, on the Greatness of God in the Works of Nature and in the Government of the World, on Charity, and on Various Other Topics George Joachim Zollikofer,1806 Reflections on Old Age Cornelius F. Murphy,2015-04-07

The English writer E M Forster described old age as a seductive combination of increased wisdom and decaying powers to which too little intelligence is devoted This book is a response to that criticism It explains how old age has been considered throughout the ages by philosophers poets and other literary figures and explores how the extraordinary increase of life expectancy that began in the last century has been sustained by science and medicine Unfortunately the general public still prefers to keep the elderly out of sight and especially out of mind To overcome this marginalization I call for the emergence of a more inclusive humanism one that is welcoming to persons of all ages To overcome the pervasive isolation of the elderly requires a new dialogue across all the living generations Echoing the sentiments of Cicero in his classic study of old age I also call for a reflective maturity to develop among the elderly one that reaches deeply into themselves and increases their understanding of the world around them Spiritual maturity demands growth in virtue and charity in the advance of years A reaching out to all in the pursuit of justice and the common good is strongly recommended The book concludes with some reflections upon hopes for personal immortality as well as the qualities of divine justice and mercy

Theological Reflection

Edward O. De Bary, 2003 Theological reflection has its roots in the works of Bernard Lonergan David Tracy James and Evelyn Whitehead John de Beer Patricia Killen Flower Ross and Charles Winters It provides a way of learning theology so that participants can develop congruence between life's experience the world and the Christian faith the reflective methods are useful educational tools Other discipline may find them useful to enhance the way seminars are organized as learning opportunities to discover meaning

Jeff, the Roofer, Reflections of a Double Negative Life Jeffrey Poppy, 2009-11

Writer Jeffrey Poppy writes a stunningly candid book based on his life experiences in Jeff the Roofer Reflections of a Double Negative Life Poppy was born into life with drama as a newborn he had to have a blood transfusion Growing up with an abusive father he relived the abuse by self destruction through his teenage years and into adulthood Poppy played out his destruction in various ways a near death gunshot wound alcoholism drugs three failed marriages six trips to rehab and then homeless All avenues led to the same place his own inner demons until he entered an in house treatment center Upon release Poppy traveled to Amsterdam and met his muse who inspired his creative poetry Poppy entered a song writing contest won second place and traveled back to the United States landing in Nashville Tennessee He recorded 42 of his own songs all inspired by his tenuous and amazing journey that finally released his demons and enabled him to find his own path Jeff the Roofer Reflections of a Double Negative Life begins with the song The Times that illustrates his quests and questions of life's meaning for him and the song Just Another Day takes him on the journey from inner strife to see freedom and triumph over self destructive and abusive ways Interwoven with heart wrenching storytelling are 28 compositions that chronicle his unsteady journey to recovery This beautifully descriptive book is a compelling and inspiring narration of prose and lyrics that expertly encapsulate one man's escape from the cycle of abuse and self destruction Jeffrey Poppy is a writer poet songwriter and craftsman Mr Poppy is currently writing his second novel and lives with his beloved dog in Durant Oklahoma Publisher's website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/JeffTheRooferReflectionsOfADoubleNegativeLife.htm>

Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals

Dale Wright, Maria Antonaccio, 2016-02-17 Contemporary thought is marked by heated debates about the character purpose and form of religious thinking and its relation to a range of ideals spiritual moral aesthetic political and ecological to name the obvious This book addresses the interrelation between theological thinking and the complex and diverse realms of human ideals What are the ideals appropriate to our moment in human history and how do these ideals derive from or relate to theological reflection in our time In Theological Reflection and the Pursuit of Ideals internationally renowned scholars from a range of disciplines physics art literary studies ethics comparative religion history of ideas and theology engage with these crucial questions with the intention of articulating a new and historically appropriate vision of theological reflection and the pursuit of ideals for our global times The Right to Die with Dignity Derya Nur Kayacan, 2022-06-20 Can I choose to die As the number of requests for euthanasia and physician assisted suicide continues to rise human rights law faces a new conflict the right to die vs the right to life The right to die or in other words the right to choose the time and manner of one's own death is a question of personal autonomy and its limits This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the right to die and sheds light on its possible future under the European Convention on Human Rights After setting a clear framework by defining the key terminology the book takes a two part approach to achieving its aim The first part focuses on the right to die in practice by examining selected jurisdictions Switzerland which is famous for its assisted suicide organizations and the Netherlands which was the first country to legalize euthanasia are examined in detail Belgium Germany the United Kingdom and as an exception to the Convention perspective Canada are also included While this examination offers a better understanding of what the right to die looks like in practice it also provides insights on the slippery slope argument which serves as a counterweight to personal autonomy without making a definitive statement on its validity This part also illustrates the different paths that led or did not lead to the right to die in practice The second part is an analysis of the European Court of Human Rights case law on the right to die The Court has made important statements in only very few cases while its caution when approaching such a delicate and controversial topic among its 47 members is understandably emphasized This analysis of the Court's approach to the balancing of personal autonomy against other interests allows us to take a look back at the practice in more permissive jurisdictions through the lens of the Convention Taken together the book's two parts provide valuable lessons for countries that decide to practice assisted dying which are outlined in the conclusion In addition given that a purely legal approach can only offer a partial picture the book argues that an interdisciplinary approach would be much more favorable in terms of providing the necessary basis for the right to die debate Catholic Daily Reflections for Lent & Easter John Paul Thomas, 2025-11-01 Walk with Christ Through the Cross to the Resurrection Journey with the Lord through forty days of penance and the radiant joy of Easter with daily Gospel reflections Catholic Daily Reflections for Lent it's an invitation to personal transformation offered with warmth and theological depth Rooted in the teachings of the Church and sensitive to life's daily challenges these reflections are meant to be read with both the mind and heart Ideal for Daily personal prayer and meditation Spiritual direction Group discussion for faith sharing groups or RCIA Homily preparation This four volume set includes Volume 1 Advent Christmas Prepare your heart for the Savior's coming Volume 2 Lent Easter Embrace the Cross and rejoice in the Resurrection Volume 3 Ordinary

Time Weeks 1 17 Follow Christ in life s everyday moments Volume 4 Ordinary Time Weeks 18 34 Reflect on the Kingdom to come and live with eternal hope Whether you are beginning your spiritual journey or seeking renewed depth in your walk with Christ Catholic Daily Reflections Series Three will help you grow in holiness day by day Twilight Zone Reflections Saul Traiger,2024-06-18 An introduction to philosophy through thought experiments in the 1959 1964 television series The Twilight Zone Silence, Scapegoats, Self-reflection Volker Roelcke,Sascha Topp,Etienne Lepicard,2015-01-28 Since the end of World War II Nazi medical atrocities have been a topic of ambivalent reactions and debates both in Germany and internationally An early period of silence was followed by attempts of victims and representatives of medical organisations to describe what happened Varying narratives developed some of which had a stabilizing function for the identity of the profession whereas others had a critical and de stabilizing function In today s international debates in the field of medical ethics there are frequent references to Nazi medical atrocities in particular in the context of discussions about research on human subjects and on euthanasia The volume analyses the narratives on Nazi medical atrocities their historicity in different stages of post war medicine as well as in the international discourse on biomedical ethics Communion, Covenant, and Creativity Brian Haymes,Richard L. Kidd,2020-03-16 This book is a follow up to a previous volume by the same three authors Baptists and the Communion of Saints A Theology of Covenanted Disciples though it does not require familiarity with the first study The present book offers new perspectives on belief in the communion of saints by interpreting it through the idea of covenant with its two dimensions of relations with God and with each other Giving attention to the creative arts of painting music poetry and story writing the authors explore indications of a hidden communion of saints through embodiment memory and connectivity Included are studies of the work of visual artists Paul Nash and Mark Rothko musicians John Tavener Elgar and Brahms and writers Thomas Hardy T S Eliot and James Joyce Theological reflection on these hints of communion offers a vision of an ongoing communion of prayer with the saints alive and dead which does not depend on a dualistic idea of a disembodied soul existing after death but which affirms the Christian tradition of the resurrection of the body Communion covenant and creativity are thus linked to develop a Christian aesthetics based on a mutual indwelling between the triune God and the world Vox Dei, Or, The Great Duty of Self-reflection Upon a Mans Own Wayes Nathaniel Wanley,1658
