Regarding The Pain Of Others:

Regarding the Pain of Others Susan Sontag, 2004-02 Twenty five years after her classic On Photography Sontag returns to the subject of visual representations of war and violence in the culture today She once again changes the way readers think about the uses and meanings of images in the world and offers an important reflection about how war itself is waged and understood

Regarding the Pain of Others Susan Sontag, 2013-10-01 A brilliant clear eyed consideration of the visual representation of violence in our culture its ubiquity meanings and effects Considered one of the greatest critics of her generation Susan Sontag followed up her monumental On Photography with an extended study of human violence reflecting on a question first posed by Virginia Woolf in Three Guineas How in your opinion are we to prevent war For a long time some people believed that if the horror could be made vivid enough most people would finally take in the outrageousness the insanity of war One of the distinguishing features of modern life is that it supplies countless opportunities for regarding at a distance through the medium of photography horrors taking place throughout the world But are viewers inured or incited to violence by the depiction of cruelty Is the viewer's perception of reality eroded by the daily barrage of such images What does it mean to care about the sufferings of others far away First published more than twenty years after her now classic book On Photography which changed how we understand the very condition of being modern Regarding the Pain of Others challenges our thinking not only about the uses and means of images but about how war itself is waged and understood in our time the limits of sympathy and the obligations of conscience

Letting Stories Breathe Arthur W. Frank, 2024-05-31 Stories accompany us through life from birth to death But they do not merely entertain inform or distress us they show us what counts as right or wrong and teach us who we are and who we can imagine being Stories connect people but they can also disconnect creating boundaries between people and justifying violence In Letting Stories Breathe Arthur W Frank grapples with this fundamental aspect of our lives offering both a theory of how stories shape us and a useful method for analyzing them Along the way he also tells stories from folktales to research interviews to remembrances Frank's unique approach uses literary concepts to ask social scientific questions how do stories make life good and when do they endanger it Going beyond theory he presents a thorough introduction to dialogical narrative analysis analyzing modes of interpretation providing specific questions to start analysis and describing different forms analysis can take Building on his renowned work exploring the relationship between narrative and illness Letting Stories Breathe expands Frank's horizons further offering a compelling perspective on how stories affect human lives

Film and Ethics Lisa Downing, Libby Saxton, 2009-09-10 Film Ethics considers a range of films and texts of film criticism alongside disparate philosophical discourses of ethics by Levinas Derrida Foucault Lacanian psychoanalysts and postmodern theorists

The House of the Pain of Others Julián Herbert, 2019-04-16 A brilliant work of historical excavation with profound echoes in an age redolent with violence and xenophobia Early in the twentieth century amid the myths of progress and modernity that underpinned Mexico's ruling party some three hundred Chinese immigrants close to half of the Cantonese residents of the newly founded city of Torre n were massacred over the course of three days It is considered the largest slaughter of Chinese people in the history of the Americas but more than a century later the facts continue to be elusive mistaken and repressed And what do you know about the Chinese people who were killed here Juli n Herbert asks anyone who will listen An exorcism of persistent and discomfiting ghosts The House of the Pain of Others attempts a reckoning with the 1911 massacre Looping digressive and cinematic Herbert blends reportage personal reflection essay and academic research to portray the historical context as well as the lives of the perpetrators and victims of the small genocide This brilliant historical excavation echoes profoundly in an age redolent with violence and xenophobia

Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat, 2014-07-14 In Knowing the Suffering of Others legal scholar Austin Sarat brings together essays that address suffering as it relates to the law highlighting the ways law imagines suffering and how pain and suffering become jurisprudential facts From fetal imaging to end of life decisions torts to international human rights domestic violence to torture and the law of war to victim impact statements the law is awash in epistemological and ethical problems associated with knowing and imagining suffering In each of these domains we might ask How well do legal actors perceive and understand suffering in such varied domains of legal life What problems of representation and interpretation bedevil efforts to grasp the suffering of others What historical political literary cultural and or theological resources can legal actors and citizens draw on to understand the suffering of others In Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat presents legal scholarship that explores these questions and puts the problem of suffering at the center of thinking about law The contributors to this volume do not regard pain and suffering as objective facts of a universe remote from law rather they examine how both are discursively constructed in and by law They examine how pain and suffering help construct and give meaning to the law as we know it The authors attend to the various ways suffering appears in law as well as the different forms of suffering that require the law s attention Throughout this book law is regarded as a domain in which the meanings of pain and suffering are contested and constituted as well as an instrument for inflicting suffering or for providing or refusing its relief It challenges scholars lawyers students and policymakers to ask how various legal actors and audiences understand the suffering of others Contributors Montr D Carodine Cathy Caruth Alan L Durham Bryan K Fair Steven H Hobbs Gregory C Keating Linda Ross Meyer Meredith M Render Jeannie Suk John Fabian Witt

Portraits of Violence Suzannah Biernoff, 2017-03-28 Portraits of Violence explores the image and idea of facial disfigurement in one of its most troubling modern formations as a symbol and consequence of war It opens with Nina Berman s iconic photograph Marine Wedding which provoked a debate about the medical military and psychological response to serious combat injuries While these issues remain urgent it is equally crucial to interrogate the representation of war and injury The concepts of valor heroism patriotism and courage assume visible form and do their cultural work when they are personified and embodied The mutilated or disabled veteran s body can connote the brutalizing dehumanizing potential of modern combat Suzannah Biernoff draws on a wide variety of sources mainly from WWI but also contemporary photography and computer games Each chapter revolves around particular images Marine Wedding is discussed alongside Stuart Griffiths portraits of British veterans Henry Tonks drawings of WWI facial casualties are compared to the medical photographs in the Gillies Archives the production of portrait masks for the severely disfigured is approached through the lens of documentary film and photography and finally the haunting image of one of Tonks's patients reappears in BioShock a highly successful computer game The book simultaneously addresses a neglected area in disability studies puts disfigurement on the agenda for art history and visual studies and makes a timely and provocative contribution to the literature on the First World War

Public Characters James M. Jasper, Michael P. Young, Elke Zuern, 2020 Heroes villains victims and minions have been the building blocks of moral and political reputations throughout human history In Public Characters the authors look at visual images music and words to show the techniques by which these characters get constructed They also trace the impact of these public characters in politics including the 2016 triumph of Donald J Trump through his ability to cast opponents as villains and minions

Men After War Stephen McVeigh, Nicola Cooper, 2013-03-05 This book is an innovative collection of original research which analyzes the many varieties of post conflict masculinity Exploring topics such as physical disability and psychological trauma and masculinity and sexuality in relation to the feminizing contexts of wounding and desertion this volume draws together leading academics in the fields of gender history literature and disability studies in an inter and multi disciplinary exploration of the conditions and circumstances that men face in the aftermath of war

The Bodies of Others José A. Sánchez, 2022-02-24 Available in English for the first time The Bodies of Others investigates through a series of close readings of several theatrical and film productions in Europe and South America the relationship between representation including theatrical representation and ethics defined as an ongoing relational negotiation as opposed to a set of universal moral laws The main concepts are exposed through a comparative analysis of historical processes political actions and artistic works from different periods Thus the dialogue between the film La carrosse d'or by Jean Renoir 1952 and Rosa Cuchillo by Yuyachkani 2006 serves to address the problem of the multiple meanings of representation The dialogue between the play El Se or Gal ndez by Eduardo Pavlovsky 1973 the performance The Conquest of America by Las Yeguas del Apocalipsis 1989 and the novel 2666 2004 by Roberto Bola o allows the concept of an ethic of the body to be addressed Other key concepts such as identity care cruelty violence memory and testimony are considered through investigation of work such as Angelica Liddel's theatre pieces Rabi Mrou and Lina Majdalanie's performances Albertina Carri Basilio Mart n Patino and Apichatpong Weerasethakul's films and Mapa Teatro's trans disciplinary creations

 LINDSEY MANTOAN Susan Sontag; Regarding the Pain of Others Susan Sontag, 2003 Representations of Pain in Art and Visual Culture Maria Pia Di Bella, James Elkins, 2013-06-26 The presentation of bodies in pain has been a major concern in Western art since the time of the Greeks The Christian tradition is closely entwined with such themes from the central images of the Passion to the representations of bloody martyrdoms The remnants of this tradition are evident in contemporary images from Abu Ghraib In the last forty years the body in pain has also emerged as a recurring theme in performance art Recently authors such as Elaine Scarry Susan Sontag and Giorgio Agamben have written about these themes The scholars in this volume add to the discussion analyzing representations of pain in art and the media Their essays are firmly anchored on consideration of the images not on whatever actual pain the subjects suffered At issue is representation before and often apart from events in the world Part One concerns practices in which the appearance of pain is understood as expressive Topics discussed include the strange dynamics of faked pain and real pain contemporary performance art international photojournalism surrealism and Renaissance and Baroque art Part Two concerns representations that cannot be readily assigned to that genealogy the Chinese form of execution known as lingchi popularly the death of a thousand cuts whippings in the Belgian Congo American lynching photographs Boer War concentration camp photographs and recent American capital punishment These examples do not comprise a single alternate genealogy but are united by the absence of an intention to represent pain The book concludes with a roundtable discussion where the authors discuss the ethical implications of viewing such images The ethics of researching war Elizabeth Dauphinee, 2013-01-18 Developed through a series of encounters with a Bosnian Serb soldier The ethics of researching war is a meditation on the possibilities and limitations of responding to the extreme violence of the Bosnian war The book explores the ethics of confronting the war criminal and investigates the possibility of responsibility not just to victims of war and war crimes but also to the perpetrators of violence As such The ethics of researching war is a consideration of the human encounter exploring the political and scholarly strategies through which the human is often dismissed as inhuman The book exposes the complexity of the categories of good and evil The Routledge Handbook of Death and the Afterlife Candi K.

Cann,2018-06-27 This Handbook traces the history of the changing notion of what it means to die and examines the many constructions of afterlife in literature text ritual and material culture throughout time The Routledge Handbook of Death and the Afterlife is an outstanding reference source to the key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject Comprising twenty nine chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into three parts and covers the following important themes The study of dying death and grief Disposal of the dead past present and future Representations of death narratives and rhetoric Youth meets death a juxtaposition Questionable deaths and afterlives suicide ghosts and avatars Material corpses and imagined afterlives around the world Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including the world of death and dying from various cultural viewpoints and timeframes cultural and social constructions of the definition of death disposal practices and views of the afterlife The Routledge Handbook of Death and the Afterlife is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies philosophy anthropology and sociology

Writing Pain in the Nineteenth-century United States Thomas Constantinesco,2022 This book examines how pain is represented in a range of literary texts and genres from the nineteenth century United States It considers the aesthetic philosophical and ethical implications of pain as the national culture of pain progressively transformed in the wake of the invention of anaesthesia limited language: rewriting design Colin Davies,Monika Parrinder,2009-11-06 Limited Language is a web platform co founded in 2005 by Colin Davies University of Wolverhampton and Monika Parrinder Royal College of Art London for generating writing and discussion about the design process Over the last four years the site has collected a series of essays and commentary dealing with the key issues which effect and shape visual communication today limited language rewriting design examines the relationship between traditional printed formats the book and new digital ones blogging Hybrid media forms are already transforming design How might they be used to rethink design writing limited language rewriting design creates an alternative and innovative writing space the reflection and distance which can be offered only by a book Each of its sub sections comprises an article from the website followed by a reflection response to the topic by the responses raised on limitedlanguage org while rich visual imagery in colour illustrates each article response This is a rare book about design that embraces ideas with as much enthusiasm as objects It illustrates its premise by showing feedback culture in action If you find yourself wanting to join in the dialogue with thoughts of your own and you will their website is ready and waiting Rick Poyner www.limitedlanguage.org Intersubjectivity Nick Crossley,1996-04-04 This clearly written and broad ranging text introduces and explains the notion of intersubjectivity as a central concern of philosophy sociology psychology and politics The main purpose of the book is to provide a coherent framework for this important concept against which the various and contrasting debates can be more clearly understood Beyond this Nick Crossley provides a critical discussion of intersubjectivity as an interdisciplinary concept to shed light on our understanding of selfhood communication citizenship power and community The author traces the contributions of many key thinkers engaged within the intersubjectivist tradition including Husserl Buber Kojève Merleau-Ponty Mead Wittgenstein Schutz and Habermas Intersubjectivity is an important and accessible volume which promotes cooperation between various disciplines addressing shared concerns

Watching Murder Simon Cottee, 2022-06-24 Watching Murder shines a light onto the dark world of jihadi murder videos and the people who watch and share them on the internet Images and videos of murder torture and other cruelties are everywhere on the internet Why do some people seek out and watch this material how are they affected by it and do they have a right to watch any of it in the first place In this ground breaking book terrorism scholar Simon Cottee visits the murky fringes of the internet in search of answers Focusing on ISIS he shows how the group transformed the urban myth of the snuff movie into a grim reality watched by tens of thousands of people across the globe On shock sites he finds a contingent of ISIS fans who while hating the group love to watch its most monstrous depredations in high definition He interviews his fellow extremism researchers and asks them about all the dark things they have seen online and how this has affected their mental health He speaks with the cleaners whose job is to report and remove violent jihadi propaganda from the internet And he surveys thousands of young adults to find out what they think of ISIS and its notorious beheading videos Cottee exposes the hysteria around online radicalization and shows how our engagement with violent online spectacles is much more complex and multifaceted than many would have us believe Watching Murder will appeal to anyone with an interest in violence media terrorism and ISIS It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of terrorism studies political science culture and communication

A Hunger for Aesthetics Michael Kelly, 2012 This title examines the motivations for the critiques that have been applied to the idea of aesthetics and argues that theorists and artists now hunger for a new kind of aesthetics one better calibrated to contemporary art and its moral and political demands The book shows how for decades aesthetic critiques have often concerned art's treatment of beauty or the autonomy of art Collectively these critiques have generated an anti aesthetic stance that is now prevalent in the contemporary art world
