Andreevna Akhmatova, 2000 Intimations Anna Andreevna Akhmatova, 2009 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Whale and Star Press Anna Akhmatova 1889 1966 was a skilled love poet who through no choice of her own became a witness to mass violence a widely recognized exemplar of endurance and moral strength and finally a symbol of Russian national resilience At the start of her career during the final years of the Russian Empire Akhmatova was a cultural celebrity who fascinated a generation not only with her poetry but also with the drama that she created around herself After the revolution of 1917 she was attacked as a decadent bourgeois author and driven into silence and obscurity Living in relative poverty with her family and friends repeatedly arrested and harassed and she herself publicly cursed by the representatives of the state Akhmatova survived the darkest decades of Soviet history Near the end of her life when timorous cultural bureaucrats allowed her to reemerge as a public figure she revealed to readers that even if the collective had rejected her as an unworthy member she had continued to write poetry reflecting the trials and calamities of Soviet men and women with greater truth and moral authority than any official poet could attain Selected Poems Anna Andreevna

Half Century Anna Andreevna Akhmatova, 1997 Anna Akhmatova is known as one of twentieth century Russia's greatest poets a member of the quartet that included Mandelstam Pasternak and Tsvetaeva This is the first paperback collection of her prose available in English The subjects of her memoirs are extraordinary she describes Modigliani as she knew him in Paris Blok near the end of his days and Mandelstam as a close friend The autobiographical prose section reveals the elusive poet's personality more clearly than any biography could including her thoughts about how difficult it was to be a poet at a time when women writers were rarely taken seriously Book Jacket Selected Poems Anna Andreevna Akhmatova, 2006
