The final section is devoted to the field of peace research Ishida presents differences of meaning in the concepts of peace in ancient Hebrew Greek Roman Chinese and Indian cultures in order to characterize the Japanese concept of peace which akin to the Chinese emphasizes harmony rather than justice He goes on to discuss Japan s images of Gandhi which according to the author were projections of ultranationalist prejudice and missed the significance of his nonviolent direct action Ishida emphasizes the importance of such nonviolent action as a means to carry out social change toward the realization of justice
