Selected Topics High Intermediate Listening Comprehension:

Selected Topics Ellen Kisslinger, 1994 This outstanding three title series prepares college bound ESL students to understand academic lectures in English Each text equips students for the challenges of college and university study by helping them listen selectively take notes review key ideas retain information and apply what they have learned Twelve recorded lectures in each level are performed in lively and natural styles to provide a motivating introduction to academic listening Lectures cover a wide range of thought provoking contemporary topics Controlled realistic note taking practice ample rep listening activities vocabulary preview post lecture tests and a wealth of illustrations also aid student understanding

The Language of Business Studies Lectures Belinda Crawford Camiciottoli, 2007-01-01 New opportunities in the global workplace have heightened interest in business studies In response to this trend this book presents an in depth analysis of a corpus of authentic business studies lectures focusing on spoken academic disciplinary and professional features e g speech rate interactive devices specialized lexis that are crucial to comprehension but often problematic for non native speakers The investigation adopts an original multi pronged approach including quantitative qualitative and comparative analyses It utilizes techniques drawn mainly from corpus linguistics and discourse analysis but also integrates observational and ethnographic methods to provide unique extra linguistic insights The study is thus a full circle interpretive account of this dynamic spoken genre where academia and profession converge The book shows how business studies lectures are characterised by a synergy of discourses and communicative channels that reflect the community of practice highlighting the need to help international business students develop multiple literacies to overcome present and future challenges

El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 Listening in Language Learning Michael Rost, 2014-06-17 Examines listening as both a means of achieving understanding and as a teachable skill The underlying theme of the volume is that an integration of cognitive social and educational perspectives is necessary in order to characterise effectively what listening ability is and how it may develop It introduces listening from a cognitive perspective and presents a detailed investigation of listening in social and educational contexts The study concludes with an analysis of how listening development can be incorporated effectively into curriculum design

El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003, 2003 Early Language Learning Carol M. Saunders Semonsky, Marcia A. Spielberger, 2006-07-01 The aim of this volume is to provide a detailed description of the process of initiating maintaining and assessing a top quality elementary school foreign language program and to assist planners by providing them with a workable model The book describes the successes and challenges of the Georgia Elementary School Foreign Languages Model Program It includes a detailed description of the curriculum and of the research data showing positive effects of early language learning on elementary school students in Georgia The primary audience for this book is policy makers state and district level educators including supervisors who have responsibility for foreign languages principals teachers and foreign language educators who are interested in components of best practices in early language learning education or who wish to begin a high quality elementary school foreign language program at the state or district level Forum, 1982 Handbook of Research on Teacher and Student Perspectives on the Digital Turn in Education Karpava, Sviatlana, 2022-06-24 In recent years the traditional way of teaching has been substituted by online teaching Teachers have had to think about efficient and effective teaching methods and activities in online delivery that can keep students interested and engaged It is important to examine teacher cognition and its relevance to classroom management and teaching practice as the role of technology in teaching and learning cannot be overestimated The Handbook of Research on Teacher and Student Perspectives on the Digital Turn in Education examines the cognitions of teachers and students their attitudes and perceptions regarding online teaching and their personal experiences and challenges regarding the use of online platforms and digital tools This book discusses the implementation of digital technologies in primary secondary and tertiary education that facilitates the learning and teaching process and creates a student centered environment Covering topics such as digital literacy student engagement and pedagogy this reference work is an essential resource for practitioners scholars administrators policymakers researchers academicians instructors and students Bulletin of Georgia State University Georgia State University, 1978

Innovation in Methodology and Practice in Language Learning Christopher Williams, 2015-09-04 This volume is composed of 24 papers originally presented as talks at the VIII National Conference of the Italian Association of University Language Centres Associazione Italiana dei Centri Linguistici Universitari AICLU held at the University of Foggia Italy between 30 May and 1st June 2013 The contributions fall into five sections 1 keynote addresses from plenary speakers 2 innovative challenges for language centres 3 new developments in teaching language for specific purposes 4 proposals and case studies in Content and Language Integrated Learning and 5 the use of new technologies in language learning 18 papers are in English four in Italian one in French and one in German The fact that three quarters of the papers are in English reflects the way English has become the lingua franca of academic conferences today However in keeping with the ethos of CercleS Conf d ration Europeenne des Centres de Langues de l Enseignement Sup rieur the pan European organisation to which AICLU belongs which is strongly committed to promoting plurilingualism it was crucial that contributions would also be accepted in other languages The volume represents the state of the art in the field of language teaching and theory in university language centres not only in Italy but also in other parts of Europe and the Mediterranean and testifies to the rich variety of ways in which these centres are adapting and thriving in rapidly changing times Meaningful Language Test Scores Spiros Papageorgiou, Venessa F. Manna, 2023-06-15 Research on how stakeholders interpret language test scores and how they make decisions about language proficiency is critical because score based decisions can be extremely consequential for test takers score users such as educational institutions and employers and the society overall This edited volume is intended as a primary resource for language assessment researchers developers and policy makers interested in efficiently communicating score information related to language proficiency Its nine chapters report on complicated often behind the scenes research efforts to enhance the interpretation of English language test scores developed by ETS by employing diverse methodologies such as vertical linking score mapping standard setting scale anchoring and score concordance In a post pandemic era full of challenges and change in the field of language assessment this volume highlights the ethical responsibility of test providers to engage in sometimes challenging research and development efforts to better serve score users

English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su,Cyril J. Weir,Jessica R. W. Wu,2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia s leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies

Exploring EFL Fluency in Asia T. Muller,J. Adamson,P. Brown,S. Herder,2014-10-04 In EFL contexts an absence of chances to develop fluency in the language classroom can lead to marked limitations in English proficiency This volume explores fluency development from a number of different perspectives investigating measurements and classroom strategies for promoting its development

Case Studies in Foreign Language Placement Thom Hudson,Martyn Clark,2008 Although most language programs make placement decisions on the basis of placement tests there is surprisingly little published about different contexts and systems of placement testing The present volume contains case studies of placement programs in foreign language programs at the tertiary level across the United States The different programs span the spectrum from large programs servicing hundreds of students annually to small language programs with very few students The contributions to this volume address such issues as how the size of the program presence or absence of heritage learners and population changes affect language placement decisions

On the Air Instructor's Manual Catherine Sadow,Edgar Sather,1998-07-28 Builds listening comprehension with radio programs from NPR and WRKO Boston

Transformative Language Learning and Teaching Betty Lou Leaver,Dan E. Davidson,Christine Campbell,2021-01-21 A seminal work in the field this book shows how transformative education can be applied to world language programs Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 1993: Strategic Interaction and Language Acquisition James E. Alatis, 1994-06-01 The papers in this volume examine strategies for language acquisition and language teaching focusing on applications of the strategic interaction method Assessing L2 Students with Learning and Other Disabilities George Spanoudis, Dina Tsagari, 2013-09-17 This edited volume discusses the theoretical ethical and practical considerations involved in the assessment of Second Language Learners SLLs with Specific Language Learning Disorders SpLD such as dyslexia and Attention Deficit and Hyperactivity Disorder and with other disabilities like visual and hearing impairments The volume contains 14 chapters These explore various theoretical models and research findings that identify and evaluate the language and special needs of SLLs with SpLD and other disabilities and evaluate the effectiveness of the accommodation practices employed so far The studies involve both high stakes tests and classroom based assessments conducted by professionals and researchers working in the areas of psychology special education and second foreign language testing and assessment from various countries around the globe including the USA Canada New Zealand and European countries such as Italy UK Greece Germany and Slovenia The volume accommodates high quality submissions that cover a gap in a research area that has long been in need of theoretical and empirical attention This volume will become a valuable point of reference and springboard for future research initiatives Changes 3 Teacher's Book Jack C. Richards, Jonathan Hull, Susan Proctor, 1996-07-18 Changes is a three level general English course for adult and young adult learners Changes ensures that students have every opportunity to develop confident communicative ability as well as accuracy in English
