Kuracina, 2010-04-05 This book presents an innovative investigation of the policies of the Indian Congress during the late colonial period Departing from the existing historiography of Indian nationalism it analyses the extent to which Congress elites engaged in processes intended to foster nation building in India Rejecting the long standing premise that the Congress primarily sought to generate a national identity the author hypothesizes that Congress elites knowingly grappled with the creation of a national governmentality. He argues that they distanced themselves from lethargic nation building exercises and instead opted to support more practical and more feasible state building efforts Accordingly this book shows that Congress elites constructed the institutions that would enable Indians to govern themselves after India s liberation from British imperialism It presents evidence which shows that Congress elites began to perceive themselves and their organization as an emerging post colonial state Selected Works of Govind Ballabh Pant: covers January to December 1938 Govind Ballabh Pant, 1993 Political Process in Uttar Pradesh Sudha Pai, 2007 The essays in this volume present a complex picture of the major upheavals that UP has experienced in its society polity and economy over the SELECTED SPEECHES OF PRESIDENT R.
