Selected Longer Poems:

Selected Longer Poems A. R. Ammons, 1980-03-17 Readers already familiar with Ammons s longer mode in other books will welcome this new collection while those familiar only with the shorter poems will find their appreciation of his work both deepened and heightened The Selected Poems 1951 1977 was described by one critic as an indispensable book Selected Longer Poems is an indispensable companion to it The distinguished poet A R Ammons once described himself as not so much looking for the shape as being available to any shape that may be summoning itself through me from the self not mine but ours This availability has enabled his poetic genius to be at home in forms raging from brief lyrics the best of which he brought together in The Selected Poems 1951 1977 all the way to poems of full book length Selected Longer Poems Jørgen Gustava Brandt, 1983 Selected Poems George Gordon Byron, 1993 Richly varied in mood and content 31 poems include convivial song like poems love poems travel poems humorous and satiric poems Included are She Walks in Beauty The Prisoner of Chillon The Vision of Judgment many more plus excerpts from Don Juan Childe Harold's Pilgrimage and Manfred Explanatory footnotes Selected Poems Nicholas Hagger, 2015-12-11 These poems serve as an introduction to Nicholas Hagger's poetic works which include nearly 1 500 poems more than 300 classical odes two poetic epics and five verse plays They are grouped in two parts which reflect the two aspects of the fundamental theme of world literature outlined in his A New Philosophy of Literature Quest for the One and Follies and Vices They present a quest for Reality along with moments of heightened consciousness in which the universe is seen as a unity and condemn social follies and over 220 vices in terms of an implied virtue This selection of poems combines image and statement in the reconciling Universalist manner and in different poems blends Romantic search and organic form with classical social attitudes verbal precision and architectural structure The poems cover five decades and include extracts from The Silence which describes Freeman's quest for Reality in Modernist style Archangel a reflection on Communism following visits to China and the Soviet Union poems written during a Dark Night of the Soul glimpses of illumination and poems of social satire There are also extracts from Hagger's verse plays As can be seen from his A Metaphysical in Marvell's Garden Hagger derives his inspiration from the 17th century Metaphysical poets and seeks to unite the later Augustan and Romantic traditions This selection offers a chance to reappraise a poet whose material accomplished technique and reconciling sensibility places him in the forefront of poets Alfred, Lord Tennyson: Selected Poetry Alfred, Lord Tennyson, 2014-03-26 A century ago Tennyson had writing today begun to be dismissed as a poet whose work embodied everything the modern world was looking to leave behind He still seems to readers to embody the substance of the Victorian era more fully than any other poet but nowadays that is counted in his favor Critics continue to find layers of complexity in poems once thought simplistic while appreciating with fresh ears Tennyson's aural mastery This new edition includes the two long poems In Memoriam and Maud A Monodrama in their entirety all the short poems for which Tennyson remains famous and a generous selection of his lesser known poetry together with a concise introduction to the poet and his work and substantial headnotes for In Memoriam Maud and Idylls of the King Unlike other editions that provide a selection of Tennyson's work this one includes both marginal glosses of obscure or archaic words and phrases and extensive annotations at the bottom of each page Appendices of visual material are also Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2014-06-10 The late Kenneth Rexroth 1905 1982 is surely one of the most readable of this century s great American poets He is also one of the most sophisticated Like William Carlos Williams he honed his writing to a controlled and direct language His intellectual complexity matches Wallace Stevens his polymath erudition Ezra Pound He is first among our nature poets His love poems and erotic lyrics are unsurpassed Rexroth's Selected Poems brings together in a single volume a representative sampling of sixty years work Here are substantial passages from his longer poems The Homestead Called Damascus 1920 1925 begun while the poet was in his teens the cubist Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925 1927 the philosophical masterpiece The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940 1944 and The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944 1950 and the meditative The Heart's Garden The Garden's Heart 1967 The shorter poems were originally gathered in In What Hour 1940 The Art of Wordly Wisdom 1949 The Signature of All Things 1950 In Defense of the Earth 1956 Natural Numbers 1964 New Poems 1974 and The Morning Star 1979 Selected Poems of Amy Clampitt Amy Clampitt, 2011-02-22 When Amy Clampitt's first collection The Kingfisher was published it was hailed as that rare first book that signals a major poet in full bloom Los Angeles Times Its author was sixty three years old Over the next eleven years Clampitt produced four additional major collections Now the most essential poems from these five volumes are gathered together Clampitt was an impassioned observer of the natural world the delights of which color many of these poems writing of the fog she described a stuff so single it might almost be lifted folded over crawled underneath or slid between as nakedness caressingsheets Such was the texture of her language too She was a traveler reporting back from England and Greece from California and Maine and from her native Midwest An Iowa transplant to New York the descendant of pioneers she wrote of prairies and subways of the movements of wildflowers people and ideas and of the widespread modern experience of uprootedness Here is a treasure of Amy Clampitt's verse for those who are reading her for the first time as well as for those who have long admired her Long Feud, Selected Poems Louis Untermeyer, 1962 The truth of the matter is that Louis Untermeyer was a better editor and appreciator of poetry than a writer of it This volume has a few good poems but the reader ends up slogging through a lot of poor ones to find them Goodreads Selected Poems Hélène Aji, Jennifer Kilgore-Caradec, 2013-01-16 Complete poems are bulky and too heavy to carry around Collected poems pretend to be complete but usually are not Selected poems are altogether unpretentious and reader friendly But they can be problematic Who decides what poems are important for inclusion in a volume of selected poems When the selection occurs during the author's lifetime may one assume that the author was involved What motivates the choice of one poem over another How do readers preferences influence this choice How do new readers and familiar readers of a poet negotiate the poems that are left out of the selection The essays in this volume address these questions in a variety of ways and also provide an overview of poetic writing from modernist poets to the present day using selections from the 1940s until now They offer new insight into the uses both pedagogical and critical of selection Because Selected Poems usually address a large general public these essays have also been written for all those who wish to know more about how these slimmer more attractive volumes are produced A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive explatory writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem New Selected Poems of Marya Zaturenska Robert Phillips, 2001-12-01 Praised for her lyricism and mastery of meter and rhyme Marya Zaturenska's poetry lit up American literature in the 1900s But with the giddy 1920s Zaturenska's traditional lyric grace and penchant for artifice rendered her pass By her mid thirties Zaturenska had succumbed to emotional and physical illness At the same time her work blossomed and critics acclaimed her for elevating lyric conventions to new plateaus In 1937 she won a Pulitzer Prize for her magical collection Cold Morning Sky She was only thirty six years old at the time Critics pointed out that Zaturenska had assimilated lyric conventions and made them original and new What is so fine about these poems is that the control implicit in them does not lead to sterility or to false emotion wrote the New York Times Book Review She is a mystic but how neatly she refines the word This new edition consists of over one hundred poems and twenty translations drawn from eight previous books Early poetry from her teenage years reveals Zaturenska s budding talent and an introduction by fellow poet and close friend Robert Phillips places this gifted writer firmly in both the historic and lyric tradition Cawdor, a Long Poem Robinson Jeffers, 1970 Here for a new generation of readers and students are two major poetic works of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Select Poems of Coleridge, Wordsworth, Campbell Longfellow Frederick Henry Sykes, 1895 Selected Longer Poems Guy The Complete Poems of A. R. Ammons A. R. Ammons, 2018-12-18 One of the great American poets Noel Pocock, 1932 he sounds like nobody else Helen Vendler So I said I am Ezra and the wind whipped my throat gaming for the sounds of my voice So begins one of the most remarkable oeuvres in the history of American poetry The Complete Poems of A R Ammons Volume I presents the first half of Archie Randolph Ammons s long career including the complete texts of his three book length poems from that period the verse diary Tape for the Turn of the Year the Bollingen Prize winning Sphere The Form of a Motion and the daring kaleidoscope of The Snow Poems which late in life Ammons said of all his long poems was his favorite Here are many of Ammons s most widely celebrated lyrics and meditations including Corsons Inlet Still Gravelly Run and The City Limits Others are more directly inspired by his roots in the rural south among them Nelly Myers Silver and Mule Song Here too are conversations with mountains as in Classic and Mountain Talk and exchanges with the wind The Wide Land and Mansion materialist explanations of reality Mechanism and Catalyst and prayers such as the several poems titled Hymn A poet drawn to theorizing about poetry Ammons offers both sophisticated discussions of the art as in Poetics and Essay on Poetics and disarming assurance I believe in fun The text of each poem has been established after careful consideration of Ammons s manuscripts and other prepublication materials Endnotes detail the poems composition and publication histories and also helpfully annotate references made within the poems This volume confirms Richard Howard s judgment Here was a great poet surely one of the largest to speak among us PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Zhiqinq Zhang, Youbin Zhao, Xinjie Wang, 2020-05-26 With the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative and the development of Guangdong Hong Kong Macau Greater Bay Area the demand for translators and interpreters continues to grow in China The breakthrough in artificial intelligence which has contributed to an enormous improvement in the quality of machine translation means challenges and opportunities for translators and interpreters as well as studies of translation and interpreting Studies of translation and interpreting have been further expanded and diversified in the era of globalized communications. The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world s languages and cultures By focusing on the connection between the two various researches have been conducted in all forms of communication between languages including translation interpreting cross cultural communication language teaching and the various specializations involved in such activities This has resulted in The Third International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters co organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University on its Zhuhai campus and South China Business College Guangdong University of Foreign Studies November 16 17 2019 The response to the conference was once more overwhelming which was partly attributed to the previous two conferences held successfully under the same title Apart from five keynote speakers over one hundred and fifty participants came from universities institutions or organizations from mainland China Spain New Zealand as well as Hong Kong and Macao to attend the event contributing over 130 papers in total Among the keynote speakers are internationally renowned scholars in translation studies such as Dr Roberto Valde n professor of English Linguistics at the University of Oviedo Spain and the Chief Editor of Perspective Studies in Translatology Dr Sun Yifeng chair professor of Translation Studies and head of the English Department at the University of Macau Dr Tan Zaixi distinguished professor of Shenzhen University and Chair Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University and Professor Emeritus of Hong Kong Baptist University After careful evaluation and compilation 90 papers have been selected for this conference proceedings which was summarized into the following four topics Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice Translation and Cross cultural Studies Evaluation of Translation and Interpretation and Studies on the Teaching of Translation By no means is it difficult to find some interesting and thought provoking papers under each topic For example concerning Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice To Translate or not to Translate That is the Question On Metaphor Translation in Chinese Political works by Dong Yu explains that in judging whether or not a Chinese metaphor can be translated into English an indispensable step is to decide whether or not the two cultural connotations can be connected But this can easily be influenced by subjective factors Yu has suggested some ways in which subjective factors could be controlled to some extent so that the translator could be more confident in his or her decision He has also suggested three steps The first step is to assume that the cultural connotation of the Chinese metaphor can be connected with that of its English version For example the metaphor in could be translated as rain or shine The second step is to find out whether or not this translated version is acceptable both linguistically and culturally in English The third step is to consider the systematicity of the metaphor in regard with the context in both the source and target texts This involves a process of recontextualization When it comes to Translation and Cross cultural Studies On Translation of the English Guide interpreter from the Perspective of Intercultural Communication by Fengxia Liua and Xiaoning Bi points out that inbound tourism serves as a window through which foreign tourists get to know China so the interaction between the guide interpreters and foreign tourists are the typical activity of cultural communication Foreign language speaking guides are usually regarded as people to people ambassadors or cultural ambassadors who have played an essential role in the international tourist industry Therefore they argue that it is extremely important for tourist guides to cultivate their cross cultural communication awareness enhance their overall communicative competence observe and distinguish east and west differences with multi dimensional perspective transcend cultural barriers and learn to use translation skills Studies on the Teaching of Translation is another interesting topic that has attracted enormous attention such as Business Translation Teaching from the Perspective of Metaphors by Dandan Li which explores application of conceptual metaphor theory in the translation process of business lexicons business discourse and business English culture so as to provide a new perspective in business English pedagogy Another study entitled Cognitive Studies in Translation by Xin Huang analyzes the cognitive studies of translation interpreting processes over the past three decades with focus on the issues examined the findings reached as well as the recent development She explains that cognitive studies of translation process examine the translation competence on line translation behaviors such as how the eye gazes and how the words are typed and the brain activities when doing translation Special interests are paid to the working memory problem solving the executive function and some linguistic relative factors such as text difficulty Over the past thirty years the interest in the field has been gaining considerable momentum and increasing issues have been involved Finally she concludes that with the advancement of technologies and interdisciplinary approaches the black box the previously unforeseeable cognitive activities of how human process translation can be unfolded Considering the importance of integrating theory with practice the proceedings are therefore compiled in such a way as to be balanced and inclusive in the hope of summarizing current accomplishments as well as providing certain insights for teaching and further research in the field of translation and Selected Poems Victor Hugo, 2013-05-13 This generous varied selection of poems by one of interpretation studies France's best loved and most reviled poets is presented with facing originals detailed notes and a lively introduction to the author's life and work Steven Monte presents more than eighty poems in translation and in the original French taken from the earliest poetic publications of the 1820 s through collections published during exile to works published in the years following Hugo's death in 1883 The introduction provides helpful background information about Hugo's life and work the selection and what is involved in translating a poet whose effortless rhymes are central to the poetry's power Detailed notes at the back of the volume offer information about the poems and their publishing and historical contexts This is an ideal introduction to a poet whose work for all its renown remains for Anglophone readers undiscovered Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine The Aldine reciter, modern poetry [selected] by A.H. Miles Alfred Henry Miles, 1889 That Dada Strain Jerome Rothenberg, 1983 The title of Jerome Rothenberg s newest collection suggests jazz blues and above all the Dada movement in European art and poetry in the years immediately following World War I In my own world he explains in his pre face to That Dada Strain the Dada fathers who inhabit the opening poems of this book are necessary figures to summon them up along with their legends is no more erudite than to summon up Moses or George Washington or Harpo or Karl Marx so on For Rothenberg the Dada connection his looking back to Dada founders Tristan Tzara Hugo Ball Kurt Schwitters and Francis Picabia is especially apt emphasizing as it does a strain that is echoed and replayed throughout all his work whether it be oral poetry ethnopoetics translation or the assembling of innovative anthologies Following the title section is Imaginal Geographies a group of poems that draw largely on the poet's private self his own language and perceptions in much the same way that the Dada poets recorded associations between images for which no key was readily available In the third and final section Altar Pieces Rothenberg attempts as he says to return to the world in which human beings still suffer both the loss of bread words Jerome Rothenberg s previous books of poetry with New Directions include Poland 1931 1974 Poems for the Game of Silence 1975 A Seneca Journal 1978 and most recently Vienna Blood 1980 Pre Faces Other Writings his first collection of poetics was awarded the Before Columbus Foundation s American Book Award for 1982
