Lloyd, 2018-08-06 Upon his death in 1898 the French Symbolist poet Stephane Mallarmé 1842 left behind a body of published work which though modest in quantity was to have a seminal influence on subsequent poetry and aesthetic theory He also enjoyed an unparalleled reputation for extending help and encouragement to those who sought him out Rosemary Lloyd has produced a fascinating literary biography of the poet and his period offering a subtle exploration of the mind and letters of one of the giants of modern European poetry Every Tuesday from the late 1870s on Mallarmé hosted gatherings that became famous as the Mardis and that were attended by a cross section of significant writers artists thinkers and musicians in fin de siècle France England and Belgium Through these gatherings and especially through a voluminous correspondence

Swinburne and the Singing Word Yisrael Levin, 2016-03-16 Focusing on Algernon Charles Swinburne's later writings this collection makes a case for the seriousness and significance of the writer's mature work While Swinburne's scandalous early poetry has received considerable critical attention the thoughtful rich spiritually and politically informed poetry that began to emerge in his thirties has been generally neglected This volume addresses the need for a fuller understanding of Swinburne's career that includes his fiction aesthetic ideology and analyses of Shakespeare and the great French writers Among the key features of the collection is the contextualizing of Swinburne's work in new contexts such as Victorian mythography continental aestheticism positivism and empiricism Individual essays examine among other topics the dialect poems and Swinburne's position as a regional poet Swinburne as a transition figure from nineteenth century aesthetic writing to the professionalized criticism that dominates the twentieth century Swinburne's participation in the French literary scene Swinburne's friendships with women writers and the selections made for anthologies from the nineteenth century to the present Taken together the essays offer scholars a richer portrait of Swinburne's importance as a poet critic and fiction writer Selected Poems Charlotte Mary Mew, 2008 In her tragically short life Charlotte Mew produced poetry that was intense emotional original and praised by her contemporaries Dylan Thomas Ezra Pound Thomas Hardy and Virginia Woolf Gathered together by Ireland's most distinguished modern female poet this collection includes a diverse range of her work dealing with pain love and feminist themes Over the Land and Over the Sea Edward Lear, 2005 Edward Lear 1812 1888 is one of the best loved of English poets His comic invention and unconstrained sense of the absurd have been enjoyed by generations of children and treasured by adults conscious of the subtle melancholy that underlies the fun This collection includes all the favourite nonsense poems Peter Swaab sets them alongside a generous selection from Lear's six travel books including his three Journals of a Landscape Painter first published between 1841 and 1870 and long out of print For the first time Lear is presented as an adventurer not only in the fabled lands of the Jumbles and the Yonhy Bonghy Bo but also in nineteenth century Albania Greece Calabria and Corsica where his encounters with the people and customs of these sometimes equally strange and challenging cultures are recorded with the same acute and rueful comic imagination The Anatomy of Melancholy Robert Burton, 2004 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this

Scott Fitzgerald's "This Side of Paradise" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-06-29 A Study Guide for F Scott Fitzgerald's This Side of Paradise excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs The Odes of Horace Horace, 2006 Horace is the most beguiling of the great Latin poets He has left an ineradicable mark on Western literature and his works have been translated since the Renaissance This work provides a translation of the four books of the Odes and the Centennial Hymn It includes notes that clarify allusions and historical and mythological names Criticism After Theory from Shakespeare to Virginia Woolf Perry Meisel, 2022-05-30 The argument of this book is a simple one that criticism after theory is a single movement of thought defined by synthesis and continuity rather than by conflict and change The most influential figures in criticism since Saussure Bakhtin Derrida and Foucault are wholly consistent with Saussure's foundational Course in General Linguistics 1916 no matter the traditions of complaint that have followed in Saussure's wake from Bakhtin forward These complaints vitiate despite themselves and often hilariously so the misconceptions that have made cottage industries out of quarrels with Saussurean semiology that are based on notions of Saussure that are incorrect The materialist criticism dominant today is actually dependent upon on the legacy of a presumably formalist structuralism rather than a step beyond it New Historicism postcolonialism gender studies environmental criticism archive studies even shared and surface reading are like deconstruction the by products of Saussure's structuralism not its foils Saussure's sign is sensory and concrete Language and materiality are not distinct but one and the same history society the psychological subject even the environment are systems of signs material archives read and reread by futures that produce the past after the fact Without Saussure contemporary criticism would have no identifiable or effective source The book begins with chapters on Saussure and Derrida Bakhtin and Shakespeare and Freud and Foucault followed by chapters on Victorian and American fiction D H Lawrence and modern poetry Virginia Woolf and Melanie Klein and the historicist tropology of psychoanalysis It concludes with a coda in life writing on the author's epileptic disability The Book of Repulsive Women and Other Poems Djuna Barnes, 2003 Djuna Barnes 1892-1982 once described herself as the most famous unknown writer and although her novel Nightwood is celebrated her poetry has been a well kept secret until now This selection the only one currently available contains work written between 1914 and the 1970s Many of the poems in The Book of Repulsive Women first appeared in pamphlets and literary journals in New York and Paris Published together for the first time they throw new light on Barnes' development as a writer The book reveals her as a poet of unique power at once compelling and disorientating Marianne Moore observed reading Djuna Barnes is like reading a foreign language which you understand The Book of Repulsive Women includes previously unpublished poems and five illustrations by Barnes herself Rebecca Loncraine provides an essential introduction to Barnes' poetry Index to Commonwealth Little Magazines, 1983
