Approaches to Teaching the Works of Jack London Jeanne Campbell Reesman, 2015-10-01 A prolific and enduringly popular author and an icon of American fiction Jack London is a rewarding choice for inclusion in classrooms from middle school to graduate programs London's biography and the role played by celebrity have garnered considerable attention but the breadth of his personal experiences and political views and the many historical and cultural contexts that shaped his work are key to gaining a nuanced view of London's corpus of works as this volume's wide ranging perspectives and examples attest. The first section of this volume Materials surveys the many resources available for teaching London including editions of his works sources for his photography and audiovisual aids. In part 2 Approaches contributors recommend practices for teaching London's works through the lenses of socialism and class race gender ecocriticism and animal studies theories of evolution legal theory and regional history both in frequently taught texts such as The Call of the Wild To Build a Fire and Martin Eden and in his lesser known works.

Jazz Age Stories F. Scott Fitzgerald, 1998-12-01 A generation grown up to find all Gods dead all wars fought all faiths in man shaken was how F Scott Fitzgerald defined his age. Perhaps nowhere in American fiction is this statement better exemplified than in Fitzgerald's first two volumes of short fiction Flappers and Philosophers and Tales of the Jazz Age. Penguin's new Jazz Age Stories gathers all of these early pieces in one volume which together capture the shine and seductive sound of early American jazz the scandalous affronts to religious pieties the nights of drunken revelry and the impending doom of financial moral and intellectual dissolution. Spanning the early twentieth century American landscape the Minnesota of his youth the Princeton college years the squalor and opulence of New York this collection contains unforgettable images of modern America and eloquently expresses Fitzgerald's theme of the enchantment and disillusionment of materialism. Jazz Age Stories includes The Ice Palace Bernice Bobs Her Hair and A Diamond as Big as The Ritz.

The Last Word and Other Stories Graham Greene, 1999 A collection of ten stories the first written in 1923 and the last in 1988. These will be arranged in chronological order reversed and there will be a short preface by the author. These stories have been previously published in a selection of magazines and newspapers the two most recently in the Independent.

The Gentleman from San Francisco and Other Stories Ivan Bunin, 1992-09-01 Powerful evocative stories from the first Russian author to win the Nobel Prize in Literature. A Penguin Classic. A much neglected literary figure Ivan Bunin is one of Russia's major writers and ranks with Tolstoy and Chekhov at the forefront of the Russian Realists. Drawing artistic inspiration from his personal experience these stories are set in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Russia of his youth in the countries that he visited and in France where he spent the last thirty years of his life. In the title story a family's tour of fashionable European resorts comes to an unexpected end. Late Hour describes an old man's return to the little Russian town in the steppes that he has not seen since his early youth. Mitya's Love explores the darker emotional reverberations of sexual experience. Throughout his stories there is a sense of the precariousness of existence an omnipresent awareness of the impermanence of human aspirations and achievements. For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world. With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators.

The Bounty from the Beach Sylvie

Largeaud-Ortega,2018-10-31 The Bounty from the Beach is a collection of cross disciplinary essays capitalising on a widely shared fascination for the Bounty story in order to draw scholarly attention to Oceania It aims to reorient the Bounty focus away from the West where most Bountynarratives and studies have emerged to the Pacific where most of the original events unfolded It investigates the Bounty heritage from the standpoint of the beach Greg Denning s metaphor for culture contact and conflict in the Pacific Islands this liminal place that transforms Islanders and voyagers islands and ships each time it is crossed It analyses the way newcomers create new islands and how these changes may occasionally impact the world This volume examines the little people to use another of Denning s expressions who stand on both sides of the beach they are Polynesian or European or as beaches are crossed and remade no longer one without the other but bound together in processes of change Among these people are Bounty sailors beachcombers Pitcairners and indigenous Pacific Islanders of the past and the present This collection also explores the works of some renowned Western writers and actors who turning mutineers after their own fashion and in their own times themselves crossed the beach and attempted to illuminate the little people involved in the Bounty narratives These prominent writers and actors put the spotlight on characters who were silenced on account of race class or geographical distance from the dominant centres of power Inspired by Denning s empowering voice our purpose is to fill that silence Just as it criss crosses the ocean progressing with the ship through time and space TheBounty from the Beach ranges far and wide across disciplines methodologies and scholarly styles Its multidisciplinary course contributes to illuminate the multiple ways in which the Bounty heritage embraces diverse horizons It throws light on the colonial discourse that undertook to stifle Pacific Islander agency and the neocolonial policies that have been applied to Oceania and still are hegemonic moves that have led to global environmental nuclear and ecological hazards As a whole the collection contends that what unfolds in this vast ocean matters the stakes are high for the whole human community

Herland, The Yellow Wall-paper, and Selected Writings Charlotte Perkins Gilman,1999 Charlotte Perkins Gilman 1860 1935 penned this sardonic remark in her autobiography encapsulating a lifetime of frustration with the gender based double standard that prevailed in turn of the century America With her slyly humorous novel Herland 1915 she created a fictional utopia where not only is face powder obsolete but an all female population has created a peaceful progressive environmentally conscious country from which men have been absent for two thousand years Gilman was enormously prolific publishing five hundred poems two hundred short stories hundreds of essays eight novels and seven years worth of her monthly magazine The Forerunner She emerged as one of the key figures in the women s movement of her day advocating equality of the sexes the right of women to work and socialized child care among other issues Today Gilman is perhaps best known for the chilling depiction of a woman s mental breakdown in her unforgettable short story The Yellow Wall Paper This Penguin Twentieth Century Classics edition includes both this landmark work and Herland together with a selection of Gilman s major short stories and her poems

The Image of the English Gentleman in Twentieth-Century Literature Christine Berberich, 2016-03-03 Studies of the English gentleman have tended to focus mainly on the nineteenth century encouraging the implicit assumption that this influential literary trope has less resonance for twentieth century literature and culture Christine Berberich challenges this notion by showing that the English gentleman has proven to be a remarkably adaptable and relevant ideal that continues to influence not only literature but other forms of representation including the media and advertising industries Focusing on Siegfried Sassoon Anthony Powell Evelyn Waugh and Kazuo Ishiguro whose presentations of the gentlemanly ideal are analysed in their specific cultural historical and sociological contexts Berberich pays particular attention to the role of nostalgia and its relationship to Englishness Though Englishness and by extension the English gentleman continue to be linked to depictions of England as the green and pleasant land of imagined bygone days Berberich counterbalances this perception by showing that the figure of the English gentleman is the medium through which these authors and many of their contemporaries critique the shifting mores of contemporary society Twentieth century depictions of the gentleman thus have much to tell us about rapidly changing conceptions of national class and gender identity
