Shaken Authority Christian P. Sorace, 2017-05-09 In Shaken Authority Christian P. Sorace examines the political mechanisms at work in the aftermath of the 2008 Sichuan earthquake and the broader ideological energies that drove them. Sorace takes Communist Party ideas and discourse as central to how that organization formulates policies, defines legitimacy, and exerts its power. Sorace argues that the Communist Party has never abandoned its conviction that discourse can shape the world and the people who inhabit it. Sorace also demonstrates how the Communist Party's planning apparatus continues to play a crucial role in engineering China's economy and market construction, especially in the countryside. Sorace takes a distinctive and original interpretive approach to understanding Chinese politics, and Shaken Authority demonstrates how Communist Party discourse and ideology influenced the official decisions and responses to the Sichuan earthquake. Sorace provides a clear view of the lived outcomes of Communist Party plans, rationalities, and discourses in the earthquake zone. The three case studies he presents each demonstrate a different type of reconstruction and model of development: urban-rural integration, tourism, and ecological civilization. Sorace's work emphasizes the need for a grounded literacy in the political concepts, discourses, and vocabularies of the Communist Party itself. To dismiss China's official discourse as empty propaganda, Sorace argues, makes China and Chinese realities harder to understand, not easier.

Advances and Applications of DSMT for Information Fusion. Collected Works, Volume 5 Florentin Smarandache, Jean Dezert, Albena Tchamova, This fifth volume on Advances and Applications of DSMT for Information Fusion collects theoretical and applied contributions of researchers working in different fields of applications and in mathematics and is available in open access. The collected contributions of this volume have either been published or presented after disseminating the fourth volume in 2015, available at fs.unm.edu/DSMTbook4.pdf or www.onera.fr/sites/default/files/2015-DSMTBook4.pdf in international conferences, seminars, workshops, and journals, or they are new. The contributions of each part of this volume are chronologically ordered. First Part of this book presents some theoretical advances on DSMT dealing mainly with modified Proportional Conflict Redistribution Rules, PCR of combination with degree of intersection coarsening techniques, interval calculus for PCR thanks to set inversion via interval analysis, SIVIA, rough set classifiers, canonical decomposition of dichotomous belief functions, fast PCR fusion, fast inter-criteria analysis with PCR and improved PCR5 and PCR6 rules preserving the quasi-neutrality of quasi-vacuous belief assignment in the fusion of sources of evidence with their Matlab codes. Because more applications of DSMT have emerged in the past years since the apparition of the fourth book of DSMT in 2015, the second part of this volume is about selected applications of DSMT mainly in building change detection, object recognition, quality of data association in tracking, perception in robotics, risk assessment for torrent protection, and multi-criteria decision making, multi-modal image fusion, coarsening techniques, recommender system, levee characterization and assessment, human heading perception, trust assessment, robotics biometrics, failure detection, GPS systems, inter-criteria analysis group decision human activity recognition storm prediction data association for autonomous vehicles identification of maritime vessels fusion of support vector machines SVM Silx Furtif RUST code library for information fusion including PCR rules and network for ship classification Finally the third part presents interesting contributions related to belief functions in general published or presented along the years since 2015 These contributions are related with decision making under uncertainty belief approximations probability transformations new distances between belief functions non classical multi criteria decision making problems with belief functions generalization of Bayes theorem image processing data association entropy and cross entropy measures fuzzy evidence numbers negator of belief mass human activity recognition information fusion for breast cancer therapy imbalanced data classification and hybrid techniques mixing deep learning with belief functions as well

Principles of Subjective Anthropology Binggong Chen, 2023-03-27 This book puts forward the concept of subjective anthropology and outlines a theoretical system that will allow subjective anthropology to qualify as a new academic discipline in its own right In an effort to respond to the field's proper role as the science of humanity subjective analysis has been introduced into the study of anthropology The book fills two distinct gaps in our knowledge and understanding of modern man offering detailed descriptions of personality and of groups while also advancing the theory of structure and choice The book formulates seven basic principles of subjective anthropology and divides anthropology into three major branches subjective anthropology cultural anthropology and biological or physical anthropology which can be further divided into sub branches The book pursues three key goals advancing and developing the theoretical system of subjective anthropology reconstructing the discipline of anthropology and establishing a Chinese anthropology with Chinese characteristics Chinese visions and Chinese styles

The Roots of the World Duncan B. Reyburn, 2025-02-24 During his career the metaphysically minded journalist G K Chesterton 1874-1936 made a number of remarkable predictions about the future many of which have come true He had no science of history or theory of progress and he vehemently denied that what he was foretelling was inevitable in any way Yet he was still able to imagine with impressive clarity so much of what has come to pass This raises an obvious question How was Chesterton able to be so prescient In this book Duncan Reyburn offers an answer by arguing that Chesterton s gift for prophecy resulted from his unique awareness of formal causation which differs from the typical modern focus on efficient causes and effects To understand Chesterton s attunement to the formal cause his work is refracted through the lenses provided by four thinkers Plato Aristotle Marshall McLuhan and William Desmond These fit together to create a philosophical theological telescope that we can look through to better see the astonishing world in which we live as well as perhaps some of what might happen next

Marxism and World Politics Alexander Anievas,2012-07-26 This book brings together internationally distinguished scholars from History Philosophy Development Studies Geography and International Relations IR to examine recent developments in Marxist approaches to world politics Offering original and stimulating analyses of subjects traditionally at the forefront of Marxist studies of world politics the collection also considers issues which have yet to be fully explored within a number of disciplines Examining a wide array of topics ranging from the imperialism globalization debate the connections between social structures and foreign relations the role of identity and imperialist norms in world politics to the relationship between Marxist and Realist IR Theory the contributors seek to further theoretical discussions and their implications for emancipatory radical politics These contributions are structured around two major themes The relationship between capitalist modernity and the states system in explaining the changing patterns of inter state conflict and cooperation The debates within Marxist and IR discourses on the theoretical significance of the international covering topics including uneven and combined development and passive revolution An impressive collection that seeks to advance dialogue and research Marxism and World Politics will be of interest to students and scholars of IR International Political Economy Political Science and Historical Sociology

An Historical Sketch of Chinese Historiography Huaiqi Wu,2018-01-09 This book systematically traces the development of Chinese historiography from the 2nd century B C to the 19th century A D Refusing to fit the Chinese historical narration into the modern Western discourse the author highlights the significant questions that concern traditional historians their philosophical foundations their development over three thousand years and their influence on the intelligentsia China is a country defined in terms of its history and its historians have worked hard to record the past However this book approaches Chinese history from the very beginning not only as a way of recording but also as a way of dealing with the past in order to orient the people of the present in the temporal dimension of their lives This book was listed as the key textbook of the Eleventh Five year Plan for college students in China

A Marxist Mosaic Jairus Banaji,2024-07-01 Historical materialism as Marx understood this was always an integrated conception or field of research not one divided into separate disciplines The essays gathered in this volume are a remarkable example of how this works across a wide range of subjects as diverse as agrarian history capitalism Hegel s influence on Marx and class struggles in India They were written over some fifty years of both activism and academic work embodying Banaji s lifelong engagement with Marxist theory His recent papers on merchant capitalism can also be found here along with a biographical sketch that sets all of his work in context

Filmosophy Daniel Frampton, 2006-12-12 Filmosophy is a provocative new manifesto for a radically philosophical way of understanding cinema. It coalesces twentieth century ideas of film as thought from Hugo Münsterberg to Gilles Deleuze into a practical theory of film thinking, arguing that film style conveys poetic ideas through a constant dramatic intent about the characters, spaces and events of film. Discussing contemporary filmmakers such as Béla Tarr and the Dardenne brothers, this timely contribution to the study of film and philosophy will provoke debate among audiences and filmmakers alike. FILMOSOPHY is a registered U.S. trademark owned by Valentin Stoilov. www.filmosophy.com for educational services in the field of motion picture history, theory and production. Psychomotor Aesthetics Ana Hedberg Olenina, 2020-04-01 In the late 19th century, modern psychology emerged as a discipline shaking off metaphysical notions of the soul in favor of a more scientific, neurophysiological concept of the mind. Laboratories began to introduce instruments and procedures which examined bodily markers of psychological experiences like muscle contractions and changes in vital signs. Along with these changes in the scientific realm came a newfound interest in physiological psychology within the arts, particularly with the new perception of artwork as stimuli able to induce specific affective experiences. In Psychomotor Aesthetics, author Ana Hedberg Olenina explores the effects of physiological psychology on art at the turn of the 20th century. The book explores its influence on not only art scholars and theorists wishing to understand the relationship between artistic experience and the internal processes of the mind, but also cultural producers more widely. Actors incorporated psychology into their film acting techniques; the Russian and American film industries started to evaluate audience members' physical reactions; and literary scholars began investigations into poets and performers' articulation. Yet also looming over this newly emergent field were commercial advertisers and politicians eager to use psychology to further their own mass appeal and assert control over audiences. Drawing from archival documents and a variety of cross-disciplinary sources, Psychomotor Aesthetics calls attention to the cultural resonance of theories behind emotional and cognitive experience theories with implications for today's neuroaesthetics and neuromarketing.

Sino-Vatican Relations Ambrose Mong, 2019-01-01 For those interested in Christianity in China, the state-church relationship and the present Communist regime and its attitude towards religion, Sino-Vatican Relations offers a wealth of information and insights. This work traces the tortuous history of the relationship between the Chinese government and the Roman Catholic Church from denunciation of Communism by the Church to seeking dialogue by recent pontiffs such as John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis. Besides examining the religious policy of China since 1949 and how the Chinese government deals with religious revivals, this work also traces the history of the church regarding the appointment of bishops in Europe from its early days to modern times. Monarchies in Europe have always been involved in the appointment of bishops. Thus the recent agreement between Pope

Francis and the Chinese authorities regarding the appointment of bishops has historical precedents The overall aim of this work is to help readers to get the right information needed to have a well informed opinion on the complex matter of the Sino Vatican Relations particularly on the agreement signed by Pope Francis with Beijing in 2018 The Constitution of Ancient China Su Li,2018-08-07 How was the vast ancient Chinese empire brought together and effectively ruled What are the historical origins of the resilience of contemporary China s political system In The Constitution of Ancient China Su Li China s most influential legal theorist examines the ways in which a series of fundamental institutions rather than a supreme legal code upholding the laws of the land evolved and coalesced into an effective constitution Arguing that a constitution is an institutional response to a set of issues particular to a specific society Su Li demonstrates how China unified a vast territory diverse cultures and elites from different backgrounds into a whole He delves into such areas as uniform weights and measurements the standardization of Chinese characters and the building of the Great Wall The book includes commentaries by four leading Chinese scholars in law philosophy and intellectual history Wang Hui Liu Han Wu Fei and Zhao Xiaoli who share Su Li s ambition to explain the resilience of ancient China s political system but who contend that he overstates functionalist dimensions while downplaying the symbolic Exploring why China has endured as one political entity for over two thousand years The Constitution of Ancient China will be essential reading for anyone interested in understanding the institutional legacy of the Chinese empire All that the Prophets Have Declared Matthew R repositioning Shanghai as the key to decode the protracted ideological warfare between socialism and capitalism Based on significant archival ethnographic and theoretical evidence unearthed from the distinct cases of Shanghai bourgeoisie and middle class Lei Ping discovers the city s persistent aspiration to bourgeois lifestyle and remarkable resistance to socialist ideology throughout the entire history of the People s Republic of China Ping argues that despite the socialist remolding of capitalist industry and commerce the post 1949 Chinese state failed to eradicate bourgeois heritage in the domain of everyday life in the Mao era which ironically contributed to its controversial policy reversals in the post Mao era from Deng to Xi What lies at the heart of the major intellectual conundrum namely the survival and revival of bourgeois sentiments is what Ping calls the unremovable Shanghai mundane This captivating and provocative account sheds new light on understanding the larger questions as to the crisis ridden practices of Chinese socialism and the raison d'être of the Chinese Communist Party in the twenty first century
