Made in U.S.A. Sidra Stich, 2023-12-22 Frank O'Hara and MoMA Matthew

Holman,2025-08-07 This is the first book to closely examine the curatorial work that the celebrated poet Frank O Hara 1926 1966 undertook for the Museum of Modern Art in New York and abroad Upon his premature death the New York Times obituary ran with the headline Frank O Hara 40 Museum Curator Exhibitions Aide at Modern Art Dies Also a Poet However in the half a century since O Hara s fascinating career as a curator where he oversaw exhibitions of the likes of Jackson Pollock Helen Frankenthaler David Smith and Larry Rivers among others has been eclipsed by the critical attention given over to his poetry Drawing on a broad range of unpublished archival material the book reveals the impact O Hara s curatorial work had both on the reception of American modern art abroad and on the curatorial profession itself It focuses on his travelling exhibitions for MoMA s International Program a vehicle for soft power during the fraught years of the cultural Cold War exposing him to new art artists and cities while developing important transnational networks far from New York from Madrid to Venice Zagreb to Otterlo Bringing together close readings of O Hara s poems and unpublished letters with a selection of archival illustrations Holman argues for O Hara s sense of exuberant continuity between life as a writer and a curator an American and a cosmopolitan revealing that he was so much more besides the quintessential New York poet It is perfect reading for anyone interested in American art in the mid 20th century curatorial and museum studies or simply this lesser known but fascinating aspect of the legendary poet s career      Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,1975      The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Assoc Prof Catherine Dossin,2015-03-28 This book challenges the perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition In her transnational and interdisciplinary study Dossin analyses changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors      The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin,2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period      Monet Hates Me Tacita

World Collectors Annuary ,1992 The Museum Establishment and Contemporary Art Rebecca J.

DeRoo,2006-01-09 This book provides an in depth account of the protests that shook France in 1968 and which served as a catalyst to a radical reconsideration of artistic practice that has shaped both art and museum exhibitions up to the present Rebecca DeRoo examines how issues of historical and personal memory the separation of public and private domains and the ordinary objects of everyday life emerged as central concerns for museums and for artists as both struggled to respond to the protests She argues that the responses of the museums were only partially faithful to the aims of the activist movements Museums in fact often misunderstood and misrepresented the work of artists that was exhibited as a means of addressing these concerns Analyzing how museums and critics did and did not address the aims of the protests DeRoo highlights the issues relevant to the politics of the public display of art that have been central to artistic representation in France as well as in North America On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp,1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work s presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp s essays and Louise Lawler s photographs in On the Museum s Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover The Museum as Muse Kynaston McShine,1999 Published on the occasion of the exhibition of the same name held at the Museum of Modern Art New York March 14 June 1 1999 Robert Rauschenberg Robert
