Conybeare, 2015-08-05 Excerpt from Selections From the Septuagint According to the d104 of Swete In dealing with the Septuagint in and for itself we feel that we are in a humble way acting as pioneers For hitherto the Septuagint has been regarded only as an aid to the understanding of the Hebrew We have reversed that procedure and have regarded the Hebrew only as an aid to the understanding of the Septuagint This would be in a strict sense preposterous were it not for the admitted fact that the Greek translation of the Old Testament has occasionally preserved traces of readings which are manifestly superior to those of the Massoretic text That text it should be remembered was constituted centuries after the Septuagint was already in vogue in the Greek speaking portion of the Jewish and Christian world For permission to use Dr Swete's text we beg to offer our respectful thanks to the Syndics of the Cambridge Pitt Press and to Dr Swete himself To our own university also we owe a debt of gratitude The Concordance to the Septuagint edited by Dr Hatch and Dr Redpath is a magnificent work worthy of a university press Without this aid it would be impossible to speak with the precision demanded by modern scholarship about the usage of words in the Septuagint It is greatly to be regretted that the list of contributors to this work should somehow have got lost owing to the lamented death of Dr Edwin Hatch About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Selections from the Septuagint Frederick Cornwallis Conybeare, Henry Barclay Swete, St George William
