Self Giving And Sharing The Trinity And Human Fulfillment:

Self-giving and Sharing John J. Navone,1989 Spiritual Theology of the Priesthood Dermot A. Power,1998-01-01
Hans Urs von Balthasar's writings have pastoral implications that even now are barely recognised and hardly developed Here a pastorally experienced theologian who knew von Balthasar personally unfolds this pastoral dimension for the first time Integrating Christology and Ecclesiology with the profound spirituality that for von Balthasar is inseparable from authentic theology Fr Power demonstrates the paradoxical grandeur and weakness of the Catholic priesthood He highlights the roles of the Catholic priest as servant bridegroom shepherd victim teacher prophet celebrant and minister of reconciliation At a time when many priests feel their identity called into question this book offers new hope for the renewal of the priesthood in the Catholic Church Toward a Theology of Beauty John J. Navone,1996 Catholic theology philosophy and spirituality have long taught that the joy of Christian contemplation is to delight in the splendor of the divine love for us in all things John Navone explains that Happiness Itself God is forever knowing its truth and loving its goodness and delighting in its beauty The gift of the beatific vision is communion with Happiness Itself Models of Heaven M. Francis Mannion,2023-08-31
Many people nowadays are confused about the topic of heaven skeptical about it or think it beyond description This book argues that without venturing into the esoteric or fanciful we can know more about heaven than we think Did you know for instance that heavenly rest will be exciting and dynamic That we will be overwhelmed and transformed by the beauty of God That we will dance with the Trinity sing with the angels and enjoy the delightful company of the saints including the saints we have known and loved on earth The book will deal with what we will be doing in the Holy City and in the magnificence of the new creation and what it means to say that we will feast at the heavenly banquet If you want answers to these questions at once inspired by Christian tradition and modern insight and presented in a fresh and compelling manner this book is for you It is written not only for theologians and specialists but also for inquiring Catholics and other Christians seeking to deepen their understanding of life after death It will serve theology students seminarians clergy religious educators and parish study groups Readers willing to invest time and energy in the book will find their view of heaven deepened and expanded The Spiritual Journey Esther DeWaal,1993 A collection of guides to the spiritual journey The authors deal with such masters as Cassian St Benedict John of Forde and Carl Jung discussing ideas from East and West At the Limits of Political Philosophy James V. Schall,2010-04 James V Schall presents in a convincing and articulate manner the revelational contribution to political philosophy particularly that which comes out of the Roman Catholic tradition Genealogy of Nihilism Conor Cunningham,2005-06-29 This text re reads Western history in the light of nihilistic logic which pervades two millennia of Western thought From Parmenides to Alain Badiou via Plotinus Avicenna Duns Scotus Ockham Descartes Spinoza Kant Hegel Heidegger Sartre Lacan Deleuze and Derrida a genealogy of nothingness can be witnessed in development with devastating consequences for the way we live Studies in Formative Spirituality ,1991 Eros and

Self-Emptying Lee C. Barrett, 2013-11-30 Pt 1 Setting the stage two pilgrims on the way home Kierkegaard's tense picture of Augustine Augustine's restless heart and Kierkegaard's desire for an eternal happiness Augustine and Kierkegaard on the road life as a journey Pt 2 Signposts on the journey specific theological intersections of Augustine and Kierkegaard God the attraction and repulsion of boundless love Sin culpable action and corrupt state God's gracious response to sin the enigma of divine sovereignty and human responsibility Christology the allure of lowliness Salvation faithful love and loving faith The church a parting of the ways Conclusion two edifying theologies of self giving

Sexual Orientation and Human Rights in American Religious Discourse Saul M. Olyan, Martha C. Nussbaum, 1998-07-02 Sexual orientation is a topic of intense debate within America's religious traditions These discussions have had a significant impact on the formation of public policy as speakers who locate themselves squarely within religious traditions have articulated positions on both sides in recent arguments concerning gays in the military civil rights protections for gays and lesbians gay marriage parenting and foster parenting and benefits for partners of gay and lesbian employees of major corporations and institutions This volume which stems from a 1995 conference at Brown University aims to promote both academic and public understanding of the different positions that exist on sexual orientation and its public policy dimensions within four major American religious traditions Writers from within the Jewish community the Roman Catholic church Mainline Protestant churches and African American churches explore the history and tradition of their communities on same sex orientation discuss the moral stance they advocate and consider the legal and public policy implications of that stance For each of these traditions two opposing views are represented and a respondent frames the issue in a larger context The book concludes with essays by Michael McConnell and Andrew Koppelman exploring how our society might find a modus vivendi in a state position of neutrality on the moral status of homosexuality This book will appeal to a broad range of readers interested in these crucial issues and in the role the religious communities play in these debates while helping to foster the climate for a more reasoned and civil dialogue

Divine Teaching Mark A. McIntosh, 2017-09-07 This innovative work is an introduction to Christian theology with a difference Not only does it interpret with clarity and energy fundamental Christian beliefs but it also shows how and why these beliefs arose promoting an understanding of theological reflection that encourages readers to think theologically themselves From Irenaeus and Aquinas to Girard from Augustine to Zizioulas and contemporary feminist thought Divine Teaching explores the ways in which major thinkers in the Christian tradition have shaped theology through the wide variety of their encounters with God It makes theological study adventurous and interactive not necessarily requiring a faith commitment from all but allowing readers a thoughtful involvement in the subject that takes seriously the Christian vision of God as the ultimate teacher of theology Divine Teaching An Introduction to Christian Theology is an imaginative and lively analysis of the Christian way of thinking offering vivid and informing insight into the history and practice of Christian theology

Love, Love, Love Charles Taliaferro, 2006-04-25 In forty three brief essays from the life of a philosopher Charles

Taliaferro guides us toward the heart of human being in all of its absurdity and joy Electrocuted by his coffee maker during class battling dragons on his rooftop and accompanying his father to the border between life and death Taliaferro recommends to us a life vulnerable to silliness pain and the depths of love they create in us Hilarious and sobering Love Love Love investigates what we need most to live humanely humorously faithfully and well The Trinity and an Entangled World John Polkinghorne,2010-08-25 Besides containing insights from both expert scientists and theologians The Trinity and an Entangled World considers the way in which these parallel insights can contribute to a harmonious dialogue between science and religion Book Jacket John Paul II's Contribution to Catholic Bioethics Christopher Tollefsen,2008-01-18 Any list of the most influential figures of the second half of the twentieth century would arguably have to begin with the name of Pope John Paul II From 1978 when he was inaugurated to the present over a quarter of a century later the Pope has been a dominant force in the world both within the Catholic and Christian Church and in the larger international community Among the areas in which the Pope has been of signal importance to contemporary discussion argument and policy has been the field of bioethics This collection brings together for the first time in an accessible and readable form a summary and assessment of John Paul II s contribution to bioethical issues and theories It includes discussion of the Pope s views on the dignity of the person and the sanctity of human life and the application of these views to various difficulties in medical ethics such as abortion and embryo research the right to health care and the problem of suffering Throughout attention is paid to the way in which the Pope stands as a recognizably authentic voice for the Catholic faith in the medical arena Faith after the Anthropocene Matthew Wickman,Jacob Sherman,2020-11-09 Recent decades have brought to light the staggering ubiquity of human activity upon Earth and the startling fragility of our planet and its life systems This is so momentous that many scientists and scholars now argue that we have left the relative climactic stability of the Holocene and have entered a new geological epoch known as the Anthropocene This emerging epoch may prompt us not only to reconsider our understanding of Earth systems but also to reimagine ourselves and what it means to be human How does the Earth s precarious state reveal our own How does this vulnerable condition prompt new ways of thinking and being The essays that are part of this collection consider how the transformative thinking demanded by our vulnerability inspires us to reconceive our place in the cosmos alongside each other and potentially before God Who are we after the concept of the Anthropocene What forms of thought and structures of feeling might attend us in this state How might we determine our values and to what do we orient our hopes Faith a conceptual apparatus for engaging the unseen helps us weigh the implications of this massive but in some ways mysterious force on the lives we lead faith helps us visualize what it means to exist in this new and still emergent reality C. S. Lewis and His Circle Roger White,Judith Wolfe,Brendan Wolfe,2015-06-01 For over thirty years the Oxford C S Lewis Society has met weekly in the medieval colleges of the University of Oxford During that time it has hosted as speakers nearly all those still living who were associated with the Inklings the Oxford literary circle led by C S Lewis as well as authors and thinkers of a prominence that nears Lewis's own C S Lewis and His Circle offers the reader a chance to join this unique group. Roger White has worked with Society past presidents Brendan and Judith Wolfe to select the most important talks which are here made available to the wider public for the first time. They exemplify the best of traditional academic essays, thoughtful memoirs and informal reminiscences about C S Lewis and his circle. The reader will reimagine Lewis's Cosmic Trilogy with former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams read philosopher Elizabeth Anscombe's final word on Lewis's arguments for Christianity, hear the Reverend Peter Bide's memories of marrying Lewis and Joy Davidman in an Oxford hospital and learn about Lewis's Narnia Chronicles from his former secretary. Representing the finest of both personal and scholarly engagement with C S Lewis and the Inklings, the talks collected here set a new tone for engagement with this iconic Oxford literary circle: a tone close to Lewis's own Oxford-bred sharpness and wryness, seasoned with good humor and genuine affection for C S Lewis and his circle.

Sacrifice and Community Matthew Levering, 2006-01-10 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice. It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology, its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas's theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia. Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion. Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II, Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas's theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 The Divine Ideas Tradition in Christian Mystical Theology Mark A. McIntosh, 2021 This study brings to life the striking role of the divine ideas tradition in the teaching of its central exponents and suggests how the divine ideas might constructively inform Christian theology and spirituality today.

Gift and Communion Jaroslaw Kupczak, 2014 Gift and Communion offers a critical presentation of John Paul II's theology of the body understood in the light of Christian theological tradition. The main thesis of the book is that John Paul II's theology of the body forms a new inspiring approach to Christian ethics and the theology of marriage and family as well as to theological anthropology. A central thrust of Gift and Communion is to treat theology of the body as it deserves in all its philosophical and theological seriousness and to present it as an important stage in the historical development of Catholic theology.
