Excerpt from Self Selected Essays A Second Series A few years ago my friend Mr John Buchan was at the pains to make a selection from my Essays for the Nelson Series I am sure he made as good a job of it as possible At all events no complaints have reached my ears though to be sure in such a matter as a selection the world is very easily content Not so the author who has been thus treated He when he turns the pages of the truncated thing though fully alive to the fact else were he a fool an unbearable hypothesis that selection involves omission and that consequently omissions there must be is yet uneasy as he reads Everywhere discrimination is discerned as against himself discrimination with its consequent rejection nor can he take pleasure in the thought of his trifles light as air being weighed in the critical scales one against another About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Works John Boynton Priestley,1937 Virginia Woolf Virginia Woolf,Joanna Kavenna,2016 The Bodily Self Jose Luis Bermudez,2018-02-23

Essays on the role of the body in self consciousness showing that full fledged linguistic self consciousness is built on a rich foundation of primitive nonconceptual self consciousness These essays explore how the rich and sophisticated forms of self consciousness with which we are most familiar as philosophers psychologists and as ordinary reflective individuals depend on a complex underpinning that has been largely invisible to students of the self and self consciousness Jos Luis Berm dez extending the insights of his groundbreaking 1998 book The Paradox of Self Consciousness argues that full fledged linguistic self consciousness is built on a rich foundation of primitive nonconceptual self consciousness and that these more primitive forms of self consciousness persist in ways that frame self conscious thought They extend throughout the animal kingdom and some are present in newborn human infants Berm dez makes the case that these primitive forms of self awareness can indeed be described as forms of self consciousness arguing that they share certain structural and epistemological features with full fledged linguistic self consciousness He offers accounts of certain important classes of states of nonconceptual content including the self specifying dimension of visual perception and the content of bodily awareness considering how they represent the self And he explores the general role of nonconceptual self consciousness in our cognitive and affective lives examining in several essays the relation between nonconceptual awareness of our bodies and what has been called our sense of ownership for our own bodies

Delight John Boynton Priestley,1968 The Source of Self-Regard Toni Morrison,2020-01-14 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Here is the Nobel Prize winner in her own words a rich gathering of her most important essays and speeches spanning four decades that speaks to today s social and political moment as directly as this morning s headlines NPR These pages give us her searing prayer for the dead of 9 11 her Nobel lecture on the power of language her searching meditation on Martin Luther King Jr her heart wrenching eulogy for James Baldwin She looks deeply into the fault lines of culture and freedom the foreigner female empowerment the press money black matter s human rights the artist in society the Afro American presence in American literature And she turns her incisive critical eye to her own work The Bluest Eye Sula Tar Baby Jazz Beloved Paradise and that of others An essential collection from an essential writer The Source of Self Regard shines with the literary elegance intellectual prowess spiritual depth and moral compass that have made Toni Morrison our most cherished and enduring voice

Delight [and] Self-selected essays John Boynton Priestley,1900 Redefining the 'Self' John Condon Murray,2001 The essays in this volume examine the conflict of self in society as a leitmotif in Swift s Gulliver s Travels Poe s The Fall of the House of Usher Joyce s Ulysses and Pinter s The

Dwarfs The Lover The Caretaker and The Homecoming In his analyses Murray discusses the ideas of behavioral and ideological conformity in Swift s work He examines Poe s use of the grotesque to suggest correlations between the moral physical and spiritual degeneration of the characters and the natural decay of their environment Murray examines passages of dialogue from Pinter s dramas and discusses how the characters within the plays use language to create spatial boundaries to secure their identities by making themselves impervious to the language of their social others Murray s final essay concentrates on the use of role playing and misidentification in Joyce s novel Home from the Sea John Boynton Priestley,1955
