Selfportrait Ceaselessly Into The Past:

Self-portrait Ross Macdonald, 1991 It's All One Case Paul Nelson, Kevin Avery, 2016-09-13 This is a prose series of unpublished interviews with and a visual retrospective of the seminal mid to late 20th century literary crime writer In 1976 critic Paul Nelson spent several weeks interviewing legendary detective writer Ross Macdonald who elevated the form to a new literary level We talked about everything imaginable Nelson wrote including Macdonald's often meager beginnings his dual citizenship writers painters music and movies he admired The Great Gatsby his favorite book how he used symbolism to change detective writing and more This book published in a handsome oversized format collects these unpublished interviews and is a visual history of Macdonald's professional career It is illustrated with rare and select items from one of the world's largest private archives of Macdonald ephemera reproduces in full color the covers of the various editions of Macdonald's more than two dozen books collects facsimile reproductions of select pages from his manuscripts as well as magazine spreads and presents rare photos many never before seen The Detective and the Artist J.K. Van Dover, 2019-01-25 This book focuses on the distinctive role that artists have played in detective fiction as detectives as villains and victims and as bystanders With a few significant exceptions literary detectives have always identified themselves as essentially the deconstructors of the artful crimes of others They may use various methods ratiocinative scientific or hard boiled but they always unravel the threads that the villains have woven into deceptive covers for their crimes The detective does in the end produce a work of art a narrative that explains everything that needs explanation But the detective's moral work is often juxtaposed to the aesthetic work of the painters poets and writers that the detective encounters during an investigation The author surveys this juxtaposition in works by important authors from the early development of the genre Poe Conan Doyle the golden age Bentley Christie Sayers James et al and the hard boiled era Hammett Chandler Macdonald Spicer et al Signs of the Signs William Brevda, 2011-05-16 This book is a study of signs in American literature and culture It is mainly about electric signs but also deals with non electric signs and related phenomena such as movie sets The sign is considered in both the architectural and semiotic senses of the word It is argued that the drama and spectacle of the electric sign called attention to the semiotic implications of the sign In fiction poetry and commentary the electric sign became a sign of manifold meanings that this book explores a sign of the city a sign of America a sign of the twentieth century a sign of modernism a sign of postmodernism a sign of noir a sign of naturalism a sign of the beats a sign of signs systems the Bible to Broadway a sign of tropes the Great White way to the neon jungle a sign of the writers themselves a sign of the sign itself If Moby Dick is the great American novel then it is also the great American novel about signs as the prologue maintains The chapters that follow demonstrate that the sign is indeed a sign of American literature After the electric sign was invented it influenced Stephen Crane to become a nightlight impressionist and Theodore Dreiser to make the fire sign his metaphor for the city An actual Broadway sign might have inspired F Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby In Manhattan

Transfer and U S A John Dos Passos portrayed America as just a spectacular sign William Faulkner s electric signs are full of sound and fury signifying modernity The Last Tycoon was a sign of Fitzgerald s decline The signs of noir can be traced to Poe s The Man of the Crowd Absence flickers in the neons of Raymond Chandler s Los Angeles The death of God haunts the neon wilderness of Nelson Algren Hitler s empire was an non intentional parody of Nathanael West s California The beats reinvented Times Square in their own image Jack Kerouac s search for the center of Saturday night was a quest for transcendence

Occasions Eudora Welty,2009 A treasury of hard to find stories essays tributes and humor from a literary master Gumshoe America Sean McCann,2000-12-06 Sees hard boiled crime fiction in relation to a changing literary marketplace and as an arena for conflicts about citizenship class culture and democracy during the New Deal

Hard-boiled Heretic Mary Stanley Weinkauf,1994-01-01 A study of the character of Lew Archer and the novels that he appears in The Archer Files Ross Macdonald,2015-07-21 No matter what cases private eye Lew Archer takes on a burglary a runaway or a disappeared person the trail always leads to tangled family secrets and murder Widely considered the heir to Sam Spade and Philip Marlowe Archer dug up secrets and bodies in and around Los Angeles Here The Archer Files collects all the Lew Archer short stories ever published along with thirteen unpublished case notes and a fascinating biographical profile of Archer by Edgar Award finalist Tom Nolan Ross Macdonald s signature staccato prose is the real star throughout this collection which is both a perfect introduction for the newcomer and a must have for the Macdonald aficionado from the Introduction This latest book from the well known literary critic Robert Scholes presents his thoughtful exploration of the craft of reading He deals with reading not as an art or performance given by a virtuoso reader but as a craft that can be studied taught and learned Those who master the craft of reading Scholes contends will justifiably take responsibility for the readings they produce and the texts they choose to read Scholes begins with a critique of the New Critical way of reading bad for poets and poetry and really terrible for students and teachers of poetry using examples of poems by various writers in particular Edna St Vincent Millay He concludes with a consideration of the strengths and weaknesses of the fundamentalist way of reading texts regarded as sacred To explain and clarify the approach of the crafty reader the author analyzes a wide ranging selection of texts by figures at the margins of the literary and cultural canon including Norman Rockwell Ana s Nin Dashiell Hammett and J K Rowling Throughout his discussion Scholes emphasizes how concepts of genre affect the reading process and how they may work to exclude certain texts from the cultural canon and curriculum A Tyrannous Eye Pearl
