Mark G. Boyer, 2022-01-28 This is a book about spirituality more specifically the spiritual journey Before beginning any journey or trip spiritual or otherwise we experience a state of order Then comes the call to journey to travel to take a trip to walk to pilgrimage to hit the road etc The call to begin a journey may come from an urge within us it may be an invitation from a spouse or a friend to fly somewhere it may be as simple as taking the dog for a walk in the neighborhood even taking different streets The call disrupts our ordered lives We prepare for our excursion We enter into the stage of chaos when we take the journey also we enter into the process of transformation By the time we get home we will be transformed These are the steps of the spiritual journey into God order hearing the call to journey answering the call with preparation entering the chaos of the journey and being and coming home transformed Ninety seven reflections are presented in this book in seven chapters devoted to journey road path route highway gateway walk way and more The Pilgrimage to Compostela in the Middle Ages Linda Kay Davidson, Maryjane Dunn, 2012-11-12 Nine new studies address the phenomenon of the medieval pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela the legendary burying place of St James A Journey to the High Places Christopher Felix Bezzina, 2012-12-24 Since his existence the human being has explored various ways in his quest for God Part of this search is related to humanity s yearning for true harmony and joy in the world Christian spirituality as a unique spirituality one encounters today imparts various ways one can respond to this longing One of these ways is through allegorical narratives Specifically this study analyzes the spirituality of Hannah Hurnard 1905 1990 by intertextually perusing her most famous allegorical narrative Hinds Feet on High Places A Journey to the High Places is divided into four chapters In chapter 1 the allegorical narrative is subjectively considered in all its aspects and the central themes are expressed without any reference to other secondary connections Chapter 2 analyzes the allegorical narrative by relating this narrative with other material that Hannah Hurnard published These other narratives provide the tools which Hannah employed in the composition of this allegorical narrative Thus chapter 2 presents an intertextual analysis between her other publications and Hinds Feet on High Places Likewise chapter 3 presents another intertextual analysis between the many biblical abstracts and their relation to the narrative in the hope of showing her biblical interpretations Several spiritual themes that emerged from the preceding chapters are discussed in chapter 4 presenting a consistent spirituality In presenting the themes one notes that the strong points and weaknesses of Hannah s spirituality are related to other Christian spiritual traditions In order to conduct a comprehensive study the introductory section of this study deals with the significance of allegory and spirituality

Emotions, Communities, and Difference in Medieval Europe Maureen C. Miller, Edward Wheatley, 2017-01-12 This book of eleven essays by an international group of scholars in medieval studies honors the work of Barbara H Rosenwein Professor emerita of History at Loyola University Chicago Part I Emotions and Communities comprises six essays that make use of Rosenwein's well known and widely influential work on the history of emotions and what Rosenwein has called emotional communities. These essays employ a wide variety of source material such as chronicles, monastic records, painting, music theory, and religious practice to elucidate emotional commonalities among the medieval people who experienced them. The five essays in Part II Communities and Difference explore different kinds of communities and have difference as their primary theme: difference between the poor and the unfree, between power as wielded by rulers or the clergy, between the western Mediterranean region and the rest of Europe, and between a supposedly great king and lesser ones.
