Readings for a Course in American Literature Fred Lewis Pattee, 1922 The Manhattan, 1882 The Reading of Poetry James Harry Smith, 1939 On Qian Zhongshu's Conceptualization of Translation Chang, Chung-An, 2025-10-14 This book brings new perspectives and insights to the discipline of translation studies at a time when Western theories dominate its main discourse By highlighting the significant contribution of Chinese scholar Qian Zhongshu which encompasses a theoretical probing of the process and product of translation in both China and the West the author demonstrates how Qian's reconceptualization of the concept of translation expands the discourse to include and integrate concepts from the history of translation in China The concept of huajing which is one of these cultural perspectives developed by Qian transcends the conventional view of translation as a linguistic transfer envisioning it instead as a dynamic realm where encounters with meaning between the textual worlds of China and the West can take place Through a meticulous analysis of Qian's profound though stylistically fragmentary commentaries the author reveals how his comparative vision creates connections by breaking down linguistic and cultural barriers challenging notions of untranslatability that often hinder cross cultural exchange and anticipating an inclusive and globalized understanding of translation so urgently needed today Century
