Saldana, 2021-01-27 This invaluable manual from world renowned expert Johnny Salda a illuminates the process of qualitative coding and provides clear insightful guidance for qualitative researchers at all levels The fourth edition includes a range of updates that build upon the huge success of the previous editions A structural reformat has increased accessibility the 3 sections from the previous edition are now spread over 15 chapters for easier sectional reference There are two new first cycle coding methods join the 33 others in the collection Metaphor Coding and Themeing the Data Categorically Includes a brand new companion website with links to SAGE journal articles sample transcripts links to CAQDAS sites student exercises links to video and digital content Analytic software screenshots and academic references have been updated alongside several new figures added throughout the manual It remains the only book that looks specifically at coding qualitative data as a core but often neglected skill that researchers and students alike need to effectively make sense of their data and to identify patterns before they can analyse the material Saldana presents a range of coding options with advantages and disadvantages to help researchers to choose the most appropriate approach for their project reinforcing their perspective with real world examples used to show step by step processes and to demonstrate important skills Youth Transitions Out of State Care Natalie Glynn, 2023-05-02 An intimate account of the personal and socioeconomic circumstances that affect state care leavers this book voices the distinct yet interconnected experience of these young people to reinforce the increasingly prevalent Irish model Sporty Girls Sheryl Clark, 2021-03-01 This book engages with the ongoing question of why many girls stop doing sport and physical activity in their teenage years Previous research has found that many girls disengagement from sport takes place despite their childhood enjoyment and that frequently these same women take up sport again as adults Within these chapters Sheryl Clark explores what it is about this period of time that persuades many girls to disengage from sports when their male peers continue to take part why some girls continue to take part and most importantly how girls understand this participation She suggests that girls participation in sport should be viewed as part of their ongoing constructions of successful girlhood within a competitive schooling system and broader socioeconomic context

Writing Qualitatively Johnny Saldana, 2018-04-09 Writing Qualitatively The Selected Works of Johnny Salda a showcases the diverse range of writing styles available to qualitative researchers through the work one of the most internationally cited and referenced methodologists The traditional academic journal article still holds its place as a convention of published scholarship but Salda a illustrates how a variety of approaches to research documentation can evocatively represent social life and one s self in intriguing ways Writing Qualitatively assembles journal articles book chapters ancillary materials texts from keynote addresses and previously unpublished work that illustrate Salda's eclectic body of inquiry. Each piece is prefaced with author comments on the selection and how readers themselves might venture into comparable writing styles. Multiple methodologies and writing examples are included ranging from case studies to action research from poetry to ethnodramatic play scripts from confessional tales to autoethnographies and from textbook materials to classroom session designs. An introduction to the collection discusses Salda's writing processes and how qualitative researchers and educators can extend their own imaginations and creativity to find new forms of scholarly presentation and representation. Writing Qualitatively serves as a supplemental text for undergraduate and graduate courses in qualitative inquiry, educational research, ethnography, and arts-based research. This unique anthology demonstrates to students, professors, and professional researchers how academic scholarship can be reported through a breadth of literary genres, elements, and styles.

Conducting Contextual Research Bernard Guerin, Eden Thain, Kristen Stevens, Adan C. Richards, Guilherme Bergo Leugi, 2024-06-27. This innovative book proposes an entirely new approach to social research, presenting practical ways to discover people's life contexts in order to understand why they do what they do, which is essential for any forms of research that need to understand people. Taking a novel approach that goes beyond traditional categorisations of qualitative and quantitative research, the book starts by discussing the real basis of all research methods in social relationships before detailing the methods for finding out about a person's life contexts in very practical terms, accompanied by suggested questions, advice, and research tricks to help you progress. The various life contexts are then worked through chapter by chapter. Drawing on the rich and varied research experiences of all the authors, examples are given throughout, with later chapters focusing on specific research areas. Conducting Contextual Research is essential reading for postgraduate students and professionals in the fields of counselling, psychology, and social work, and will be useful to anyone conducting research or inquiries to understand human behaviour, including academic researchers, detectives, intelligence operators, social workers, government service researchers, social policy analysts, and biographers.

Preparing White Teachers for Anti-Racist Education Katrina Liu, Michael K. Thomas, Richard Miller, 2024-12-22. Using a framework combining Critical Race Theory and Critical Reflection and Generativity for Transformative Praxis, this book examines both how white preservice teachers conceive of race and racism, habits of mind, and how they react when dealing with race and racism in the classroom, patterns of acting. With firm grounding in real-world data, the authors detail ways in which teacher educators can recognize and deal with preservice teachers who cannot or will not translate their reflections on race into actions against racism.
