New Proficiency Fiona Scott-Barrett, 2002 The Longman Exams Skills series is for students preparing for the First Certificate and Proficiency exams The books in each set provide thorough preparation for each of the papers with lots of practice based on real exam tasks Understanding Development and Proficiency in Writing Philip Durrant, Mark Brenchley, Lee McCallum, 2021-03-18 Gives a theoretical and empirical grounding for quantitative corpus linguistic research in first and second language writing development Present and Future Trends in TEFL María Elena García

Sánchez, 2001-06-04 The aim of this book is to develop a framework for describing the field as it currently exists together with well established views As far as possible the book describes rather than prescribes to avoid taking up any single approach or theory regarding what constitutes the legitimate approach to TEFL research Of course the personal views of the authors will colour the account provided as it is impossible to separate description from interpretation Thus in a way this book involves the theories beliefs knowledge methods and practices of foreign language teachers and how these can enhance teacher education This book is planned for pre service or in service teachers of a foreign language at primary secondary or tertiary levels although the criteria examined are useful to teachers of English as a foreign language teacher trainers or modern language teachers involved in teaching any language whether in Spain or overseas Our main purpose is to help readers to help themselves Accordingly the reader is encouraged to be engaged in an examination of foreign language teaching and learning in hope of improving his her practice and making language teaching more controllable more interesting and more effective The chapters are organized into four sections In Section I three chapters describe some perspectives in teacher education In the first chapter Jos M Vez focuses on the hypothesis that the key to producing well qualified EFL teachers is to greatly strengthen their professional learning across the continuum of a career in the foreign language classroom He emphasizes the fact that foreign language teaching must become a learning profession in order to prompt greater learning among foreign language students and describes the innovative aspects of foreign language teacher education In the second chapter Sheena Davies provides an overview of language teacher education today with particular reference to English language teaching discusses some current issues associated with the field and gives notice of her experience working with both native speaker and non native speaker teachers of English from all over the world on a variety of in service and pre service courses and seminars In chapter 3 we examine the perspectives on teacher thinking and teachers beliefs in general and about language learning in particular Handbook of Research on Perspectives in Foreign Language Assessment Köksal, Dinçay, Kavaklı Ulutaş, Nurdan, Arslan, Sezen, 2023-02-27 As a predominant teaching paradigm foreign language learning has increasingly been one of the crucial elements that leads to career accomplishments for students Due to this foreign language assessment has emerged as a major topic in the field of foreign language learning The Handbook of Research on Perspectives in Foreign Language Assessment examines perspectives on language assessment through reflections on classroom applications and makes recommendations to strengthen quality language assessments by drawing on a variety of research methodologies It also provides a foundation as to why foreign language assessment as a discipline should be refocused with caution what sort of theoretical and practical implications should be in place for foreign language teachers and in what ways it may be possible to provide futuristic perspectives on foreign language assessment for test developers and users involved in language assessment Covering key topics such as testing literacy and language teaching this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals policymakers administrators researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors preservice teachers teacher educators librarians and students

Recent Advances in Corpus Linguistics Lieven Vandelanotte, Kristin Davidse, Caroline Gentens, Ditte Kimps, 2014-08-15 This book is a selection of studies presented at the 33rd International Conference of the International Computer Archive of Modern and Medieval English ICAME hosted by the University of Leuven 30 May 3 June 2012 The strictly refereed and extensively revised contributions collected here represent recent advances in corpus linguistics both in the development of specialist corpora and in ways of exploiting them for specific purposes The first part focuses on Corpus development and corpus interrogation and features papers on the compilation of new highly specialized corpora which aim to fill gaps in historical databases and on new ways of extracting relevant patterns automatically from computerized datasets The second part devoted to Specialist corpora presents detailed descriptive studies on grammatical patterns in World Englishes on neology and using a contrastive approach on prepositions and cohesive conjunctions The third and final part on Second language acquisition groups together studies situated at the intersection of corpus linguistics and educational linguistics and dealing with markers of relevance and lesser relevance in lectures deceptive cognates the automatic annotation of native and non native uses of demonstrative this and that and measuring learners progress in speech and in writing Each contribution in its own way reports on novel ways of getting mileage out of specialist corpora and collectively the contributions attest to the rude health of computerized corpus linguistic studies
