Autobiography of a Repaired Physician Prospero Shimshon Shimon, 2011-01-29 The Autobiography of a Repaired Physician Mental Health as Seen from Both Sides of the Desk is a trilogy Book I deals with my life before during and after the emergence of an attack of bipolar disorder The shattering consequences of the disorder and the personal history that precede it are discussed in great clinical and personal detail My chief concern is that the reader comprehend how the past present and future come into play in understanding the outcome in the treatment of this destructive and deadly disease Book II concerns the social stigma associated with having a history of the disorder and the many pitfalls clinically psychologically and socially that exist for an individual such as myself who is charged with the professional responsibility of caring for people suffering from similar afflictions Book III is about my adventures in the real world as I have seen it It relates to the madness of our world in which the ever present and infuriating search for power prestige and possessions appear unfortunately to be the primary determinants of behavior in our society Many of my closest friends have tried to dissuade me from writing about this issue because they feared I would be exposing myself to further social stigma I feel strongly that those who have suffered from the destructive effects of the spectrum of bipolar disorder must know how treatment works and what pitfalls to avoid in treatment As a physician it is my duty to heal myself and with the help of some very talented colleagues I have been able to do just that My struggle continues and in that sense more books will be written I would like to especially acknowledge the help of my wife Barbara who has stuck with me through thick and thin and my children Miranda Alexander and Victoria who love each other and me

Love as Common Ground Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam

Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life Visions In Poetry Jackie Hardcastle,2014 Jackie s journey into the unravelling mysteries of the spiritual realm started as a casual glance into her clairvoyant skills a cute hobby to pass the evenings away The Angels had other plans This story is the unravelling of the information about the spiritual world through her eyes as she discovers more about herself her gifts and her visions that turned into poetry Written as a firsthand introductory account of her awakening spiritual awareness this book is set in a semi biography format interlaced with spiritually inspired poetry The reader is ushered through a variety of personal life lessons that eventually lead into discovering Love Forgiveness Gratitude and Truth Jackie shares with us experiences which lead her to feel directed to share the messages the questions and inspirational thoughts that came through The reader is encouraged to ask questions and form their own opinions as Jackie s quest for knowledge opens the doors for people to explore their own views and experiences about the spiritual realm and to learn more about the Truth of who they are
