Canadian Ayrshire Herd Book Canadian Ayrshire Breeders' Association, 1925 Secrets of Lucky People Steve Gillman, 2008-05-06 There are people who seem to lead a charmed life They seem to almost stumble into success They have opportunities open up for them all the time Things are handed to them they win in the stock market they find their dream job and get married to their ideal partner These are perpetually unlucky people Most of us are somewhere between these two extremities We may never really know why or whether there is something to be done There is That's why this book was written

The Civil War Draft in Maryland: Lists of Drafted Men, 1862-1865, Volume I: 16 Oct 1862 - 23 Jun 1864 Michael Hait, 2010 A New Kind of Public Graham Cassano, 2014-07-17 In 1936 director John Ford claimed to be making movies for a new kind of public that wanted more honest pictures Graham Cassano's A New Kind of Public Community solidarity and political economy in New Deal cinema 1935-1948 argues that this new kind of public was forged in the fires of class struggle and economic calamity Those struggles appeared in Hollywood productions as the movies themselves tried to explain the causes and consequence of the Great Depression Using the tools of critical Marxism and cultural theory Cassano surveys Hollywood's political economic explanations and finds a field of symbolic struggle in which radical visions of solidarity and conflict competed with the dominant class ideology for the loyalty of this new audience

Consolation Michael Redhill, 2009-02-24 There is a vast part of this city with mouths buried in it Mouths capable of speaking to us But we stop them up with concrete and build over them and whatever it is they wanted to say gets whispered down empty alleys and turns into wind These are among the last words of Professor David Hollis before he throws himself off a ferry into the frigid waters of Lake Ontario A renowned professor of forensic geology David leaves in his wake both a historical mystery and an academic scandal He postulated that on the site where a sports arena is about to be built lie the ruins of a Victorian boat containing an extraordinary treasure a strongbox full of hundreds of never seen photographs of early Toronto a priceless record of a lost city His colleagues however are convinced that he faked his research materials Determined to vindicate him his widow Marianne sets up camp in a hotel overlooking the construction site watching and waiting for the boat to be unearthed The only person to share her vigil is John Lewis fiancé to her daughter Bridget An orphan who had come to love David as his own father John finds himself caught in a struggle between mother and daughter all the while keeping a dark secret from both women Interwoven into the contemporary story is another narrative set in 1850s the tale of Jem Hallam a young apothecary struggling to make a living in the harsh new city so he can bring his wife and daughters from England Crushed by ruthless competitors he develops an unlikely friendship with two other down on their luck Torontonians Samuel Ennis a brilliant but dissolute Irishman and Claudia Rowe a destitute widow Together they establish a photography business and set out to create images of a fledgling city where wooden sidewalks are put together with penny nails where Indians spear salmon at the river mouth and the occasional bear ambles down King Street where department stores display international wares and fine mansions sit cheek by jowl with shantytowns Consolation moves back and forth between David Hollis's legacy and Jem Hallam's struggle to survive ultimately revealing a mysterious connection between the two narratives Exquisitely crafted and masterfully written Michael Redhill's superlative book reveals how history is often transformed into a species of fantasy and how time alters the contours of even the things we hold most certain As complex and layered as the city whose story it tells Consolation evokes the mysteries of love and memory and what suffering the absence of the beloved truly means

Sweep Jonathan Auxier, 2018-09-25 For nearly a century Victorian London relied on climbing boys orphans owned by chimney sweeps to clean flues and protect homes from fire The work was hard thankless and brutally dangerous Eleven year old Nan Sparrow is quite possibly the best climber who ever lived and a girl With her wits and will she's managed to beat the deadly odds time and time again But when Nan gets stuck in a deadly chimney fire she fears her time has come Instead she wakes to find herself in an abandoned attic And she is not alone Huddled in the corner is a mysterious creature a golem made from ash and coal This is the creature that saved her from the fire Sweep is the story of a girl and her monster Together these two outcasts carve out a life saving one another in the process By one of today's most powerful storytellers Sweep is a heartrending adventure about the everlasting gifts of friendship and hope Home Run Howard R. Simkin, 2022-11-17 This book belongs on every World War II bookshelf filling in the gaps on what is known about this oft mentioned but little understood topic of wartime escape and evasion The NYMAS Review Imagine that you are deep behind enemy lines Your plane was shot down or perhaps you have just escaped from a prisoner of war camp The enemy is hunting you seeking to throw you behind barbed wire for the duration of the war What will you do Do you have a plan and the skills to make it to friendly territory During World War II the Germans and Japanese held over 306 000 British and 105 000 U S service members as prisoners The number of successful evaders and escapers both U S and British exceeded 35 000 Many of these were aircrew who received intense training because of the high risk that they would have to evade or escape This book will relate how they fared in enemy hands or managed to remain free This book provides a complete overview of U S and British escape and evasion during World War II It tells the story of the escape and evasion organizations the Resistance operated lines and the dangers faced by the escapers and the evaders in a logical and compelling narrative Heroism betrayal sacrifice and cowardice are all elements of this fascinating part of the rich tapestry of World War II Marx & Ford Luke Marusiak, 2011-03-22 This provocative fiction explores the consequences of twins choices It is a riveting tale that follows the lives of twins John and Thomas Staid who are similar in every way until they grow distant in their beliefs and the paths they take From rural Pennsylvania to a gritty housing area in Pittsburgh from a small private college to a glittering Silicon Valley start up twins grapple with both their rivalry and the consequence of their choices The reader ultimately will feel an affinity for one of the brothers thus the question which twin will you love which will you hate Readers will uncover surprises as the story unfolds Marx Ford engages the reader to an intellectual and intriguing literary adventure American Epic Bernard MacMahon, Allison McGourty, 2017-05-02 The companion book to the groundbreaking PBS and BBC documentary series celebrating the pioneers and artists of American roots music blues gospel folk Cajun Appalachian Hawaiian Native American without which there would be no jazz rock country R B or hip hop today Jack White T Bone Burnett and Robert Redford have teamed up to executive produce American Epic a historical music project exploring the pivotal recording journeys of the early twentieth century which for the first time captured the breadth of American music and made it available to the world It was in a very real way the first time America truly heard herself In the 1920s and 1930s as radio took over the pop music business record companies were forced to leave their studios in major cities in search of new styles and markets Ranging the mountains prairies rural villages and urban ghettos of America they discovered a wealth of unexpected talent farmers laborers and ethnic minorities playing styles that blended the intertwining strands of Europe Africa Asia and the Americas These recordings form the bedrock for modern music as we know it but during the Depression many record companies went out of business and more than ninety percent of the fragile 78 rpm discs were destroyed Fortunately thanks to the continuing efforts of cultural detectives and record devotees the stories of America's earliest musicians can finally be told Bernard MacMahon and Allison McGourty who directed and produced the documentary with American musician Duke Erikson spent years traveling around the US in search of recollections of those musical pioneers Their fascinating account written with the assistance of prize winning author Elijah Wald continues the journey of the series and features additional stories never before seen photographs and unearthed artwork It also contains contributions from many of the musicians who participated including Taj Mahal Nas Willie Nelson and Steve Martin plus a behind the scenes look at the incredible journey across America American Epic is an extraordinary testament to our country's musical roots the transformation of our culture and the artists who gave us modern popular music

In Strength And Shadow David Roach, Mervyn Davies, 2012-11-02 Few rugby players have matched the achievements of Welshman Mervyn Davies the shrewd gutsy number 8 with the heart of a lion In what was a remarkable career he won two Grand Slams three Triple Crowns earned thirty eight consecutive Wales caps was captain of his national team and played in two victorious Lions tours From the tail end of the 1960s through the first half of the glorious 70s period Merv the Swerve with that mop of black hair and trademark headband cut an iconic figure in the world's great rugby arenas Teammates and opponents respected him fans loved him and he was a natural leader of men both on and off the field Then in March 1976 everything changed Mervyn was leading Swansea in a semi final cup clash when he suffered a massive brain haemorrhage He began that fateful Sunday preparing for just another high profile game but ended it fighting for his life Wales and the watching sporting world could do nothing but wait and hope And just when the odds seemed stacked irreversibly against him Mervyn did what he had always done he beat them Mervyn's life story is one of what was and what might have been From locker room tales to the loneliness of rehabilitation Mervyn's account is funny moving and honest He writes about his many highs and lows about losing rugby but regaining his life and shares his thoughts on the days he spent in shadow and in strength

The Mechanical News, 1886 Take My Word for It Anatoly Liberman, 2023-01-03 Three centuries of English idioms their unusual origins and unexpected interpretations To pay through the nose Raining cats and dogs By hook or by crook Curry favor Drink like a fish Eat crow We hear such phrases every day but this book is the first truly all encompassing etymological guide to both their meanings and origins Spanning more than three centuries Take My Word for It is a fascinating one of a kind window into the surprisingly short history of idioms in English Widely known for his studies of word origins Anatoly Liberman explains more than one thousand idioms both popular and obscure occurring in both American and British standard English and including many regional expressions The origins and even the precise meaning of most idioms are often obscure and lost in history Based on a critical analysis of countless conjectures with exact in depth references rare in the literature on the subject Take My Word for It provides not only a large corpus of idiomatic phrases but also a vast bibliography Detailed indexes and a thesaurus make the content accessible at a glance and Liberman's introduction and conclusion add historical dimensions The result of decades of research by a leading authority this book is both instructive and absorbing for scholars and general readers who won't find another resource as comparable in scope or based on data even remotely as exhaustive 50 Shades of Rust Tom Cotter, 2014-09-15 101 barn find tales sure to entice any car collector In recent years the quest to find and restore forgotten automotive gems has generated a cult like following a very large cult like following So large in fact that the subject of automotive archaeology has inspired an entire genre of television programs including Counting Cars Desert Car Kings Chasing Classic Cars One of a Kind What's My Car Worth and numerous others Author Tom Cotter is at the forefront of this movement with his In the Barn series a line of books that inspired many of the above mentioned television programs 50 Shades of Rust collects 90 plus of the all time best barn find stories Each story is accompanied by photographs from the scenes of the finds creating a heavily illustrated book unlike any barn find book yet published Sacred Speech Rev.
