Missing Persians Discovering Voices In I:

Missing Persians Nasrin Rahimieh, 2001-10-01 Missing Persians serves to articulate in elegant vibrant prose the disparate and displaced narratives of five Persian subjects Nasrin Rahimieh's complex and nuanced arguments effectively demonstrate the links that her five figures have to a stable Persian identity complicated by their experiences of travel exile conversion and social change Rahimieh delineates the captivating histories of missing Persians from the sixteenth century to modern times and defines the arbitrary generic boundaries that isolate Persian biographies autobiographies travelogues and social histories Balancing their documentary and historical value with creative and fictional elements she reads them as individual engagements with broader questions of Persian identity at different moments of the nation's history As modes of self expression these texts reveal both remnants of traditional Persian literary forms and new styles adopted through translations and readings in European literature and history Even as it sheds new light on crucial points in cultural self definition Missing Persians offers a fresh look at traditional institutions the role of women and Persia's turbulent struggle to enter modernity on its own terms

Women of Jordan Amira El-Azhary Sonbol, 2022-04-12 In the first book to address the dilemma faced by Jordanian women in the workforce Amira El Azhary Sonbol delineates the constraints that exist in a number of legal practices namely penal codes that permit violence against Muslim women and personal status laws that require a husband's permission for a woman to work Leniency in honor crimes and early marriage and motherhood for girls are other factors that extend the patriarchal power throughout a woman's life and ultimately deny her full legal competency Significantly Sonbol notes that society's accepting as Islamic the legal constraints that control women's work constitutes a major barrier to any effort to change them even though historically the Islamic sharia actually encourages women's work and despite the fact that Muslim women have contributed materially to their society's economy The author covers new ground as she effectively illustrates how Jordanian laws governing gender family and work combine with laws and legal philosophies derived from tribal traditional Islamic and modern laws to form a strict patriarchal structure

English Literature Bernadette Andrea, 2008-01-17 In this innovative study Bernadette Andrea focuses on the contributions of women and their writings in the early modern cultural encounters between England and the Islamic world She examines previously neglected material such as the diplomatic correspondence between Queen Elizabeth I and the Ottoman Queen Mother Safiye at the end of the sixteenth century and resituates canonical accounts including Lady Mary Wortley Montagu's travelogue of the Ottoman empire at the beginning of the eighteenth century Her study advances our understanding of how women negotiated conflicting discourses of gender orientalism and imperialism at a time when the Ottoman empire was hugely powerful and England was still a marginal nation with limited global influence This book is a significant contribution to critical and theoretical debates in literary and cultural postcolonial women's and Middle Eastern studies Theater State and the Formation of Early Modern Public Sphere in Iran Babak Rahimi, 2011-11-11 This first systematic study of a wide range of Persian and European archival and primary sources analyzes how the Muharram rituals changed from being an originally devotional practice to public events of political significance setting the stage for the emergence of the early modern Iranian public sphere in the Safavid period Global Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2011-12-21 In countries worldwide the Cold War dominated politics society and culture during the second half of the twentieth century Global Cold War Literatures offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia Africa Europe and North and South America addressed the military conflicts revolutions propaganda wars and ideological debates of the era While including essays on western European and North American literature the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945-89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume's analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resource for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond's Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge Heroes to Hostages Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet, 2023-08-24 It is easy to forget given the oppositional dynamic between Iran and the United States of the last 50 years that these two countries once shared productive partnership Tracing US Iran relations over two turbulent centuries Firoozeh Kashani Sabet considers when and how this relationship went awry With careful attention to social and cultural as well as diplomatic developments Kashani Sabet shows that the rift did not originate in flashpoints of crisis like the 1953 coup or the 1979 Islamic Revolution but was instead long in the making Drawing from a wealth of English and Persian language sources many of which were previously unavailable or unacknowledged this book considers the relationship from the vantage point of Iranian society and the experiences of an evolving Iran that strived to accommodate American and great power politics Following these two nations through wars decolonization and revolution Kashani Sabet presents an invaluable history of a diplomatic rivalry that informs geopolitics to this day

Mapping the Role of Intellectuals in Iranian Modern and Contemporary History Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2020-12-10 In Mapping the Role of Intellectuals in Iranian Modern and Contemporary History Jahanbegloo and contributors examine the role of Iranian intellectuals in the history of Iranian modernity They trace the contributions of intellectuals in the construction of national identity and the Iranian democratic debate analyzing how intellectuals balanced indebtedness to the West with the issue of national identity in Iran Recognizing how intellectual elites became beholden to political powers the contributors demonstrate the trend that intellectuals often opted for cultural dissent rather than ideological politics

Unveiling Men Wendy DeSouza, 2019-01-25 For years Iranian academics writers and scholars have equated national development and progress with the reform of men s sexual behavior Modern intellectuals repudiated native sexuality in Iran just as their European counterparts in France and Germany did arguing that transforming male identity was essential to the recovery of the nation DeSouza offers an alternate narrative of modern Iranian masculinity as an attempt to redraw social hierarchies among men Moving beyond rigid portrayals of Islamic patriarchy and female oppression she analyzes debates about manhood and maleness in early twentieth century Iran particularly around questions of race and sexuality DeSouza presents the larger implications of Pahlavi hegemonic masculinity in creating racialized male subjects and productive sexualities In addition she explores a cross pollination with Europe identifying how the East shaped visions of European male identity
