MISSING PIECES

A Chronicle of Living With a Disability

WITH A NEW FOREWORD BY NANCY MATHIS

"Important and moving because [Zola] tells his own story, and we really see a man grow, who is the dominant and complex, but particular person and complex contradictions."

—Christina Buhle, The Boston Globe

Albrecht,Katherine D. Seelman,Michael Bury,2001 This path breaking international handbook of disability studies signals the emergence of a vital new area of scholarship social policy and activism Drawing on the insights of disability scholars around the world and the creative advice of an international editorial board the book engages the reader in the critical issues and debates framing disability studies and places them in an historical and cultural context Five years in the making this one volume summarizes the ongoing discourse ranging across continents and traditional academic disciplines To provide insight and perspective the volume is divided into three sections The shaping of disability studies as a field experiencing disability and disability in context Each section written by world class figures consists of original chapters designed to map the field and explore the key conceptual theoretical methodological practice and policy issues that constitute the field Each chapter provides a critical review of an area positions and literature and an agenda for future research and practice The handbook answers the need expressed by the disability community for a thought provoking interdisciplinary international examination of the vibrant field of disability studies The book will be of interest to disabled people scholars policy makers and activists alike The book aims to define the existing field stimulate future debate encourage respectful discourse between different interest groups and move the field a step forward

United Nations and the Rights of Disabled Persons G. N. Karna,1999 Disability and Rehabilitation in Rural Jamaica Ronnie Linda Leavitt,1992 Although negative conditions exist it appears that disabled children are not particularly stigmatized at the household level Nevertheless societal stigmatization and apathy do exist As a result disabled children are not being prepared to fully integrate into Jamaican society 2 There is a range of variation of beliefs and behaviors with regard to disability and rehabilitation The concept of intracultural diversity is supported 3 This population has adapted their cultural belief systems and actual behaviors to match their material realities That is it would appear that people who have a disability and their caretakers have demonstrated contextual accommodation 4 Community based rehabilitation programs based on the primary health care and community participation principles enumerated by the WHO are theoretically sound and practically attainable in Jamaica

Growing Up with Disability Carol Robinson,Kirsten Stalker,1998-01-01 This book encompasses a wide range of perspectives on childhood impairment and its social implications The book adopts a child centred approach stressing the importance of communicating with disabled children and includes pieces of writing by young disabled people Preschool and school age children describe their behavior and feelings within their own families substitute families and residential homes The book explores how such children can best be protected and how their quality of life can be improved Using the social model of disability which identifies the material and social barriers to inclusion contributors give examples of progressive practice and examine the aspirations of young disabled people their friendships and how they come to terms with adolescence and the transition to adulthood

Venus on Wheels Gelya Frank,2000-05-30 An anthropologist discusses the life of Diane DeVries an American woman born without arms or legs particularly Diane s adult experiences from the 1970s through the 1990s focusing on the roles of gender identity sexual identity and discrimination in the life of a disabled woman

Polio Voices Julie K. Silver,2007-08-30 Incorporating many rare photographs from the family albums of survivors who tell their stories Harvard professor Julie Silver M D and historian Daniel Wilson help readers understand the sheer terror that gripped parents of young children every spring and summer during the first half of the 20th century as polio epidemics ran rampant Interviewed as part of the Polio Oral History Project directed by Silver and funded by Harvard foundations and private donors the people featured in this book describe what is arguably the most feared scourge of modern times Testimonies are included from people who worked in polio wards as well as from those involved in worldwide eradication efforts The book also addresses the emergence of the polio and disability rights movement the challenges of post polio syndrome and the state of polio research and developments today And it explores the concern that polio could return in an even more vicious form as a result of bioterrorism The Social Model of Disability in India Ranjita Dawn,2021-05-27 This book presents various paradigms and debates on the diverse issues concerning disability in India from a sociological perspective It studies disability in the context of its relationship with concepts such as culture religion media literature and gender to address the inherent failures in challenging prevalent stereotypical and oppressive ideologies It traces the theological history of disability and studies the present day universalized social notions of disablement The volume challenges the predominant perception of disability being only a medical or biological concern and provides deeper insight into the impact of representation through an analysis of the discourse and criteria for normalcy in films from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It analyzes the formation of perspectives through a study of representation of disability in print media especially children s literature comics and graphic novels The author also discusses the policies and provisions available in India for students with disabilities especially women who have to also contend with gender inequality and gender based discrimination The book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of disability studies educational psychology special education sociology gender studies politics of education and media ecology It will also be useful for educationalists NGOs special educators disability specialists media and communication professionals and counsellors Nothing About Us Without Us James I. Charlton,1998 A study of the global oppression of people with disabilities and the international movement that has recently emerged to resist it A theoretical overview of disability oppression that shows its similarities to and differences from racism sexism and colonialism Jacket Disability Studies and Biblical Literature C. Moss,J. Schipper,2011-11-09 The primary aim of this volume is to synthesize the two fields of disability studies and biblical studies It illustrates how academic or critical biblical scholarship has shown that many texts involving disability in the Bible is much more nuanced than a casual reading or isolated proof texting may indicate Disability as a Social Construct Claire H. Liachowitz,2010-11-24 Wounded soldiers injured workers handicapped adults and physically impaired children have all been affected by legislation that reduces their opportunities to live a functional life In Disability as a Social Construct Claire Liachowitz contends that disability is not merely a result of a handicap but can be imposed by society through devaluation and segregation of people who deviate from physical norms She analyzes pertinent American legislation primarily from 1770 to 1920 to provide a new perspective on the mechanisms that translate physical defects into social and civil inferiority
