The Missing Muse Philip Guedalla,1930      The Missing Muse Philip Guedalla,1929      The Missing Muse Philip Guedalla,2015-07-01 Excerpt from The Missing Muse And Other Essays Myself reading a rich warm night at the beginning of August when a gentleman enveloped in a cloak for he was in evening dress emerged from a clubhouse at the top of St James s Street and descended that celebrated eminence Front Door Bell Tinkle Myself continuing to read He had not proceeded more than half way down the street Housemaid Drat that bell Yes sir he is at home What name shall I say sir Myself closing book Come in Housemaid Mr Nemo sir Myself Ah my dear Nemo you were never more welcome I have been trying to compose a preface for a little book of essays and I need to clear my mind There is so much that might be said about the essay and how can I say it better than to you For there is nothing like a literary dialogue for uninterrupted monologue About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Author, Playwright and Composer ,1929      A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose,Paul Tiessen,2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works      Library Mercury; a Bulletin Issued by the Rochester Public Library ,1929      Making Dystopia James Stevens Curl,2018-08-23 In Making Dystopia distinguished architectural historian James Stevens Curl tells the story of the advent of architectural Modernism in the aftermath of the First World War its protagonists and its astonishing almost global acceptance after 1945 He argues forcefully that the triumph of architectural Modernism in the second half of the twentieth century led to massive destruction the creation of alien urban landscapes and a huge waste of resources Moreover the coming of Modernism was not an inevitable seamless evolution as many have insisted but a massive unparalled disruption that demanded a clean slate and the elimination of all ornament decoration and choice Tracing the effects of the Modernist revolution in architecture to the present Stevens Curl argues that with each passing year so called iconic architecture by supposed star architects has become more and more bizarre unsettling and expensive ignoring established contexts and proving to be stratospherically remote from the aspirations and needs of humanity In the elite world of contemporary architecture form increasingly follows finance and in a society in which the haves have more and more and the have nots are ever more marginalized he warns that contemporary architecture continues to stack up huge potential problems for the future as housing costs spiral out of control resources are squandered on architectural bling and society fractures This courageous passionate deeply researched and profoundly argued book should be read by everyone concerned with what is around us Its combative critique of the entire Modernist architectural project and its apologists will be highly controversial to many But it contains salutary warnings that we ignore at our peril And it asks awkward questions to which answers are long overdue Catalog of Copyright Entries.
