The Phantom of the Opera Gaston Leroux, 2009-11-26 Rumours that a ghost stalks the dark passages and cellars of the Paris Opera House wreaking havoc have long been rife among staff and performers This Phantom also haunts the imagination of the beautiful and talented singer Christine Daa appearing to her as the Angel of Music a disembodied voice coaching her to sing as she never could before When Christine is courted by a handsome young Viscount the mysterious spectre who resides in the murky depths of the building is consumed by jealousy and seeks revenge With its pervading atmosphere of menace tinged with dark humour The Phantom of the Opera 1910 offers a unique mix of Gothic horror and tragic romance that has inspired film stage and literature since its publication The File on Robert Siodmak in Hollywood, 1941-1951 Joseph Greco, 1999 Robert Siodmak who is considered the master of film noir thrillers and crime melodramas has long been seen as a mere assignment director never an artist in complete control of his work J Greco s study of Siodmak s Hollywood career dispels this view and presents a unique perspective on the studio system and the director who used cunning to get his own way within it He incorporates both archival evidence and stylistic analysis to show a distinct correlation between the production histories of Siodmak s studio films and the director s central artistic purpose Shedding new light on the career of this important film maker this book is worthwhile reading for the film scholar the lover of film noir and the fan of Siodmak s work Oh, Play That Thing Roddy Doyle, 2005-10-25 The sequel to Roddy Doyle s beloved novel A Star Called Henry an entertaining romp across America in the 1920s Fleeing the Irish Republican paymasters for whom he committed murder and mayhem Henry Smart has left his wife and infant daughter in Dublin and is off to start a new life When he lands in America it is 1924 and New York City is the center of the universe Henry turns to hawking cheap hooch on the Lower East Side only to catch the attention of the mobsters who run the district In Chicago Henry finds a newer America alive with wild happy music played by a man with a trumpet and bleeding lips called Louis Armstrong But in a city also owned by the mob Armstrong is a prisoner of his color He needs a man a white man and the man he chooses is Henry Smart
