,1982 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979 Living Well Now and in the Future Randall Curren,Ellen Metzger,2018-02-02 A philosopher and a scientist propose that sustainability can be understood as living well together without diminishing opportunity to live well in the future Most people acknowledge the profound importance of sustainability but few can define it We are ethically bound to live sustainably for the sake of future generations but what does that mean In this book Randall Curren a philosopher and Ellen Metzger a scientist clarify normative aspects of sustainability Combining their perspectives they propose that sustainability can be understood as the art of living well together without diminishing opportunity to live well in the future Curren and Metzger lay out the nature and value of sustainability survey the problems catalog the obstacles and identify the kind of efforts needed to overcome them They formulate an ethic of sustainability with lessons for government organizations and individuals and illustrate key ideas with three case studies Curren and Metzger put intergenerational justice at the heart of sustainability discuss the need for fair as opposed to coercive terms of cooperation to create norms institutions and practices conducive to sustainability formulate a framework for a fundamental ethic of sustainability derived from core components of common morality and emphasize the importance of sustainability education The three illustrative case studies focus on the management of energy water and food systems examining the 2010 Gulf of Mexico oil spill Australia s National Water Management System and patterns of food production in the Mekong region of Southeast Asia

Understanding Attitudes to the European Community Miles Hewstone,2011-04-14 This 1986 study presents an insightful perspective on public attitudes towards the European Community It contains a review of the findings from public opinion surveys of the time on this issue but goes beyond straightforward description to provide a real understanding of European attitudes A variety of social psychological theories are used to test a model of the structure underlying Community attitudes The original data reported in the present study parallel the findings from much larger representative and long term surveys of public opinion Thus Miles Hewstone is able to derive from his research a wide ranging analysis of cross national differences in attitudinal support the Community s impact on its citizens and the likely trends in attitude and voting behaviour At a time when the entry of Spain and Portugal had further expanded the Community s membership such issues were particularly timely and this clear and penetrating study especially welcome

Understanding Girls' Friendships, Fights And Feuds: A Practical Approach To Girls' Bullying Besag, Valerie,2006-03-01 Girls bullying is more subtle and less physical than that perpetrated by boys however it can be just as powerful and the emotional repercussions of bullying among girls can be more destructive and longer lasting than the effects of more obvious forms of bullying Teachers report that quarrels between girls are far more time consuming and difficult to resolve than the disputes of boys yet not enough information is available to guide them on dealing with girls fighting and unhappiness caused by their relationships with other girls many of whom may have been their closest friends Understanding Girls Friendships Fights and Feudsilluminates the issue of girls bullying an issue that can cause a great deal of distress but which is sometimes ignored or dismissed by adults Drawing on close observations of girls behaviour Val Besag provides an in depth understanding of girls bullying exploring the mechanisms and language that girls use to entice some into their groups and exclude others The book offers detailed practical advice for dealing with girls bullying which will help both students and teachers to understand and combat different kinds of bullying as well as comprehensive guidance for preventing or reducing bullying activities among girls including Whole school approaches Programmes for developing emotional literacy and resilience Approaches for dealing with gangs Using methods such as art and drama Developing conflict resolution skills Student parent programmes Peer support programmes This is key reading for teachers trainee teachers educational psychologists and social workers academics and researchers in the field and others who have an interest in creating bully free schools and societies
